

Sociology= systematic study of social interaction and society

Sociological perspective ("sociological imagination")= perspective from which one sees and understands the connections between individuals and the broader social contexts in which they live

-Ex. Suicide= personal trouble that is affected by the cohesiveness of a society

Major sociological perspectives:

1. Structural-Functionalist Theory:

-Society= set of interrelated parts

-Natural state of society= balance and harmony

-Cultural consensus exists and leads to social order

-Individuals are socialized by society's institutions

-Functions:

• Manifest functions= intended consequences of any social pattern

• Latent functions= unintended consequences of any social pattern

• Social dysfunction= any social pattern that may disrupt the function of society

2. Social Conflict Theory:

-Social function benefits those at the top and hurts those at the bottom

-Society is marked by power struggles over scarce resources

-Inequities result in conflict; social change is inevitable

-Natural state of society= imbalance

-Defines social problems as conditions that do not conform to the dominant ideology

-People are inherently good but are corrupted by society and its economic structure

3. Symbolic Interactionist Theory:

-We live in a world of symbols, so which we attach meaning

-Meanings arise out of social interaction

-Focuses on how individuals interact in relation to each other every day

-Focuses on how individuals in social interaction: shape organization, share a view of the world, influence one another, and are socialized

DEVIANCE

Social cohesion, the way people form social bonds, relate to each other, and get along on a day-to-day basis.

Repressive law: characteristic of mechanical solidarity; where offenders are likely to be severely punished for any action seen as an offense against the collective conscience

Restitutive law: characteristic of organic solidarity; where offenders are asked to comply with the law or to repay (make restitution) those who have been harmed by their actions

3 Sociological perspectives on Deviance:

1. Structural-Functionalist

a. Durkheim: studied the ways society holds itself together

b. Social cohesion is achieved in two main ways:

Mechanical solidarity: characteristic of pre-modern societies

Suffer Less in Life and Work Vincent Dodd, 2023-01-31 It can seem we are more divided than ever in many aspects of life and we too often still feel empty while pushing ourselves to keep up Suffer Less in Life and yet life is also an amazing and unfortunately short but powerful journey So yes I do find the good the humor and the laughter as often as I can My answer to the slightly differently worded question is the same but it starts with I am not always happy I have seen inside of us including myself that there is a dark place between alive and dead that we sometimes fall into for a period That place is emptiness loneliness paralyzing fear anxiety depression anger resentment jealousy even blame and many addictions It is my hope that we do not have to stay in that undead but not alive place for long We arrive there when our feelings or perceptions and sometimes the actual reality of our life hit a difficult span of more bad than good This causes the rough to cover more of our spirit than the light of goodness can illuminate In this day and time that unalive place is happening to us all too often We do have valid reasons to feel overwhelmed depressed anxious and to question human and social behaviors But you are alive and unless chronic or severe these painful aware and sensitive human experiences have the potential to enrich our lives It requires a cautious balance As pressures mount this can be difficult but acknowledging how tough and scary it all can be at times is a great healthy start United States Air Force Academy United States Air Force Academy, CLEP Introductory Sociology ,
