The Other Side of the Report Card Maurice J. Elias, Joseph J. Ferrito, Dominic C. Mocer, 2015-12-14 To better serve the whole child look at the whole report card Although parents and teachers spend more time in conferences talking about behavior than they do about rubrics and test scores too many teachers are still guessing when it comes to using outdated behavior ratings and comments to describe the whole child With this book you ll take report cards to the next level integrating social emotional learning and character development into any grading system Resources include Guided exercises for analyzing existing report cards Suggested report card designs Tips on improving teacher parent communication Case studies Testimonials from teachers and students NAEP 1994 U.S. History Report Card Alexandra S. Beatty, 1996 This book describes results from the 1994 National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP assessment in U S history conducted at grades 4 8 and 12 Included in this report card are the results of students achievement at each grade and within various subgroups of the general population The report discusses the relationships between student performance and instructional and home background variables This information gives educators a context for evaluating the U S history achievement of students and the results that may be used to guide reform efforts Chapters include 1 NAEP 1994 U S History Assessment 2 U S History Results for the Nation and Regions 3 U S History Achievement Levels 4 Contexts in which Students Learn History and 5 What Students Know and Can Do in U S History A conclusion three appendices 52 tables and 13 figures complete the book EH NAEP 1994 Geography Report Card ,1996 Grading the Nation's Report Card National Research Council, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Testing and Assessment, Committee on the Evaluation of National and State Assessments of Educational Progress, 1999-01-23 Since the late 1960s the National Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP the nation s report card has been the only continuing measure of student achievement in key subject areas Increasingly educators and policymakers have expected NAEP to serve as a lever for education reform and many other purposes beyond its original role Grading the Nation s Report Card examines ways NAEP can be strengthened to provide more informative portrayals of student achievement and the school and system factors that influence it The committee offers specific recommendations and strategies for improving NAEP s effectiveness and utility including Linking achievement data to other education indicators Streamlining data collection and other aspects of its design Including students with disabilities and English language learners Revamping the process by which achievement levels are set The book explores how to improve NAEP framework documents which identify knowledge and skills to be assessed with a clearer eye toward the inferences that will be drawn from the results What should the nation expect from NAEP What should NAEP do to meet these expectations This book provides a blueprint for a new paradigm important to education policymakers professors and students as well as school administrators and teachers and education advocates Nation's Report Card ,2003 NAEP 1992 Reading Report Card for the Nation and the States Ina V. S. Mullis, 1993 The National

Assessment of Educational Progress NAEP 1992 reading assessment was administered to nationally representative samples of fourth eighth and twelfth grade students attending public and private schools and to state representative public school samples of fourth graders in 43 jurisdictions Nearly 140 000 students were assessed in all Data were summarized on the NAEP reading proficiency scale ranging from 0 to 500 and results were reported according to three achievement levels at each grade basic proficient and advanced Major findings were that 1 59% of the fourth graders 69% of eighth graders and 75% of twelfth graders reached the basic level or beyond 2 25% 28% and 37% of grade 4 8 and 12 students met or exceeded the proficient level respectively 3 from 2% to 4% of students at any of the grade levels achieved the advanced performance level 4 fourth graders within the basic level generally understood simple narratives 5 eighth graders reading within the basic level demonstrated literal understanding of passages 6 twelfth graders within the basic level were able to interpret aspects of the passages they read and make connections between their reading and their own knowledge 7 students attending private schools had higher average reading proficiency than students at public schools 8 considerable variation in performance existed within and across participating states 9 females had higher average reading proficiency than males at all three grade levels and 10 fourth graders appeared to be learning reading through varied instructional approaches Contains 67 tables and 9 figures of data a detailed description of anchoring the achievement levels an overview of procedures state contextual background factors and reading passages are attached RS NAEP 1998 civics report card for the nation ,
