THE WILY COYOTE AND THE TALKING CACTUS

Reading Comprehension

Read the following text and answer the questions below.

In the vast landscapes of the Navaho Nation, where the sun paints the desert with hues of red and gold, there exists a timeless tale of wit and wisdom – the story of the Wily Coyote and the Talking Cactus.

Once upon a time, when the world was still young, Coyote roamed the desert in search of food and mischief. One scorching day, as he trotted across the sandy dunes, he encountered a peculiar sight – a cactus with a face carved into its trunk. To his surprise, the cactus spoke. "Greetings, Coyote. I have watched you play your tricks, and I offer you a challenge. If you can outwit me, I will share the secrets of the desert with you."

Coyote, whose curiosity was often his downfall, accepted with a shrug. However, the Talking Cactus presented a series of riddles, each more cunning than the last. Yet, with his quick thinking and clever nature, Coyote triumphed over each challenge.

As time passed, as the heat of the day grew, the Talking Cactus revealed a lesson hidden deep within the folds of its arms. "Coyote, wisdom is not just in outsmarting others, but in understanding the delicate balance of the desert. The secrets I offer are not for selfish gain, but for honoring the harmony of our home."

With each riddle solved, the Talking Cactus bestowed upon Coyote a small gift. In the end, Coyote learned not only the secrets of the desert but also the importance of respecting the wisdom of the land.

From that day forward, the Talking Cactus lived on in Navaho tradition, passing down the wisdom of the desert to every generation. The tale serves as a reminder of the importance of respecting the wisdom of the land and the value of learning from nature.

THE ENCHANTED RIVER

Reading Comprehension

Read the following text and answer the questions below.

Deep into the heart of Navaho Territory, there flowed a magical river known as the Enchanted River. It was said that the water possessed a shimmering glow, and the gentle murmur of its current carried the secrets of generations. This river was not just a waterway; it was a source of wisdom and magic for the Navaho people.

The tale begins with two friends, Little Fox and Dancing Deer, who lived on opposite sides of the Enchanted River. Although the river was not wide, it was swift, and its hidden currents were treacherous. Little Fox and Dancing Deer longed to play together and share stories, but the river stood in their way. One day, as they sat on the banks, a wise old man appeared. He offered a solution to the friends' dilemma. "If you seek to cross this river, you must first prove your friendship. I will grant you passage across my river, but only if you can outwit me."

Little Fox and Dancing Deer, determined to prove their friendship, embarked on a journey to find a gift that would be valued by the other. Each faced challenges along the way, but through their wit and cooperation, they overcame them. Little Fox found a rare herb, while Dancing Deer discovered a magical stone.

When they returned to the Enchanted River, the wise man was waiting, ready to test their gifts. He revealed a riddle that combined the herb and the stone. In the end, the friends proved their friendship and were granted passage across the river.

From that day forward, the Enchanted River flowed peacefully, and Little Fox and Dancing Deer's friendship flourished. The friends played and grew, grateful for the wisdom they had gained along the way.
