Fly High! Louise Borden,Mary Kay Kroeger,2001 Discusses the life of the determined African American woman who went all the way to France in order to earn her pilot's license in 1921 In her early twenties Bessie moved to Chicago Perhaps there she could find a bigger life In the city Bessie heard many tales of World War I from returned veterans She also heard there were woman airplane pilots in France From then on she was determined to become a pilot But she soon found out that no one would teach a woman especially a woman with dark skin how to fly To study in France was her only chance and by working hard and saving her money she managed at last to get there Bessie Coleman became the first African American to earn a pilot's license She was somebody The inspiring story of her difficult early years her success as a stunt pilot putting on daring air shows in many states and her dedication to telling young African Americans wherever she went You can be somebody You can fly high just like me is as moving and important today as it was then Simply told with evocative full color illustrations this is a special book for today's young people
