Louisiana Coushatta Basket Makers Linda Langley, Denise E. Bates, 2021-04-21 Louisiana Coushatta Basket Makers brings together oral histories tribal records archival materials and archaeological evidence to explore the fascinating history of the Coushatta Tribe s famed basket weavers After settling at their present location near the town of Elton Louisiana in the 1880s the Coushatta Koasati tribe developed a basket industry that bolstered the local tribal economy and became the basis for generating tourism and political mobilization The baskets represented a material culture that distinguished the Coushattas as Indigenous people within an ethnically and racially diverse region Tribal leaders serving as diplomats also used baskets as strategic gifts as they built political and economic allegiances throughout the twentieth century thereby securing the Coushattas future Behind all these efforts were the basket makers themselves Although a few Coushatta men assisted in the production of baskets it was mostly women who put in the long hours to gather and process the materials then skillfully stitch them together to produce treasures of all shapes and sizes The art of basket making exists within a broader framework of Coushatta traditional teachings and educational practices that have persisted to the present As they tell the story of Coushatta basket makers Linda P Langley and Denise E Bates provide a better understanding of the tribe s culture and values The weavers own language of baskets shapes this narrative which depicts how the tribe survived repeated hardships as weavers responded on their own terms to market demands The work of Coushatta basket makers represents the perseverance of traditional knowledge in the form of unique and carefully crafted fine art that continues to garner greater recognition and appreciation with every successive generation

Mastering the Fire Service Assessment Center, 2nd Ed Anthony Kastros, 2018-04-16 Bridge the gap between where you are and where you want to be Do you have the knowledge skills and abilities to evaluate behavior performance and readiness Read Mastering the Fire Service Assessment Center to identify what you need to learn and understand how to learn it There is no way you can read and reflect on the wisdom in these pages and not become a better person and a better firefighter Why Read This Book The American fire service is facing a new normal fueled by mass exodus influx of new generations of firefighters a lack of hands on leadership training sweeping changes in mission decimated budgets and the genetics of task oriented reactive forefathers The greatest and perhaps only area that we can affect directly is hands on inspiring realistic and useful training for our aspiring and incumbent leaders This book will help you regardless of the fire officer rank you seek It will help you know where you need to improve how to develop a specific personal plan to become an excellent officer and how to do well with whatever assessment center exercises throw at you NEW MATERIAL in this second edition Enjoy reading Wisdom from the Masters from 18 fire service luminaries They provide invaluable insights and challenges you will face as you prepare to promote whether for the first time as a company officer or up the chain as a chief officer Learn lessons from thousands of students from the past 12 years whose feedback will benefit you in this second edition Benefit from the many new elements in this book including relevant articles additional exercises and content regarding the dimensions of leadership management and emergency operations The complexities of being a fire officer in the 21st century require an undercurrent of humility while continually pursuing mastery of leading in the modern fire service Learn how to lead the modern day firefighter in a modern world with modern technology modern fire behavior and modern sociopolitical and economic challenges Many firefighters ask themselves if they really want to do this job but nothing is as professionally rewarding and challenging as leading others in battle to save lives This book will give you the greatest probability of success in your assessment center process Bobby Halton editor in chief Fire Engineering magazine
