Contemporary Demographic Transformations in China, India and Indonesia Christophe Z. Guilmoto, Gavin W. Jones, 2015-12-12 This book examines the profound demographic transformation affecting China India and Indonesia where 40% of the world s people live It offers a systematic comparative approach that will help readers to better understand the changing social and regional recomposition of the population in these regions The chapters present a detailed investigation and mapping of regional trends in mortality fertility migration and urbanization education and aging Throughout the analysis carefully considers how these trends affect economic and social development Coverage also raises global theoretical questions about the singular ways in which each of these three countries have achieved their demographic transition As the authors reveal demographic trends seem to be somewhat linear and anticipatable providing Asia s three demographic giants and their governments a formidable advantage in planning for the future But the evolution of human mobility in China India and Indonesia closely intertwined as it is with changing economic conditions appears less predictable and ranks high among the major challenges to demographic knowledge in the coming decades Offering an insightful look into the components implications and regional variations of a changing population this book will appeal to social scientists demographers anthropologists sociologists epidemiologists and specialists in Asian studies Proceedings of the International Conference on Sustainable Innovation on Humanities, Education, and Social Sciences (ICOSI-HESS 2022) Dyah Mutiarin,Achmad Nurmandi,Arie Kusuma Paksi,Zain Rafique,2023-02-10 This is an open access book This proceeding consists of research presented in ICOSI UMY on 20 21 July 2022 at Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta The conference covers the topic of governance international relations law education humanities and social sciences The COVID 19 pandemic first time that occurred in 2019 has brought many changes that constrain all countries to adapt quickly The crisis has shown vulnerabilities and gaps in several primary systems including healthcare social protection education value chains production networks financial markets and the ecosystem One of the efforts that each country can take to rise from the COVID 19 pandemic is through strengthening multilateralism international solidarity and global partnerships Hence this conference raises the central theme Strengthening Global Partnership for Resilience This theme covers sub themes that allow prospective scholars to submit their papers for Virtual Conferences presentation under the following scopes Social Sciences Humanities Educations and Religious Studies Presented papers will also get a chance to be published in our remarkable partner publishers Through the International Symposium on Social Humanities Education and Religious Studies ISSHERS and Asian Conference on Comparative Laws Asian COL we hope that participants will express their innovative and creative ideas to provide benefits and contribute knowledge to strengthen global partnerships among countries Finally all 75 papers published in this proceedings are expected not only as research output but can be developed further into prototypes or evidence for policy making

In Sickness and in Wealth Carol Chan,2018-08-10 Villagers in Indonesia hear a steady stream of stories about the injuries abuses and even deaths suffered by those who migrate in search of work So why do hundreds of thousands of Indonesian workers continue to migrate every year Carol Chan explores this question from the perspective of the origin community and provides a fascinating look at how gender faith and shame shape these decisions to migrate Villagers evaluate men s and women s migrations differently leading to different ideas about which kinds of human or financial flows should be encouraged and which should be discouraged or even criminalized Despite routine and well documented instances of exploitation of Indonesian migrant workers some villagers still emphasize that a migrant s success or failure ultimately depends on that individual's morality fate and destiny Indonesian villagers construct strategies for avoiding migration related risks that are closely linked to faith and belief in supernatural agency These strategies shape the flow of migration from the country and help to ensure the continued confidence Indonesian people have in migration as an act of promise and hope

Making Commons Dynamic Prateep Kumar Nayak, 2021-03-01 With an emphasis on the challenges of sustaining the commons across local to global scales Making Commons Dynamic examines the empirical basis of theorising the concepts of commonisation and decommonisation as a way to understand commons as a process and offers analytical directions for policy and practice that can potentially help maintain commons as commons in the future Focusing on commonisation decommonisation as an analytical framework useful to examine and respond to changes in the commons the chapter contributions explore how natural resources are commonised and decommonised through the influence of multi level internal and external drivers and their implications for commons governance across disparate geographical and temporal contexts It draws from a large number of geographically diverse empirical cases 20 countries in North South and Central America and South and South East Asia They involve a wide range of commons related to fisheries forests grazing wetlands coastal marine rivers and dams aquaculture wildlife tourism groundwater surface freshwater mountains small islands social movements and climate The book is a transdisciplinary endeavour with contributions by scholars from geography history sociology anthropology political studies planning human ecology cultural and applied ecology environmental and development studies environmental science and technology public policy Indigenous tribal studies Latin American and Asian studies and environmental change and governance and authors representing the commons community NGOs and policy Contributors include academics community members NGOs practitioners and policymakers Therefore commonisation decommonisation lessons drawn from these chapters are well suited for contributing to the practice policy and theory of the commons both locally and globally
