Handbook on Moving Corrections and Sentencing Forward

Pamela K. Lattimore, Beth M. Huebner, Faye S. Taxman, 2020-11-10 This volume addresses major issues and research in corrections and sentencing with the goal of using previous research and findings as a platform for recommendations about future research evaluation and policy The last several decades witnessed major policy changes in sentencing and corrections in the United States as well as considerable research to identify the most effective strategies for addressing criminal behavior These efforts included changes in sentencing that eliminated parole and imposed draconian sentences for violent and drug crimes The federal government followed by most states implemented sentencing guidelines that greatly reduced the discretion of the courts to impose sentences The results were a multifold increase in the numbers of individuals in jails and prisons and on community supervision increases that have only recently crested There were also efforts to engage prosecutors and the courts in diversion and oversight including the development of prosecutorial diversion programs as well as a variety of specialty courts Penal reform has included efforts to understand the transitions from prison to the community including federal led efforts focused on reentry programming Community corrections reforms have ranged from increased surveillance through drug testing electronic monitoring and in some cases judicial oversight to rehabilitative efforts driven by risk and needs assessment More recently the focus has included pretrial reform to reduce the number of people held in jail pending trial efforts that have brought attention to the use of bail and its disproportionate impact on people of color and the poor This collection of chapters from leading researchers addresses a wide array of the latest research in the field A unique approach featuring responses to the original essays by active researchers spurs discussion and provides a foundation for developing directions for future research and policymaking Transitioning from a Theological College to a Christian University Semeon Mulatu, 2017-10-14 The decision for ministerial training institutions to become broader educational institutions that offer courses outside the traditional areas of theology is certainly not unique to a specific geographical context While there are many examples of notable institutions making this transition in North America and Europe very little reflection has been carried out in the global south In this book Dr Semeon Mulatu looks to institutions in Kenya Ethiopia Uganda and the Democratic Republic of Congo that have completed or embarked upon the journey to university status The study explores the motivations of educational leaders in pursuing such a transition as well as the impact it has had or will have on the continued theological education and Christian mission of the institution Here you will find answers to key questions such as What is lost and gained by a seminary becoming a university What are the challenges along the road Is it all worth it in the end Meaningful Care J. Stolk, Theo A. Boer, R. Seldenrijk, 2013-03-14 It is crucial for the quality of care of people with mental retardation that care providers experience their work as meaningful A complexity however is the fact that this care is divided amongst a range of professions This book addresses issues of meaning meaning of care and meaning of life from all the different professional perspectives involved Such a multidisciplinary approach is unique and has never before been followed The book contains the results of a series of interviews in which parents of people with mental retardation were asked what they conceive to be meaningful care The results are placed in relation to experiences and conceptions of professional caregivers Moreover the study analyzes the cultural philosophical and theological significance of the concept meaningful care Finally the book explores the relevance of this concept for practical professions such as medical care social work educational psychology pedagogic counseling and pastoral care Scholarly depth is combined with experiential knowledge of professional practice Hence this book is an outstanding source of reflection for all those who work professionally with people with mental retardation Evidence-based science communication in the COVID-19 era Eric A.
