Citizenship Education and Migrant Youth in China Miao Li, 2015-04-24 In East Asian economies such as China recent mass rural urban migration has created a new urban underclass as have their children However their inclusion in urban public schools is a surprisingly slow process and youth identities in newly industrialized countries remain largely neglected Faced with monetary and institutional barriers the majority of migrant youth attend low quality or underperforming migrant schools without access to the free compulsory education enjoyed by their urban counterparts As a result China s citizen building scheme and the sustainability of its labor intensive economy have greatly impacted global economic restructuring Using thorough ethnographic research this volume examines the consequences of urban schooling and citizenship education through which school and social processes contribute to the production of unequal class relations It explores the nexus of citizenship education and identity forming practices of poor migrant youth in an attempt to foresee the new class formation in Chinese society This volume opens up the black box of citizenship education in China and examines the effect of school and societal forces on social mobility and life trajectories

A Search Past Silence David E. Kirkland, 2015-04-24 This beautifully written book argues that educators need to understand the social worlds and complex literacy practices of African American males in order to pay the increasing educational debt we owe all youth and break the school to prison pipeline Moving portraits from the lives of six friends bring to life the structural characteristics and qualities of meaning making practices particularly practices that reveal the political tensions of defining who gets to be literate and who does not Key chapters on language literacy race and masculinity examine how the literacies languages and identities of these friends are shaped by the silences of societal denial Ultimately A Search Past Silence is a passionate call for educators to listen to the silenced voices of Black youth and to re imagine the concept of being literate in a multicultural democratic society

Second-Generation Korean Americans and Transnational Media David C. Oh,2015-05-06 Second Generation Korean Americans and Transnational Media Diasporic Identifications looks at the relationship between second generation Korean Americans and Korean popular culture Specifically looking at Korean films celebrities and popular media David C Oh combines intrapersonal processes of identification with social identities to understand how these individuals use Korean popular culture to define authenticity and construct group difference and hierarchy Oh highlights new findings on the ways these Korean Americans construct themselves within their youth communities This work is a comprehensive examination of second generation Korean American ethnic identity reception of transnational media and social uses of transnational media

Before I Burn Gaute Heivoll,2015-01-01 In the late 1970s a pyromaniac runs amok in a close knit community in rural Norway Homes are burnt to a cinder and panic spreads as neighbors wonder who amongst them could be wreaking such fear and anguish And slowly almost imperceptibly a mother comes to realize that her son is lighting the fires Born into this time of chaos Gaute Heivoll is indelibly linked to the arsonist intent on such destruction By juxtaposing the pyromaniac s story with his own Heivoll explores memory loss and the agonizing separation of child from parent that it is a rite of passage for us all Written in fluid luminous prose Before I Burn is a literary sensation by the foremost Norwegian writer of his generation

Saved by a Vampire Stacy Claflin,2015-09-30 Vampires Witches Werewolves Betrayal Ziamara nearly died but a distantly related vampire put a stop to that After training to live safely among humans she returns to her hometown of Delphic Cove to settle into her afterlife Things are as normal as can be until a pack of werewolves try to tear her limb from limb She survives the assault but returns home to find her house destroyed Her grandmother is missing and the only ones who can help her are the very werewolves who threatened her afterlife Neither Ziamara nor the wolves are excited to work together but one member of the pack has caught her eye At a time when the new vampire needs to focus the only thing she can think about is him When Ziamara and the pack get closer to the truth about her grandmother s disappearance they find something more ancient powerful and deadly than they ever imagined Saved by a Vampire is a standalone novel in the Transformed saga a series of young adult paranormal romance novels If you like feisty vampires enchanting werewolves dystopian post war settings and pulse pounding thrillers then you ll love Stacy Claflin s latest twist on the typical vampire and werewolf tale

Looking for Elizabeth Helen Trinca, 2025-07-15 The full story of an Australian literary enigma Why did Elizabeth Harrower one of Australia's most important postwar authors stop writing at the height of her powers After publishing four books that earned the admiration of Patrick White Shirley Hazzard and Christina Stead Harrower published no more novels She faded from the literary landscape until being rediscovered decades later to international acclaim In Looking for Elizabeth Helen Trinca unravels this mystery Exploring the personal and artistic forces that shaped Harrower's writing she draws a sensitive portrait of a wounded divorced child and the legacy of abandonment she carried throughout her life She probes the contradictions of a woman who wielded extraordinary insight into others' lives but guarded her own fiercely And she vividly brings to life the literary circles of this fascinating era in Australian culture Based on interviews with Harrower and full access to her archive Looking for Elizabeth is the first full biography of this significant figure in Australian letters A masterful deep dive into the enigmatic life of a writer who stunned and then stopped This is a monumental addition to Australian literary biography that's destined to become a classic Nikki Gemmell A biography that is every bit as beguiling and complex as its towering subject Exacting exhaustive and utterly essential The more I read the more compelled I felt to cut out a picture of Elizabeth Harrower and stick it above my writing desk Trent Dalton

Using Writing as a Therapy for Eating Disorders June Alexander, 2016-07-01 Using Writing as a Therapy for Eating Disorders The diary healer uses a unique combination of evidence based research and raw diary excerpts to explain the pitfalls and benefits of diary writing during recovery from an eating disorder In a time when diary writing remains a largely untapped resource in the health care professions June Alexander sets out to correct this imbalance explaining how the diary can inspire heal and liberate provide a learning tool for others and help us to understand and cope with life challenges The book focuses on the power of diary writing which may serve as a survival tool but become an unintended foe With guidance patients who struggle with face to face therapy are able to reveal their thoughts through writing and construct a strong sense of self The effects of family background and the environment are explored and the therapeutic value of sharing diaries to better understand illness symptoms and behaviours is discussed Using Writing as a Therapy for Eating Disorders will be of interest to those who have recovered or are recovering from eating disorders or any mental illness as well as therapists clinicians and others working in the medical and healthcare professions Reaching Reluctant Young Readers Rob Reid,2017-03-09 Reaching Reluctant Young Readers features 150 middle grade books Each profiled title has the potential to hook the reluctant reader and lure them to read the entire book To specifically encourage elementary and middle school age reluctant children to read there is first a pitch to get the reader's attention That is followed by a short reading passage to set the hook and encourage the young person to read the rest of the book on their own Further the book contains several hundred additional recommended titles The books selected for this collection were chosen following the criteria of reluctant reader books created by the Quick Picks committee sponsored by the Young Adult Library Services Association While these guidelines were designed for young adult books they also work well for middle grade books The criteria include clear writing no convoluted long sentences with sophisticated vocabulary high interest hook in the first few pages well defined characters interesting plot and familiar themes

Best Horror of the Year Ellen Datlow,2015-08-04 For over three decades Ellen Datlow has been at the center of horror Bringing you the most frightening and terrifying stories Datlow always has her finger on the pulse of what horror readers crave Now with the seventh volume of this series Datlow is back again to bring you the stories that will keep you up at night Encompassed in the pages of The Best Horror of the Year have been such illustrious writers as Neil Gaiman Kim Robinson Stephen King Linda Nagata Laird Barron Margo Lanagan And many others With each passing year science technology and the march of time shine light into the craggy corners of the universe making the fears of an earlier generation seem quaint But this light creates its own shadows The Best Horror of the Year chronicles these shifting shadows It is a catalog of terror fear and unpleasantness as articulated by today's most challenging and exciting writers A Question of Truth Brian Musgrove,2015-04-28 Matthew is an only child brought up within a religious family but with his obsession for truth he uncovers serious anomalies with what he is expected to believe The story unfolds in Worthing during the 1940s 1950s and early 1960s where Matthew attended school church and where he worked As he matures he finds that his spiritual upbringing leaves him unprepared for many aspects of his life and particularly for falling in love and eventually he is forced to choose between his faith and the girl he loves This is a touching story of how Matthew's life is directed and inhibited by the well intentioned beliefs and values of his family and how he must come to terms with the reality behind the truth It is about a boy growing up struggling with adolescence falling in love and trying to understand the religion he has been brought up with but it challenges the very core of belief and provides a battleground in Matthew's mind as he questions his faith As such the topic of religion is sympathetically handled and the characters in the novel give opposing points of view which are thought provoking for the religious and nonreligious alike Pieces Of Me Jacquie Underdown,2015-12-01 A story about starting fresh letting go and risking it all for love For Hannah Mercy Island is a refuge a new beginning and a place to find safety in her own skin Here in this peaceful beachside place she will rediscover all those pieces of herself her abusive ex stole away For Bear Mercy Island is a prison a backwater a place he can't wait to escape Away in the city he'll chase his dreams and lose the bad memories haunting him When Hannah's home is damaged in an ugly storm Bear offers his handyman services to repair it a last job and a pretty girl to pass the time before he heads out But Hannah is terrified to lose herself in another relationship and Bear isn't in it for the long haul However their simmering sexual attraction refuses to be ignored and just because love isn't on the line doesn't mean sex isn't on the table A no strings attached brief fling to curb the tension and take the edge off No ties No emotions No pain But love has a way of coming in the windows even when you've slammed the door if only Hannah and Bear can stop looking to the past and find hope in their future 'Disciples of Flora' Victoria Emma Pagán,Judith W. Page,Brigitte Weltman-Aron,2015-09-04 Disciples of Flora explores through a variety of approaches disciplines and historical periods the place and vitality of gardens as cultural objects repositories of meaning and sites for the construction of identity and subjectivity gardens being an eminent locus where culture and nature meet This collection of essays contributes to a revision of histories of gardens by broadening the scope of scholarly inquiry to include a long history from ancient Rome to the present in which contesting memories delineate new apprehensions of topography and space The contributors draw attention to alternative landscapes or gardening practices while recalling the ways in which spaces have been invested with an affective dimension that has itself been historicized Pain Is a Game We All Got to Play Trixie James,2015-09-24 Trixie resides in the Island of Barbados for many visitors to Barbados the Island is beautiful tranquil and peaceful but beneath the surface of this paradise lies a class structure that is so tightly held in place that for many reaching the top of this structure is hard to accomplish and only a few are able to penetrate enabling them to move up the ladder Trixie is one of the few who was able to penetrate and move up the ladder but the journey wasn't easy because Trixie from the beginning was set up to fail with a mother who loved her but had difficulty putting Trixie's needs above her own a father who constantly abandoned her because he was a dead beat her mother's family except for two aunts who resented her because they felt she was given everything and her father's family who except for an uncle and great uncle acted as if she didn't exist American English File 3E Level 1 Student Book Christina Latham-Koenig,Clive Oxenden,Jerry Lambert,2019-07-11 American English File Second Edition retains the popular methodology developed by world renowned authors Christina Latham Koenig and Clive Oxenden language motivation opportunity With grammar vocabulary and pronunciation practice in every lesson students are equipped with a solid foundation for successful speaking Plus an array of digital resources provides even more choice and flexibility Students can learn in the classroom or on the move with Online

Practice language assessment The first goal is to explore the difference between fairness and justice in language assessment The authors distinguish internal and external dimensions of the equitable and just treatment of individuals taking language tests which are used as gatekeeping devices to determine access to education and employment immigrant status citizenship and other rights The second goal is to show how the extent of test fairness can be demonstrated and improved using the tools of psychometrics in particular the models collectively known as Rasch measurement This book will have an enormous impact on the field of language assessment Using Rasch analysis models to explore and identify sources of unfairness the authors make a compelling case for fairness in the design and implementation of language assessment instruments and for justice in the interpretation and use of test results A real strength of the book is that it guides readers through analytical techniques in an accessible way Dan Douglas Professor Emeritus Applied Linguistics Program Iowa State University
