Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1967 Includes Part 1 Number 1 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January June Smart Tests Catherine M. Walker,Edgar Schmidt,Kat Mototsune,2004 High stakes accountability and the growing move towards standardized testing are placing teacher knowledge and assessment skills under ever increasing scrutiny Teachers know what is going on in their classrooms and have first hand reliable evidence of what their students can accomplish They can be the major factor in student assessment and help their students better demonstrate what they have learned Smart Tests shows educators how to create well structured evaluation tools that match assessment tasks to the purpose and content of instruction Teachers learn how to relate testing directly to classroom goals and activities and make assessment an integral part of learning and teaching not just the end result They will find the information they need to build assessment tasks that give students in grades K 8 the opportunity to succeed These tasks encourage students to apply new knowledge reflect and defend their thoughts and opinions and connect what they learn the world beyond the classroom An Analytical and Descriptive Guide to the Materials in The History Teacher's Magazine and The Historical Outlook Richard Harrison Shryock,1925 Planning a Social Studies Program James Edwin Davis,1983 A planning manual for teachers parents administrators and students working on K 12 social studies curriculum development is presented The manual discusses six problems facing social studies educators and then presents 12 sequenced group activities corresponding to the steps in the planning model The six problems involve student learning and motivation the focus on classroom management and control lack of a variety of teaching and evaluation methods a focus on specific facts and broad conclusions rather than on critical thinking and values disagreement on goals and objectives and insufficient public support Instructions for participating in the 12 step model form the major portion of the document and include planning to plan deciding on a rationale selecting goals and objectives modifying objectives mapping the curriculum and determining the scope of the program Participants then engage in choosing content identifying and selecting materials tying program objectives to text objectives planning for program evaluation installing and maintaining the program and modifying the program Each step contains background information an activity and reproducible handouts A list of resources sources of instructional objectives sample formats for scope and sequence statements publishers of social studies materials and a paper
