It helps to guide them through each chapter and allows them to check their understanding of what is happening in the book as they read not just at the very end of the book. Our Reader's Guides include: A explanation of each section of the book guide that provides suggestions about how best to use each section to boost comprehension. An explanation of the genre of the book. Various background materials that will help to provide a better understanding of the context of the story. A summary of the entire book so you have a good idea of the major events that take place in the story. An in depth look at the themes that will be developed throughout the book. Big Idea Questions that are designed to give you a sense of the overarching questions you should be able to answer after finishing the book. A guide to the chapter sections so you know how best to use them as you read this book. Each chapter guide includes Important vocabulary you should know before reading the chapter. A summary of the chapter so that you can make sure you remember all of the important events from that chapter. Text Based Questions with example responses. These questions are basic recall questions. Each question comes with a sample answer so you have a good idea of what a good answer would be. Critical Thinking Questions with example responses. These questions push you to think about the events of the chapter in a more challenging way. Each question comes with a sample answer so you have a good idea of what a good answer would be. Theme Based Questions with example responses. These questions are designed to help you connect the events of the chapter to the development of the themes throughout the story. Each question comes with a sample answer so you have a good idea of what a good answer would be. Making Connections Questions. Everyone's experiences are unique so there are no sample answers here.

The Author Training Manual Nina Amir, 2014-02-18 If you want to write a book that's going to sell to both publishers and readers you need to know how to produce a marketable work and help it become successful. It starts the moment you have an idea. That's when you begin thinking about the first elements of the business plan that will make your project the best it can be. The reality is that you don't want to spend time and energy writing a book that will never get read. The way to avoid that is to create a business plan for your book and evaluate it and yourself through the same lens that an agent or acquisitions editor would. The Author Training Manual will show you how to get more creative and start looking at your work with those high standards in mind. Whether you're writing fiction or non fiction or intend to publish traditionally or self publish author Nina Amir will teach you how to conduct an effective competitive analysis for your work and do a better job at delivering the goods to readers than similar books that are already on the shelf. Packed with step by step instructions, idea evaluations, sample business plans, editor and agent commentaries and much more. The Author Training
