Ethiopian Orthodox Church Seatat

Pietro Toggia, Abebe Zegeye

Ethiopian Orthodox Church Seatat:

Ethiopia in Transit Pietro Toggia, Abebe Zegeye, 2013-10-18 The writings in this edition explore historical and contemporary issues in Ethiopia as the country underwent change and celebrated its new millennium. However, despite the recognition of socio-economic and political changes, Ethiopia still faces enduring problems and challenges to its stability and continuity. The political past haunts the country while it is facing the future with optimism and hope. The contributors in this edition examine historical and contemporaneous issues with different lenses; they investigate the multiplicity and complexity of the contradictions that define traditional and modern Ethiopia. The contributions highlight the significance of the instability, dislocation, conflict, and transformation inherent in any society. None of these writings, however, celebrate the forces that create the conflict; they are cautious not to glorify the present and romanticize the past. On the contrary, they seek to contextualize the challenges which the country faces with a view to open a dialogue not exclusively among Ethiopians but with scholars and social activists in the rest of Africa as well as the international community. The contributions cover and examine such important topics as historiography, political power and legitimacy, ideology and radical views, knowledge transmission and modernity, emigration and the Ethiopian Diaspora, ethnic and linguistic identity, patriarchy and feminist discourses in a traditional society, public policies and economic development, traditional and modern art and culture, and neo-liberalism and globalization. This book was published as a special issue of African Identities.

The Traditional Teaching of the Ethiopian Orthodox Täwahedo Church Christine Chaillot, 2023-11-06 Christine Chaillot's new book The Traditional Teaching of the Ethiopian Orthodox Tawahedo Church: Faith and Spirituality presents a topic that is little if at all known outside Ethiopia, even in Christian circles. Moreover, it is a much neglected field in the wider study of African education. It is a teaching based on ancient texts and books taught orally to the students who will become the future clergy and who will then share their knowledge with the faithful in Church life. The studies of the different disciplines are pursued at different schools and at different levels in liturgy, theology, with commentaries of books of the Old and New Testaments, books of the Church fathers and monks, as well as composition of poems, genes, and iconography. All this teaching presented in the present volume is deeply related to the faith and spirituality of the Ethiopian Orthodox Church. This teaching is a unique intangible cultural heritage. One wonders, however, what its future will be in the context of the modern educational methods and social attitudes that have evolved in Ethiopia over the last half century.

The In-Between People Girma Bekele, 2011-03-29 In the midst of partial competing and often hostile forms of human solidarity, David Bosch challenged the church to be the Alternative Community called to live in the in-between of various opposing socio-political, economic, and ecclesiastical polarities. Girma Bekele explores and renews that call in the context of Ethiopia. Acute poverty and the lingering question of the balance between ethnic distinctiveness and national unity together constitute a two-edged challenge to

Christian identity Constructive dialogue that fosters unity is intrinsic to effective response to the plight of the poor This means a turning away from institutional self preservation towards a contextually relevant mission that crosses all human made frontiers Taking Ethiopia as the immediate context Dr Bekele offers important insight to the church in the majority world and beyond An Introduction to the Christian Orthodox Churches John Binns,2002-07-04 This clear and accessible introduction describes the life of the Orthodox Churches of the Christian East from the accession of the Emperor Constantine in 312 up to the year 2000 It explores the nature of the various churches of the Christian East both Chalcedonian and non Chalcedonian Orthodox the Church of the East and Greek Catholic Churches It explains both the common traditions and the different and sometimes divisive local characteristics The distinctive Orthodox approaches to the themes of liturgy theology monastic life and spirituality iconography popular religion mission politics and the schism between East and West are discussed in turn A final chapter examines the response of the Churches to their new freedom following the collapse of communism and the prospects for the future For Christians of the West a knowledge of Orthodoxy can open up fresh ways of looking at the Christian faith Ethiopian Church ,2009 The Ethiopian Tewahedo Church Archbishop Yesehaq,Yesehaq (Archbishop of the Ethiopian Orthodox Church in the Western Hemisphere),1997 The Oriental Orthodox Churches in the United States Robert F. Taft,1986 The Abyssinian Difficulty Sir Darrell Bates,1979 Sanctity and Environment in Ethiopian Hagiography Abate Gobena,2023-10-04 The original forests of the central and northern highlands of Ethiopia are almost entirely confined to the sacred groves surrounding the churches and monasteries of the Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahido Church In Ethiopian tradition sanctity starts from the Tabot on the altar of the church and extends to the outer periphery of the compound Church forests serve as shade and shelter for the sacred and are seen as integral parts of the churchyard The Act of Gebre Menfes Qiddus GGMQ is an original Ethiopic hagiographic text It depicts the life and struggle of the saint in the wilderness of forests and mountains Hagiographic texts like GGMQ are in Ethiopia not mere historical records but texts linked to the daily liturgical services that shape and mould the perceptions and actions of their readers and listeners The aim of the thesis is to analyse how GGMQ presents the relation between the saint and the natural environment in order to see if there is a correlation with how the Ethiopian tradition has preserved the church forests and has considered these to be sacred spaces representing the wilderness The aim is achieved through a close reading of the text and its intertexts using four selected themes as analytical instruments ascetic estrangement coexistence with non human creation identification with the angels and reconciliation of opposites The analysis and the fact that the GGMQ is one of the most venerated texts read and heard with great liturgical solemnity show that there are good reasons to believe that the constant reading of GGMQ has made and makes a significant impact upon the readers views on the mutual co habitation of human and non human creation and the development of an awareness of the need to preserve the wilderness and non human creation Ethiopian Christian Liturgical Chant: An Anthology, Part 1 Kay Kaufman Shelemay,Peter Jeffery,1993-01-01 This three volume anthology introduces the Ethiopian Christian musical tradition to performers music scholars and liturgists while addressing general problems of notation and oral tradition Ethiopian Christian chant has been passed down both in an indigenous notational system and through oral transmission This edition presents a selection of liturgical portions from the annual cycle in facsimiles of notated sources and in transcriptions from modern performances Supplementing the edition is a complete dictionary of notational signs with equivalents in modern notation and a set of charts tracing the notational history of each liturgical portion through a sample of Ethiopian manuscripts

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Challenge of Religion Johannes Morsink, 2017-08-03 Repulsed by evil Nazi practices and desiring to create a better world after the devastation of World War II in 1948 the UN General Assembly adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR Because of the secular imprint of this text it has faced a series of challenges from the world's religions both when it was crafted and in subsequent political and legal struggles The book mixes philosophical legal and archival arguments to make the point that the language of human rights is a valid one to address the world's disputes It updates the rationale used by the early UN visionaries and makes it available to twenty first century believers and unbelievers alike The book shows how the debates that informed the adoption of this pivotal normative international text can be used by scholars to make broad and important policy points

Lamport, 2020-12-15 This work represents the current and most relevant content on the studies of how Christianity has fared in the ancient home of its founder and birth Much has been written about Christianity and how it has survived since its migration out of its homeland but this comprehensive reference work reassesses the geographic and demographic impact of the dramatic changes in this perennially combustible world region The Rowman Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East also spans the historical socio political and contemporary settings of the region and importantly describes the interactions that Christianity has had with other major minor religions in the region
