Living Languages and New Approaches to Language Revitalisation

Research Tonya Stebbins, Kris Eira, Vicki Couzens, 2017-09-20 This book advocates for a new model of describing the practices of language revitalization and decolonizing the research methods used to study them The volume provides a comprehensive treatment of the theoretical and methodological foundations of working with communities revitalizing their languages It lays out the conceptual framework at the heart of the project and moves into a description of the model based on a seven year research process working with Aboriginal communities in eastern Australia Six case studies show the model's application in language revival practice The book critically engages with the notion of revival languages as emergent and ever transforming and develops a holistic approach to their description that reflects Aboriginal language practitioners' understandings of the nature of language It seeks to demonstrate how the conceptual tools developed from this approach can support efforts to develop deeply collaborative research highlight the diversity of language revitalisation practice and map between the realms of old and new local and global and the social cultural and textual dimensions of language making this an ideal resource for researchers and scholars in sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology education cultural studies and post colonial studies

Why Science and Art Creativities Matter, 2020-01-20 Why Science and Arts Creativities Matter is a ground breaking text which significantly extends current understandings of STEAM and debates about individuation of disciplines vis vis transdisciplinary theory Drawing upon posthumanism new materialism and enactivism this collection of chapters aims to dwell further into the ways in which we come to know in relationship with the world The text draws together a wide set of approaches and points of views to stimulate dialogue and awareness of the different ways in which we can extend the repertoire of human faculties for thinking and experiencing the world A unique invitation is shared with readers to develop greater understanding of the contribution of education across the arts and sciences and to re imagine our collective futures This book is a unique and timely volume that opens up several new lines of enquiry and arguments on STEAM education It rebalances and readdresses the current emphasis in the literature around STEAM as another newer opportunity to teach content Instead it brings a more specific focus on an entwining of contemporary theorists putting theory to work to extend the means for understanding and cultivating science and arts creativities and make explicit key connections with the materiality of practices This new go to text offers a demonstration of how the latest research and theoretically engaged thinking thinking through theory on STEAM education can be put to work in practice Contributors are Ramsey Affifi Sofie Areljung Chris Brownell Pamela Burnard Kerry Chappell Laura Colucci Gray Carolyn Cooke Krist f
