

CONCLUSION

The automotive industry has faced major trend changes in the concentration of the market. It has shifted from a domestic market to a monopolistic to a global market to a perfectly competitive market scenario. All these changes were accompanied by growth and development of the industry and overall economy as well. India has finally emerged as a world class entity in the global market for automobiles and has made its presence felt by the other nations. The future of Indian Auto Industry is bright as more and more companies are getting attracted towards the Indian Market and are setting up their manufacturing units in India.
