The Pen is Ours Jean Fagan Yellin, Cynthia D. Bond, 1991 This bibliography of writing by and about African American women provides a much needed research tool to scholars and researchers in the field The bibliography lists writing by African American women whose earliest publication appeared before 1910 a supplemental bibliography lists writing published as of 1911 Opening the Red Door John A. Bernbaum, 2019-09-17 After the Berlin Wall fell a group of Christian colleges in the U S seized the opportunity to help build a faith based university in Moscow Told by the school's founder and president this is the story of the rise and fall of the first accredited Christian liberal arts university in Russia's history offering unique insight on Russia's post communist transition and the construction of a cultural educational bridge between the two superpowers Afro-American Writing Richard A. Long, Eugenia W. Collier, 2010-11-01 The Civil Rights Reader Julie Buckner Armstrong, Amy Schmidt, 2009-01-01 This anthology of drama essays fiction and poetry presents a thoughtful classroom tested selection of the best literature for learning about the long civil rights movement Unique in its focus on creative writing the volume also ranges beyond a familiar 1954-68 chronology to include works from the 1890s to the present The civil rights movement was a complex ongoing process of defining national values such as freedom justice and equality In ways that historical documents cannot these collected writings show how Americans negotiated this process politically philosophically emotionally spiritually and creatively Gathered here are works by some of the most influential writers to engage issues of race and social justice in America including James Baldwin Flannery O'Connor Amiri Baraka and Nikki Giovanni The volume begins with works from the post Reconstruction period when racial segregation became legally sanctioned and institutionalized This section titled The Rise of Jim Crow spans the period from Frances E W Harper's Iola Leroy to Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man In the second section The Fall of Jim Crow Martin Luther King Jr's Letter from Birmingham Jail and a chapter from The Autobiography of Malcolm X appear alongside poems by Robert Hayden June Jordan and others who responded to these key figures and to the events of the time Reflections and Continuing Struggles the last section includes works by such current authors as Rita Dove Anthony Grooms and Patricia J Williams These diverse perspectives on the struggle for civil rights can promote the kinds of conversations that we as a nation still need to initiate

Invisible Man Ralph Ellison, 2010-09-29 NATIONAL BOOK AWARD WINNER NATIONAL BESTSELLER In this deeply compelling novel and epic milestone of American literature a nameless narrator tells his story from the basement lair of the Invisible Man he imagines himself to be One of The Atlantic's Great American Novels of the Past 100 Years He describes growing up in a Black community in the South attending a Negro college from which he is expelled moving to New York and becoming the chief spokesman of the Harlem branch of the Brotherhood before retreating amid violence and confusion Originally published in 1952 as the first novel by a then unknown author it remained on the bestseller list for sixteen weeks and established Ralph Ellison as one of the key writers of the century The book is a passionate and witty tour de force of style
