

The Golden Touch

The Story of King Midas

King Midas was a powerful, yet greedy man. He spent his days counting his gold and at night he dreamed of great riches. No matter how much gold he received, it was never enough.

One day King Midas was out in his beautiful rose garden when he met a satyr- half man, half horse. The satyr was lost, so King Midas gave him some food and directed him back on the right path. The satyr was very grateful to the king for his assistance. He wanted to reward Midas by granting him one wish.

King Midas thought long and hard. How could one wish fulfill his many wants? In fact, Midas felt a little cheated because he knew three wishes was the standard reward. He was just about to voice this very sentiment to the satyr when suddenly he had a brilliant idea. Visions of money, wealth, and treasure filled his mind.

"Gold!" shouted the King. "I want everything that I touch to turn to gold!"

"Oh, I don't think that is a good idea," said the satyr. "You should reconsider your request."

But Midas insisted and the satyr granted his wish.
