The Routledge International Handbook of Philosophies and Theories of Early Childhood Education and Care Tricia David, Kathy Goouch, Sacha Powell, 2015-10-05 The Routledge Handbook of Philosophies and Theories of Early Childhood Education and Care brings together leading writers in the field to provide a much needed authoritative guide to the major philosophies and theories which have shaped approaches to Early Childhood Education and Care Providing a detailed overview of key concepts debates and practical challenges the handbook combines theoretical acumen with specific examples to show how philosophies and theories have evolved over the centuries and their impact on policy and society It examines the ways in which societies define and make sense of childhood and the factors that influence the development of philosophies about young children and their learning The collection offers an insight into the key theorists and considers how the economics and politics of their time and personal ideology influenced their ideas about childhood It looks at curricula and provision which have proved inspirational and how these have impacted on policy and practice in different parts of the world The handbook also explores alternative and perhaps less familiar philosophies and ideas about babies and young children their place in society and the ways in which it might be appropriate to educate them Bringing together specially commissioned pieces by a range of international authors this handbook will enable academics research students practitioners and policy makers to reflect on their own understandings and approaches as well as the assumptions made in their own and other societies

International Research on Education for Sustainable Development in Early Childhood John Siraj-Blatchford, Cathy Mogharreban, Eunhye Park, 2016-10-14 This book offers a perspective on Education for Sustainable Development in Early Childhood ESDEC that is far removed from the business as usual notion of an extended predominantly environmental educational curriculum for preschools It presents a vision of sustainable development that has relevance to Early Childhood Care and Education ECCE from birth to school it is relevant as much to homes family support and health settings as it is to educational settings and is as much concerned with health and wellbeing as with education The book provides a perspective that is fundamentally embedded in notions of interdependency It places an emphasis upon the importance of recognising the interdependency of peoples within and between nation states the ecological interdependencies of the natural world of humanity and nature and most significantly the interdependency of adults and children These emphases have their origins in the grassroots studies included in the ten chapters representing countries from around the world The book reflects the idea that only global solutions and initiatives are capable of addressing the global challenges of climate change environmental pollution and global threats to ecological systems and biodiversity

Documentation in Institutional Contexts of Early Childhood Maarit Alasuutari, Helga Kelle, Helen Knauf, 2020-04-28 Internationally documentation has gained importance in institutional contexts of early childhood during the last 20 years This edited volume illuminates different practices and aspects of documentation in early childhood and provides theoretically informed analytical perspectives on documentation in childhood institutions Whilst drawing on different national and early service contexts the edited volume explores the ways in which documentation may be consequential in childhood and in the practices of early childhood professionals The different chapters examine assessment and normativity in documentation children's participation in it and the impact of documentation on professionalism The edited volume is targeted to students researchers and professionals in the field of education and social sciences
