East Asian Development Yilmaz Akyuz, 2020-04-15 This collection of papers challenges the conventional view of East Asian development driven by open and efficient markets and suggests that considerable diversity both at the institutional level and in policy approaches lies behind the region's rapid economic growth

China, the UN, and Human Protection Rosemary Foot, 2020-05-28 Over a relatively short period of time Beijing moved from dismissing the UN to embracing it How are we to make sense of the People's Republic of China's PRC embrace of the UN and what does its engagement mean in larger terms This study focuses directly on Beijing's involvement in one of the most contentious areas of UN activity human protection contentious because the norm of human protection tips the balance away from the UN's Westphalian state based profile towards the provision of greater protection for the security of individuals and their individual liberties The argument that follows shows that as an ever more crucial actor within the United Nations Beijing's rhetoric and some of its practices are playing an increasingly important role in determining how this norm is articulated and interpreted In some cases the PRC is also influencing how these ideas of human protection are implemented At stake in the questions this book tackles is both how we understand the PRC as a participant in shaping global order and the future of some of the core norms which constitute that order

Human Trafficking in Europe Gillian Wylie, Penelope McRedmond, 2010-06-30 This book focuses on human trafficking in Europe for labour and sexual exploitation It includes empirical work on trafficking throughout Europe identifying underlying causes in globalization migration policies and gender inequality It questions whether European responses from policy makers or civil society are adequate
