World History Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis, Anthony Esler, 2012-04-01      WORLD HISTORY (TEACHERS EDITION) (PRENTICE HALL) ELLIS ESLER, 2009-01-01      World History Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis, 1999      California World History : The Modern World Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis, Anthony Esler, 2019      World History Interactive Elisabeth Gaynor Ellis, Anthony Esler, 2022      The Patchwork of World History in Texas High Schools Stephen Jackson, 2022-11-30 This book traces the historical development of the World History course as it has been taught in high school classrooms in Texas a populous and nationally influential state over the last hundred years Arguing that the course is a result of a patchwork of competing groups and ideas that have intersected over the past century with each new framework patched over but never completely erased or replaced the author crucially examines themes of imperialism Eurocentrism and nationalism in both textbooks and the curriculum more broadly The first part of the book presents an overview of the World History course supported by numerical analysis of textbook content and public documents while the second focuses on the depiction of non Western peoples and persistent narratives of Eurocentrism and nationalism It ultimately offers that a more global accurate and balanced curriculum is possible despite the tension between the ideas of professional world historians who often de center the nation state in their quest for a truly global approach to the subject and the historical core rationale of state sponsored education in the United States to produce loyal citizens Offering a new conceptual understanding of how colonial themes in World History curriculum have been dealt with in the past and are now engaged with in contemporary times it provides essential context for scholars and educators with interests in the history of education curriculum studies and the teaching of World History in the United States      Teaching Global History Alan J. Singer, 2019-10-28 This updated edition of Teaching Global History challenges prospective and beginning social studies teachers to formulate their own views about what is important to know in global history and why This essential text explains how to organize curriculum around broad social studies concepts and themes as well as student questions about humanity history and the contemporary world All chapters feature lesson ideas a sample lesson plan with activity sheets primary source documents and helpful charts graphs photographs and maps This new edition includes connections to the C3 framework updates throughout to account for the many shifts in global politics and a new chapter connecting past to present through current events and historical studies in ways that engage students and propel civic activism Offering an alternative to pre packaged textbook outlines and materials this text is a powerful resource for promoting thoughtful reflection and debate on what the global history curriculum should be and how to teach it

Teaching History for Justice Christopher C. Martell,Kaylene M. Stevens,2021 Learn how to enact justice oriented pedagogy and foster students critical engagement in today s history classroom Over the past 2 decades various scholars have rightfully argued that we need to teach students to think like a historian or think like a democratic citizen In this book the authors advocate for cultivating activist thinking in the history classroom Teachers can use Teaching History for Justice to show students how activism was used in the past to seek justice how past social movements connect to the present and how democratic tools can be used to change society The first section examines the theoretical and research foundation for thinking like an activist and outlines three related pedagogical concepts social inquiry critical multiculturalism and transformative democratic citizenship The second section presents vignettes based on the authors studies of elementary middle and high school history teachers who engage in justice oriented teaching practices Book Features Outlines key components of justice oriented history pedagogy for the history and social studies K 12 classroom Advocates for students to develop thinking like an activist in their approach to studying the past Contains research based vignettes of four imagined teachers providing examples of what teaching history for justice can look like in practice Includes descriptions of typical units of study in the discipline of history and how they can be reimagined to help students learn about movements and social change

The New Politics of the Textbook Heather Hickman,Brad J. Porfilio,2012-10-13 In an age of unprecedented corporate and political control over life inside of educational institutions this book provides a needed intervention to investigate how the economic and political elite use traditional artifacts in K 16 schools to perpetuate their interests at the expense of minoritized social groups The contributors provide a comprehensive examination of how textbooks the most dominant cultural force in which corporations and political leaders impact the schooling curricula shape students thoughts and behavior perpetuate power in dominant groups and trivialize social groups who are oppressed on the structural axes of race class gender sexuality and dis ability Several contributors also generate critical insight in how power shapes the production of textbooks and evaluate whether textbooks still perpetuate dominant Western narratives that normalize and privilege patriotism militarism consumerism White supremacy heterosexism rugged individualism technology and a positivistic conception of the world Finally the book highlights several textbooks that challenge readers to rethink their stereotypical views of the Other to reflect upon the constitutive forces causing oppression in schools and in the wider society and to reflect upon how to challenge corporate and political dominance over knowledge production *Get Free!
