black families asserting their citizenship in domestic settings while the larger society and culture marginalize and attack them not because they are deviants or failures but because they meet American standards Powerful and provocative From Slave Cabins to the White House illuminates the links between African American women s homemaking and citizenship in history and across literature Anne Boleyn; an historical romance Katherine Thomson,1857 The Beaux' Stratagem George Farquhar,2014-06-26 It attests to Farquhar s stature as a man that he composed this warm hearted and vibrant play while he was dying Like The Recruiting Officer the play is set in a provincial town and its plot is slight Aimwell and Archer two impecunious London gentlemen arrive in Lichfield looking for an heiress to marry Aimwell posing as his elder brother falls in love with his prey Dorinda and confesses his imposture to her his man servant Archer arouses the wistful interest of the unhappily married Mrs Sullen The introduction to this edition discusses the play for its theatrical merits and argues that it dramatises the ills of marriage in early modern England shown by Farquhar to be more injurious to the wife than to the husband and calls for a reform of the divorce laws Laboring Women Jennifer L. Morgan,2011-09-12 When black women were brought from Africa to the New World as slave laborers their value was determined by their ability to work as well as their potential to bear children who by law would become the enslaved property of the mother s master In Laboring Women Reproduction and Gender in New World Slavery Jennifer L Morgan examines for the first time how African women s labor in both senses became intertwined in the English colonies Beginning with the ideological foundations of racial slavery in early modern Europe Laboring Women traverses the Atlantic exploring the social and cultural lives of women in West Africa slaveowners expectations for reproductive labor and women s lives as workers and mothers under colonial slavery Challenging conventional wisdom Morgan reveals how expectations regarding gender and reproduction were central to racial ideologies the organization of slave labor and the nature of slave community and resistance Taking into consideration the heritage of Africans prior to enslavement and the cultural logic of values and practices recreated under the duress of slavery she examines how women s gender identity was defined by their shared experiences as agricultural laborers and mothers and shows how given these distinctions their situation differed considerably from that of enslaved men Telling her story through the arc of African women s actual lives from West Africa to the experience of the Middle Passage to life on the plantations she offers a thoughtful look at the ways women s reproductive experience shaped their roles in communities and helped them resist some of the more egregious effects of slave life Presenting a highly original theoretically grounded view of reproduction and labor as the twin pillars of female exploitation in slavery Laboring Women is a distinctive contribution to the literature of slavery and the history of women The twin-rivals George Farquhar,1892 The twin-rivals. The recruiting officer. The beaux-stratagem George Farquhar,1892 The Dramatic Works of George Farquhar George Farquhar,1892 The dramatic works of George Farquhar, ed., with life and notes, by A.C.
