Women's Social and Legal Issues in African Current Affairs Victoria M. Time, 2016-12-06 This volume explores the difficulties that beset African women and inhibit them from excelling in many walks of life in the twenty first century Asymmetrical relations in society position women in subjugated and marginalized roles This is caused by customary practices that have left women in vulnerable and subsidiary positions as well as statutory provisions that fester this process Despite its richness in raw materials and minerals Africa remains slow to grow when compared to other continents The economies of most African countries is severely anemic corruption is rife poor governance is systemic and wars conflicts famine and diseases abound Stalled economies disproportionately affects women for example as nurturers women have the extra responsibility of taking care of children and members of the extended family In times of want women are more likely to give up the little they have so that their children and others may survive This book shows the various social and legal obstacles that stall women's upward mobility and offers recommendations on how these issues can be resolved

The Political Constraints on Nigerian Economic Development Since the Independence Cajetan Iwunze, 2013-02 Since gaining its independence in 1960 Nigeria has never really existed as a unified nation but rather as scattered tribal sects that often fail to coexist with one another peacefully This uneasy alliance has led to civil war in the past and is responsible for the continuing conflict between Muslims and Christians that exists in Nigeria today Because of these deeply embedded political constraints Nigeria has also fallen behind in terms of economic development However Nigeria is not a nation without resources Many of Nigeria's conflicts are centered around oil As it stands currently Nigeria's wealth is concentrated in the hands of the ruling elite and little has been done to improve the situation of the poorest segments of the population But the prolonged and dismal situation in the Nigerian economy that serves as the inspiration behind The Political Constraints on Nigerian Economic Development Since the Independence is not without a potential solution Author Cajetan Iwunze intended this book as more than just a statement against the tribal nationalism and the economic bandits that continue to loot the country It also aims to suggest that if there is a solution it lies in reforming the country's institutions so that Nigeria's oil wealth can be used for the benefit of everyone Although he currently lives in the UK Cajetan Iwunze was born in eastern Nigeria Mr Iwunze is an international human rights campaigner writer and teacher who serves as the Director of Professional Tutors Ltd and the CEO of Dyswrite Ltd Publisher's website <http://sbpra.com> Cajetan Iwunze

Jan Hornát, Lukáš Kindl, 2018-02-01 The dynamics of internal changes in China whether these changes impact its national economy or its political order and distribution of power have imminent influence on its relations with the rest of the world The important and perhaps less treated question vis vis China's rise is how and to what extent do internal changes in China affect its external behavior and thus its relations with the current world hegemon the United States In addition this publication asks what the clash of two politically culturally and economically different internal orders of the US and China will mean for their future interactions in the twenty first century The aim of this publication is not to measure and encompass the entirety of the posed question but rather to provide an incursion into this problem through two specific case studies one focusing on the interactions of two distinct political cultures and the other on the economic geopolitical and ideological interplay of the US and China on the African continent As will be demonstrated incompatible as the two regimes and their respective foreign policies may seem they will not necessarily predestine conflicts in mutual relations As America can well coexist with China even if it does not meet the Western standards of a liberal democracy so does the competition in Africa between these two major powers not have to amount to a zero sum game At the end of the day both countries might meet halfway in their respective political interactions On Arms Control Hedley Bull, 1987-06-18
