Poetry Mentor Texts Lynne Dorfman, Rose Cappelli, 2023-10-10 Building on the success of Mentor Texts and Nonfiction Mentor Texts authors Lynne R Dorfman and Rose Cappelli now turn their attention to poetry In Poetry Mentor Texts Lynne and Rose show teachers how to use poems in both reading and writing workshops and across content areas Written in a friendly conversational tone this practical book explores a variety of poetic forms including poems that inspire response list poems acrostic poems persona poems and poems for two voices versatile forms of poetry that can be used in every grade Each of these poetic forms has its own chapter featuring five poems with applications for both reading and writing classrooms Reading connections present skills and strategies to move students forward as readers helping them to build fluency vocabulary comprehension phonemic awareness and phonics Writing connections help students and teachers discover their own voices and grow as poets and wordsmiths as they try out many poetic forms Poems help students at all grade levels learn to better address complex reading texts offering them a chance to dig deeper and use higher order thinking skills Additionally Your Turn writing lessons provide a scaffold for seamlessly moving from modeling to the shared or guided experience and the transfer to independent work The Treasure Chest offers a brief annotation of the poems discussed in each chapter as well as companion pieces that extend and enhance the work of the reading and writing classroom Poetry Mentor Texts helps teachers across the curriculum guide their students to become not only skilled readers and writers but also more empathetic human beings Participatory Research with Young Children Angela Eckhoff, 2019-08-06 This book presents a guiding framework for designing and supporting participatory research with young children The volume shares detailed approaches to research designs that support collaborative work with young children and teachers in a wide range of early learning environments It presents conceptual and ethical considerations for participatory work and explores children's agency through engagement in participatory practices It examines challenges to accepted practices and understandings of young children and discusses the analysis and dissemination of participatory work with children In doing so the book informs readers about the conceptual understandings and methodological approaches that can be used to support participatory research investigations where the young child is viewed as knowledgeable and capable of sharing unique opinions interpretations and understandings of her experiences as embedded within social cultural and political worlds The book sets the stage for early childhood researchers and educators to develop new understandings grounded in post developmental critical and social constructivist theories while exploring supportive methodological approaches The Poetry Experience Sheree Fitch, Larry Swartz, 2008 Tips on reading speaking sharing and responding to poetry combine with ideas to trigger imagination and the writing of poetry leading to enhanced literacy and fluency skills and a deeper appreciation of the power of poetry in its various forms verso Share the Music, 1995 African Traditional And Oral Literature As Pedagogical Tools In Content Area Classrooms Lewis Asimeng-Boahene, Michael Baffoe, 2013-12-01 For a long time many American educators and educational stakeholders have drawn their ideas for educational reforms from ideas generated in Europe and Asia for the changing demographics of America's diverse classrooms This book is therefore motivated by a bold attempt at advocating for the revision of existing pedagogic fora and the creation and addition of new fora that would provide for the inclusion of thoughts perspectives and practices of African traditional oral literature in the pedagogical tools of content area classrooms especially in North America The articles that are presented in this book provide theoretical frameworks for using African traditional oral literature and its various tenets as teaching tools They bring together new voices of how African literature could be used as helpful tool in classrooms Rationale for agitating for its use as ideal for pedagogic tool is the recurrent theme throughout the various articles presented The book explores how educators literacy educators learners activists policy makers and curriculum developers can utilize the powerful yet untapped gem of African oral literature as pedagogical tools in content area classrooms to help expand educators repertoire of understanding beyond the conventional wisdom of their pedagogic creed It is a comprehensive work of experienced and diverse scholars academicians and educators who have expertise in multicultural education traditional oral literature urban education children's literature and culturally responsive pedagogy that have become the focus of U S discourses in public education and teacher preparation This anthology serves as part of the quest for multiple views about our global village emphasizing the importance of linking the idea of diverse knowledge with realities of global trends and development Consequently the goal and the basic thrust of this anthology is to negotiate for space for non mainstream epistemology to share the pedagogical floor with the mainstream template to foster alternative vision of reality for other knowledge production in the academic domain The uniqueness of this collection is the idea of bringing the content and the pedagogy of most of the genres of African oral arts under one umbrella and thereby offering a practical acquaintance and appreciation with different African cultures It therefore introduces the world of African mind and thoughts to the readers In summary this anthology presents an academic area which is now gaining its long overdue recognition in the academia
