Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems Joe Moffett, 2014-10-28 Written from a literary critic's perspective

Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems borrows insights from Religious Studies and critical theory to examine the role of spirituality in contemporary poetry specifically the genre of the long poem Descending from Whitman's Song of Myself the long poem is often considered the American twentieth century equivalent of the epic poem but unlike the epic it carries few generic expectations aside from the fact that it simply must be long This makes the form particularly pliable as a tool for spiritual inquiry The period following World War II is often described as a secular age but spirituality continued as a concern for poets as evidenced by this study These writers look beyond conventional faith systems and instead seek individual paths of understanding they engage in mysticism in other words With chapters on H D and Brenda Hillman Robert Duncan James Merrill Charles Wright and Galway Kinnell and Gary Snyder this study demonstrates how these poets engage the culture of consumption in the postwar years at the same time they search for opportunities for transcendence Not content to throw over the earthly in favor of the otherworldly these poets reject the familiar binary of the worldly and metaphysical to produce distinctive paths of spiritual understanding that fuel what Wright calls a contemplation of the divine

The Fire that Breaks Daniel Westover, Thomas Alan Holmes, 2020 In terms of literary history Gerard Manley Hopkins has been difficult to pin down Many of his concerns industrialism religious faith and doubt science language were common among Victorian writers but he is often championed as a proto modernist despite that he avoids the self-conscious allusiveness and indirectness that typify much high modernist poetry It is partly because Hopkins cannot be pigeonholed that his influence remains relevant The Fire that Breaks brings together an international team of scholars to explore for the first time Hopkins's extended influence on the poets and novelist who defined Anglo American literature throughout the past century

The New American Poetry John R. Woznicki, 2013-12-24 The New American Poetry Fifty Years Later is a collection of critical essays on Donald Allen's 1960 seminal anthology The New American Poetry an anthology that Marjorie Perloff once called the fountainhead of radical American poetics The New American Poetry is referred to in every literary history of post World War II American poetry Allen's anthology has reached its fiftieth anniversary providing a unique time for reflection and reevaluation of this preeminent collection As we know Allen's anthology was groundbreaking it was the first to distribute widely the poetry and theoretical positions of poets such as Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg and the Beats and it was the first to categorize these poets by the schools Black Mountain New York School San Francisco Renaissance and the Beats by which they are known today Over the course of fifty years this categorization of poets into schools has become one of the major if not only way that The New American Poetry is remembered or valued one certain goal of this volume as one reviewer invites is to pry The New American Poetry out from the hoary platitudes that have encrusted it To this point critics mostly have examined The New American Poetry as an anthology former treatments of The New American Poetry look at it intently as a whole Though the almost singularly focused study of its construction and less often reception has lent a great deal of documented highly visible and debated material in which to consider we have been left with certain notions about its relevance that have become imbued ultimately in the collective critical consciousness of postmodernity This volume however goes beyond the analysis of construction and reception and achieves something distinctive extending those former treatments by treading on the paths they create This volume aims to discover another sense of radical that Perloff articulated rather than a radical that departs markedly from the usual we invite consideration of The New American Poetry that is radical in the sense of root of harboring something fundamental something inherent as we uncover and trace further elements correlated with its widespread influence over the last fifty years      Blanca Andreu, Galicia, and the New Iberian Mysticism Robert Simon, 2019-01-15 This book contributes to the ongoing discussion of the place of contemporary Galician writer Blanca Andreu's work within the 1980s post novísimo movement as part of a larger resurgence of the Surrealist in Spanish poetry and its possible placement in the more recent mystical poetry of Spain It provides a detailed textual analysis of her poetry and in doing so reveals not only that her work encompasses notions of the surreal and the mystical but also although Andreu has so far written entirely in Castilian Spanish that her poetry utilizes a variety of traditional Galician and Portuguese symbols and images In this way her work challenges the boundaries between what we as readers may accept as a solely Castilian Galician or Spanish poetic It bases its trans-theoretical framework on findings from such fields as Galician studies Iberian studies mysticism studies paradigm shift studies and regional studies over the past two decades Ultimately this comprehensive and unique study shows how Andreu's multifaceted transnational work may pertain to and expand our knowledge of each of these areas of focus      The Divine Vision of Dante's Paradiso William Franke, 2021-08-19 A bold study that reveals Dante's medieval vision of Scripture as theophany through pioneering use of contemporary theory and phenomenology      European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism Martin Travers, 2006-06-15 European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism is an anthology of key theoretical writings by the major representatives of the schools and movements of recent European literature Each chapter is devoted to one particular school of movement from within the broad body of literature from romanticism realism and modernism through to the literature of political engagement of the 1920s and 1930s and the more recent initiative of postmodernism These texts are approached both on their own terms as individual formulations of the goals and procedures literary aesthetic and political that characterized the work of these writers and as key documents of the literary school or movement to which these writers belonged      Spiritual Capital Michael O'Sullivan, Bernadette Flanagan, 2017-07-05 Spiritual Capital seeks to refocus discussion on core social values on individuals value systems and the internal dynamics that impel human beings to live by truth goodness and love This book defines refines and disseminates the concept of spiritual capital Contributions by practitioner scholars in applied spirituality who have practical experience of spiritual capital at work in diverse human situations provide accounts of concrete expressions of spiritual capital and create an interdisciplinary discussion between spirituality practitioners artists ecologists sociologists and others on the frontiers of change in contemporary culture      Traces of Dialogue Mads Thygesen, 2025-06-26

This book offers a captivating exploration of the evolving dynamics of language dialogue and identity in modern theatre highlighting the pioneering contributions of European playwrights Martin Crimp Jon Fosse Sarah Kane Elfriede Jelinek and Roland Schimmelpfennig The study reveals the complex interplay between written text and theatrical performance upending traditional perceptions of language and personal identity It demonstrates how the work of these writers serves as a catalyst for actors directors and designers and encourages a deep dive into their creative processes by interrogating their boundary pushing works Covering the pivotal era of the 1990s and 2000s the book considers the emergence of postdramatic theatre in particular the transition from conventional storylines and characters to avant garde forms and narratives It considers the role of language in crafting character identities and examines how contemporary textual approaches mirror and scrutinise the philosophical and aesthetic discussions of the late modern era Ultimately this book navigates the intricacies of modern dramaturgy and lauds the transformative potential of theatre to captivate and innovate challenging a wide readership to re evaluate the significance of dialogue and identity in contemporary theatre      Naked Faith Elaine A. Heath, 2009-01-01

Now and then through the history of the church a great light appears a prophet who calls the church back to its missional vocation These reformers are lovers of God mystics whose lives are utterly given to the divine vision Yet as Jesus noted a prophet is often without honor among her own people In the case of Phoebe Palmer 1807 1874 honor was lost posthumously for within a few decades after her death her name all but disappeared Palmer s sanctification theology was separated from its apophatic spiritual moorings even as her memory was lost Throughout most of the twentieth century her name was virtually unknown among Methodists To this day the Mother of the Holiness Movement still awaits her place of recognition as a Christian mystic equal to Catherine of Siena Teresa of Avila or Therese of Lisieux This book locates Palmer s life and thought within the great Christian mystical traditions identifying her importance within Methodism and the church universal It also presents a Wesleyan theological framework for understanding and valuing Christian mysticism while connecting it with the larger mystical traditions in Catholic Anglican and Orthodox communions While Palmer was a powerful revivalist in her own day in many ways she could be the patron saint for contemporary Methodists who are drawn to the new monasticism and who long for the renewal of the church Saint Phoebe is precisely the one who can help Methodists envision new forms of Christian community mission and witness in a postmodern world      The Visionary Moment Paul Maltby, 2012-02-01

In The Visionary Moment Paul Maltby draws on postmodern theory to examine the metaphysics and ideology of the visionary moment or epiphany in twentieth century American fiction Engaging critically with the works of Don DeLillo Jack Kerouac Saul Bellow Flannery O Connor Alice Walker and William Faulkner Maltby explains how the literary convention of the visionary moment promotes the myth that there is a superior level of knowledge that can redeem or regenerate the individual He contends that this common sense assumption is a paradigm that needs to be confronted and critiqued      Shadow of Spirit Philippa Berry, Andrew Wernick, 2006-04-27 By illuminating the striking affinity between the most innovative aspects of postmodern thought and religious mystical discourse Shadow of Spirit challenges the long established assumption that western thought is committed to nihilism This collection of essays by internationally recognised scholars explores the implications of the fascination with the sacred divine or infinite which characterizes much contemporary thought It shows how these concerns have surfaced in the work of Derrida Baudrillard Lyotard Kristeva Irigaray and others Examining the connection between this postmodern turn and the current search for a new discourse of ethics and politics it also stresses the contribution made by feminist thought to this unexpected intellectual direction      Mis-reading the Creative Impulse Adrianna M. Paliyenko, 1997 Building on work by Aristotle Jacques Lacan and Harold Bloom Adrianna M Paliyenko s richly textured study revises our previous understanding of Arthur Rimbaud s 1854 1891 indirect artistic influence on Paul Claudel 1868 1955 Paliyenko s analysis answers to critical readings that rely on speculative spiritual affinities and text surface similarities in identifying Claudel as Rimbaud s artistic follower She traces the two writers development of the poetic subject striving to map Claudel s creative corrections or revisions of Rimbaud s work In redirecting discussion of Rimbaud s work she develops a Bloomian paradigm of how creative artists strive for originality by correcting or revising their predecessors      Mindful Silence Phileena Heuertz, 2018-11-13 The hallmarks of contemplative spirituality solitude silence and stillness have never been more important for our fast paced society Filled with insights and wisdom from personal experiences Phileena Heuertz introduces us to themes and teachers of contemplative spirituality as well as several prayer practices and invites us to greater healing and wholeness by learning to practice faith through prayer      John of the Cross Edward Howells, Peter Tyler, 2024-04-12 This book explores the life and teaching of John of the Cross the Spanish mystic who remains a major source of Western thought on spirituality theology and mysticism Leading academics discuss the importance and legacy of John from historical theological philosophical pastoral ecumenical psychological and literary perspectives The book focuses on his place in Carmel his understanding of desire and the role of transformation in his theology Approaching John in the context of the late medieval mystical tradition it offers a timely re evaluation of his work and a significant reassessment of his relevance in the context of current debates      Religion Index One , 1995      High Lonesome Adam Giannelli, 2006 This updating of our previous title The Point Where All Things Meet which Tom Andrews edited in 1994 selects from the contents of that earlier book and adds many new essays that have appeared in the interim The result is a complex and generous survey of Charles Wright s trilogy of trilogies the sweeping project encompassed in the selected volumes comprised by Country Music 1982 The World of the Ten Thousand Things 1990 and Negative Blue 2000      The Language of the Soul in Narrative Therapy Laura Béres, 2022-07-08 The Language of the Soul in Narrative Therapy uniquely bridges the gap between narrative therapy and spirituality to describe how the theory and practice of narrative therapy may be expanded and enriched by incorporating the language of the soul Divided into three parts the book begins by contextualizing the approach of narrative therapy and spirituality Chapters then debate the complexity of the soul as a term drawing on the work of Christian mystics and philosophers such as Teresa of Avila Edith Stein Merleau Ponty and Bakhtin to show how their theoretical ideas can be incorporated in counseling practice and spiritual direction The book concludes by discussing how the language of the soul can be integrated and applied in postmodern practice With case examples from faith belief systems such as Christianity Buddhism Paganism Wicca and Yazidism throughout this book is essential reading for therapists clinical social workers and counsellors in practice and graduate training as well as spiritual directors and pastoral counselors interested in the ideas and practices of narrative therapy     Religious and Theological Abstracts ,2006     Humanities Index ,1996
