Responsibility in Germany Julian F. Massa,2024-10-28 This dissertation analyses the concept of Corporate Cultural Responsibility in Germany considering key aspects of corporate responsibility As public finances tighten corporate social engagement including in the arts and culture is becoming increasingly important However the discourse remains largely national Hence two case studies illustrate best practice examples from Germany Ultimately the question remains whether business supports culture or vice versa International Research in Social, Human and Administrative Sciences XVI

Elifnur Terzioğlu ,2024-02-02 With globalization interdisciplinary studies in the world of science have increased and gained importance In particular being able to examine the changes in social sciences in a healthy way necessitated an approach with a multidimensional perspective This situation has increased the need for Interdisciplinary and Multidisciplinary literature In order to understand the importance of social sciences first of all it is necessary to examine what the social sciences really are and what their purpose is Social science is essentially the study of society it provides insight into the social environment and nature and studies how individuals behave communicate and relate to one another It also analyzes how individuals behaviors and social interactions affect the socioeconomic political and cultural climate of the world Social sciences and social scientists have great responsibilities in the development of society and country As it is known many phenomena such as reflections of socio cultural life human relations political legal and economic variables are within the scope of social and human sciences

They're Waiting For You Artur Alekperov,2011-03-28 They are waiting for you but who exactly are they and why are they waiting What do you have to do in order to make your products desired and sought after If I were to briefly say what the book is about then I would say that it is about the link between expectations and promises and about how to establish that link As people always have goals they must also have means of achieving those goals This is exactly why people need more brands than there are brand owners In that case why not help them spend their money However when you promise something you create expectations Ideally promises would exceed expectations but your promises will always pass through a prism of stereotypes myths and consumer experience which refracts them like rays of light What will the consumer see at the end Will he buy from you Will he come back again Will he be loyal to you and why I have no idea how readers will perceive what I have written Will they like it Does it bring up any new ideas Will it become a guidebook Of course praise from friends does not count but sometimes when mulling things over I go back to the book and I always find something valuable in it

Marketing For Competitiveness: Asia To The World - In The Age Of Digital Consumers Philip Kotler,Hermanwan Kartajaya,Den Huan Hooi,2016-11-24 Asia is the most populated geographical region with 50% of the world s inhabitants living there Coupled that with the impressive economic growth rates in many Asian countries the region provides a very attractive and lucrative market for many businesses big and small and from all industries In addition Asia is also a dynamic market that significantly grows with developments in technology and digitalization For example a research by Google and Temasek shows that Southeast Asia is the world s fastest growing internet region The internet economy in Southeast Asia is expected to grow by 6.5 times from US $31 billion in 2015 to US $197 billion in 2025. All these make it critical for marketers whether domestic, regional or global to stay in touch if not ahead in their understanding of what is happening in Asia from a marketing perspective and what Asia has to offer to the world. One phenomenon happening in the Asian market and which marketers should pay utmost attention to is the rapidly unfolding digital revolution that has fundamentally transformed not just the extent but also the nature of competition. What makes it even more challenging and complicating is also how such a revolution impacts on consumer and business buying behavior. Disruptive technologies supported by this digital revolution have brought in new competitors and enabled existing competitors to surpass the conventional boundaries which we may be quite familiar with. Asian consumers have become more educated and connected and have embraced newer ways of selecting, buying and using products and services. In this book, the Father of Modern Marketing, Professor Philip Kotler, has collaborated with two marketing experts from Asia: Hermawan Kartajaya from Indonesia and Hooi Den Huan from Singapore to publish a book on Marketing for Competitiveness Asia to the World In the Age of Digital Consumers. This book argues that marketing is no longer just vertical but has encompassed a new, more horizontal paradigm. In addition to many new concepts and frameworks, this book includes a plethora of real-world examples from various countries in Asia which will help to shed light on how companies both Asian and global compete in Asia. Useful lessons can be drawn by all businesses in the world on how to win the mind, heart and spirit of the Asian consumer, digital and non-digital.

Brand Equity Planning with Structuralist Rhetorical Semiotics Rossolatos, George, 2014-01-01 Brand Equity Planning with Structuralist Rhetorical Semiotics furnishes an innovative conceptual model and methodology for brand equity planning with view to addressing a crucial gap in the existing marketing and semiotic literatures concerning how advertising multimodal textual elements may be transformed into brand associations with an emphasis on rhetorical relations as modes of connectivity between a brand's surface and depth grammar The scope of this project is interdisciplinary spanning research areas such as brand equity structuralist semiotics textual semiotics visual and film semiotics multimodal rhetoric Film theory psychoanalysis The proposed connectionist model of the brand trajectory of signification is operationalized through a methodological framework that encompasses a structuralist semiotic interpretative approach to the textual formation of brand equity supported by quantitative content analysis with the aid of the software Atlas ti and the application of multivariate mapping techniques
