Other important differences between these guidelines and previous standards concern the use of the term "disabilities" to describe the various conditions. Under the previous standards, the term "disabilities" was used only to describe conditions that were considered to be "severe" or "chronic." Under the new standards, the term "disabilities" is used to describe all conditions that are considered to be "severe" or "chronic." This change is intended to ensure that all students with disabilities are included in the standards.
