Eulogy For Mom From Son:

Harvesting Memories Linda Lee Cermak Kocan, 2025-02-07 Harvesting Memories abounds with intimate and heartfelt recollections from a lone survivor of a family and by extension a way of life that has virtually disappeared from the American landscape. The life she vividly portrays as a child growing up in rural Ohio as the youngest member of a farm family in the 1950s and 1960s, one generation away from two sets of grandparents who immigrated from Czechoslovakia, taught her invaluable life lessons among its triumphs and setbacks. Coal mining and farming coexisted as unlikely bedfellows in that part of the country, but the author's father, who dropped out of school to work in the mines, ultimately came to live a hardscrabble but fulfilling life as a farmer dedicated to his undying belief that the land will feed you. Edward Cermak's realized dream of providing for his family by living off the land came with a death sentence of Black Lung Disease from his years of breathing in coal dust. He and wife Anna were married at the onset of the Great Depression, a most challenging time, and it is fair to say that they shared a prodigious workload and occasional hardship over several decades of farming and never regretted their journey together. The greater the difficulties, the harder they worked, and the more they learned to adapt. As for daughter Linda, the baby and unexpected addition to the family, joining a much older sister and brother, her two decades on the farm were so special that she, as sole survivor, had to put it all into the words that comprise this book as she embarked into her seventies. There are many stories, from the exultant to the tragic, told in these pages. Linda takes you back in time through her memories and ultimately sharing the many truths that came to serve her well as a wife, mother, and grandmother. Perhaps most fascinating is a way of life so reliant on and respectful of family and neighbors, captured in this memoir. You might even find yourself, as did the author in her youth, enjoying the antics of a pet groundhog or dealing with the meanest gobbler ever to walk the face of the earth. It is a compilation of stories and maxims that can only be shared by a dwindling number of those among us who have experienced this rapidly disappearing way of life. All proceeds from the sale of this book will be donated equally to the Dillonvale High School Alumni Association and to the community of East Palestine, Ohio, who suffered the tragic train derailment in 2023 in memory of Linda's Dad and Mom, Ed and Anna Cermak. About the author: Linda Lee Cermak Kocan, the youngest of three children, is the second daughter and only surviving child of the late Edward and Anna Cermak of Dillonvale, Ohio. At 71 years of age, Linda decided to take pencil to paper and record her experiences and lessons learned growing up on her small 150-acre family farm in Ohio's Jefferson County in the 1950s and 1960s. Just jot down a few interesting stories in a notebook to tell her children and grandchildren about their roots and pass on some important life values she had learned during those years. A vociferous reader, Linda is not a formally trained writer, but this memoir reveals a natural talent for writing about what is most important in life via an approach that is inviting, gentle, and authentically warm and loving. She asks that you place your hand in hers as she takes you on a virtual journey back in time to her farm and a childhood replete with memories told in an unpretentious style that can be humorous, charming, and at times assertive and life affirming She promises that Harvesting Memories will inspire and inform you in ways you might find surprising Linda currently lives in the verdant countryside outside of Towanda Pennsylvania with Mark her husband of 52 plus years They live on a 22 acre piece of land which they share with deer various wild critters and their 17 year old cat Sydney

The Day Isn't Over William Bisbing,2021-08-03 This is the story of a man and a woman who have made their respective plans to enter into their golden years after going through all of life s challenges raising their families wanting only to enjoy their retirement years with each other filling those remaining years of their lives with travel adventure and grandchildren along with making memories only to discover their plans lost upon losing both loves of their lives A surprise event in their lives opens the door to their wildest dreams thus providing the book s title The Day Isn t Over However finding each other living happily ever after proves to be harder the second time around and has become more difficult than the first but they remain steadfast in their live for each other regardless of the newfound obstacles in their way making the love they had discovered for each other s golden years shine brighter

The Mayor's Daughter T. C. Christman,2011 A Mayors Daughter shines a spotlight on history of ordinary people from the greatest generation The memories of Therese Christman generates a dynamic story which is birthed in the great depression and then accelerates to the greatest overflow of prosperity the world has ever known A daughters memories a father of fame and a renowned internationally known priest combine to bring a trilogy of a true story of a Michigan city of a culture and of a society that was fashioned by grace to greatness through hard work resilience of spirit sacrifice of self and above all a vision with leadership

Up from a small Midwestern community came these two men who by divine intervention found themselves in the broader stretch of community fame social prominence and a cultural revolution This story becomes compelling because it captures the amazing transformation of a community by one man s leadership And the ultimate salvation of a society by another man s influence through eloquent radio broadcasting This translates to special people with greatness of vision motivated by love and that inner call that brings a profound change to the societies in which great men and women live Henceforth the book the Mayors Daughter Finally this book through the memories of a daughter rehearses history in the City of Royal Oak Michigan that now includes one of the top medical centers in the world and all because of one man s vision and leadership Moreover the freedom of the American culture in part is derived from a Catholic priest who dared to speak out against the evils of communism and the social depression that it causes The memories of a daughter form a trilogy to reveal history in some of its greatest triumphs This book is a must read

The Child Catcher Andrew Bridge, 2024-09-24 The Child Catcher is the true story of the fight to rescue the children confined to a violent and secretive institution in the rural South Andrew Bridge s bestselling memoir Hope s Boy told the story of his survival after he was taken from his mother who struggled with schizophrenia and was left to foster care Bridge was first confined at one of our country s most notorious children s institutions MacLaren Hall Now in The Child Catcher he chronicles his role in the longest running most bitterly fought mental health lawsuit in American history After graduating from Harvard Law School Bridge joined the small team of civil rights lawyers representing the children of the Eufaula Adolescent Center a violent and secretive institution in the rural South against the State of Alabama Eufaula was a place Alabama had refused to surrender Parents were lured into sending their children there unable to get them back Thousands of children went through Eufaula just as thousands went through the institution that Bridge survived as a boy The fight for justice led him through squatters camps in backwoods and into the lives of families caught in a permanent underclass He sat with children as they struggled to explain what had gone wrong in their lives In this David and Goliath battle The Child Catcher is the story of Bridge s personal redemption and the hope that justice for children is possible

Ending Abuse Sharon Speaks, 2016-05-16 Letter to the World Sharon Speaks told family friends and church community the childhood sexual abuse of a Catholic priest and her brothers Now she is telling the world She journaled the healing betrayal loss the empowerment the devastation and the finding of her voice as it was safe This partial autobiography is a gift of tools and ideas for supporting a survivor Writing comes and then poems and songs as she moves from wanting someone to understand to understanding We gain a different perspective of why violence abuse or assault happens and whether criminal and civil court proceedings help or hinder Remembering the abuse as an adult and having it confirmed by offenders isnt often out there for public discussion Sharon sees the book assisting families communities government law makers as well as historians It has a ten year 1992-2002 perspective of societys ways of dealing with sexual abuse Whether it be educational curriculum for advisors in law gender studies medicine counseling social sciences church and church leaders family relationships justice offenders rehabilitation domestic violence cultural studies residential school survivors current affairs media reporters in sports and recreation schools and universities seniors or teenagers this is relevant Society no longer sweeps abuse under the rug when its daily front page news The book relates to those on a spiritual journey as well as adult survivors of child sexual abuse It speaks to those seeking self help or inspiration to support a family members healing Its here for parents of someone raped or assaulted or for anyone who has ever felt alone a loss or betrayal it is for anyone who felt different expendable who wants to be understood who feels battered and bruised used and abused Sharon sees this as a letter to the world assisting us communities and church leaders to create new ways of being there for children This is a book where healing happens joy replaces despair and there is hope for our world a reason to go on
