Reflection and mystery Gabriel Marcel, 2001-01-01 The Mystery of Being contains the most systematic exposition of the philosophical thought of Gabriel Marcel a convert to Catholicism and the most distinguished twentieth century exponent of Christian existentialism Its two volumes are the Gifford lectures which Marcel delivered in Aberdeen Scotland in 1949 and 1950 Marcel's work fundamentally challenges most of the major positions of the atheistic existentialists Sartre Beauvoir Camus especially their belief in an absurd meaningless godless universe These volumes deal with almost all of the major themes of Marcel's thought the nature of philosophy our broken world man's deep ontological need for being i.e. for permanent eternal values our incarnate bodily existence primary and secondary reflection participation being in situation the identity of the human self intersubjectivity mystery and problem faith hope and the reality of God and immortality A Commentary on Gabriel Marcel's The Mystery of Being Thomas C. Anderson, 2006 Marcel was among the first to enunciate the distinction between intersubjective I-thou relations and subject to object I-him/her relations the important difference between having and being and between problems and mysteries the phenomena of the lived body and sensation the concretely situated and dependent character of human existence as well as its supratemporal transcendent dimension the centrality of faith hope and love in human life and our obscure and frequently unrecognized but nevertheless real experiences of an Absolute Thou and of our dead loved ones However Marcel's philosophical writings including The Mystery of Being although innovative and insightful are often not easily understood by even his most sympathetic readers frequently because his discussions of issues are unsystematic and sketchy and his reasons in support of the conclusions he arrives at are so briefly presented The Mystery of Being Gabriel Marcel, 1981 The Mystery of Being Gabriel Marcel, 1950

The Mystery of Being Gabriel Marcel, 1950 The Mystery of Being: Reflection and mystery.-2. Faith & reality Gabriel Marcel, 1950 The Mystery of Being, Vol. 1 Gabriel Marcel, 2015-08-08 Excerpt from The Mystery of Being Vol 1 Reflection and Mystery It might be said in the first place that a road implies space and that the notion of space is something from which a meta physical investigation as such must abstract One must make the simple answer that if my metaphor must be rejected on this count so must every kind of discursive thinking for it is all too evident that the notion of discursiveness implies and rests on a simple physical image like that of walking along a road Moreover we shall later on have occasion to recognize the existence and philosophical rights of a sort of spatiality which might be called the spatiality of inner experience and it may be that this spatiality of inner experience is coextensive with the whole spiritual life But the objection may be put in another way which has a dangerous look of being much more genuinely awkward To lay down a road in a place where at first there were only tracks is that not equivalent to fixing in advance a certain destination at which one intends to arrive and must not that destination itself be very exactly located The underlying image would be that of a grotto a mine or a sanctuary whose whereabouts one knew in advance It would be a matter of showing the way there to those who for one reason or another wanted to have a look at the place no doubt in order to profit from its riches But does not this presuppose that the result we are working for has already been achieved even before we start working for it does it not presuppose a preliminary or original discovery of the grotto or the sanctuary Well looking at the matter in my own way I must ask whether in the realm of philosophy we can really talk about results Is not all such talk based on a misunderstanding of the specific character of a philosophical investigation as such The question raised here at least obliges us to come to much closer grips with the very notion of a result About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged Reflection & Mystery* Gabriel Marcel,2020-07-03 The Prophets Abraham Joshua Heschel,2007-01-01 The Prophets is widely recognized as a masterpiece of biblical scholarship Heschel attempts to understand the thoughts feelings and impressions of each of the prophets presenting the reader with a sense of their very being He effectively achieves a balance between the objective supernatural and the subjective human situation and presents a unique discussion of Amos Hosea Isaiah Micah Jeremiah and Habakkuk and their particular challenges and journeys In the second part of the book Heschel addresses such subjects as pathos wrath sympathy ecstasy psychosis and prophetic and poetic inspiration and in so doing offers a new contribution to the philosophy of religion The Prophets is both scholarly and devotional an indispensable part of an in depth understanding of the Hebrew Bible The Eclipse of Humanity Lawrence Perlman,2016-01-29 It has been widely assumed that Heschel s writings are poetic inspirations devoid of philosophical analysis and unresponsive to the evil of the Holocaust Who Is Man 1965 contains a detailed phenomenological analysis of man and being which is directed at the main work of Martin Heidegger found primarily in Being and Time 1927 and Letter on Humanism 1946 When the analysis of Who Is Man is unpacked in the light of these associations it is clear that Heschel rejected poetry and metaphor as a means of theological elucidation that he offered a profound examination of the Holocaust and that the major thrust of his thinking eschews Heideggerian deconstruction and the postmodernism that ensued in its phenomenological wake Who Is Man contains direct and indirect criticisms of Heidegger s notions of Dasein thrownness facticity and submission to name a few essential Heideggerian concepts In using his ontological connective method in opposition to Heidegger s ontological difference Heschel makes the argument that the biblical notion of Adam as a being open to transcendence stands in opposition to the philosophical tradition from Parmenides to Heidegger and is the only basis for a redemptive view of humanity The Finitude of Being Joan Stambaugh,1992-01-01
