

DAY 20

MEDITATION

God guards my path and protects my way. He laid out the entire plan of my life before even one day came to pass. He knows my past, He knows my today and He knows my future. I can trust Him with my story. If I trust Him with all my heart and do not lean on my own understanding, He will guard my heart and my mind in Christ Jesus. May my meditation be pleasing to him, as I rejoice in the LORD. (Psalm 104:34)

SCRIPTURE FOCUS

So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing. (Galatians 6:9, NLT)

What is my Father speaking to me through this

DAY 20

DEVOTION FOR THE DAY

Our first baby was on the way! What wonderful news, learning I was pregnant for the first time. Although it would be several months before visible signs would evidence the pregnancy, life grew within, hidden away until the appointed time of arrival. Nine months of critical stages of development progressed as the baby matured and prepared for survival outside the womb.

While my son's frame was being formed within, I waited. And waited. Waiting patiently isn't my strongest virtue, especially when it includes morning sickness, swollen ankles, weight gain, indigestion and back pain! My increasing discomfort caused me to wish that I arrive ahead of schedule. Yet God, whose timing is perfect, established an appointed time for James' arrival on

For you to birth that which He is creating - as you carry in your spiritual womb - birthed at the right time.
