Le Grand Troupeau:

Le grand troupeau Jean Giono, 1972 La quatrième de couverture indique Un cur traverse la route en portant une pendule Un canon anglais passe au grand galop les chevaux fouettés par les artilleurs français Un colonel sans capote et nu tête fait ses grands pas dans l'herbe De sa main gauche il tient une boîte de sardines ouverte Il trempe le pain dans l'huile et il pompe pleine bouche Un officier anglais penché derrière un arbre allume sa pipe l'abri Tout à s'en va vers le mont Cassel Le Grand Troupeau ; Roman Jean Giono, 1931 Le Grand Troupeau, 1951, Sites of Memory, Sites of Mourning Jay Winter, 2014-05-15 This collective remembrance of the Great War reassesses one of the critical episodes in twentieth century cultural history The Embattled Self Leonard V. Smith, 2014-07-03 How did the soldiers in the trenches of the Great War understand and explain battlefield experience and themselves through that experience Situated at the intersection of military history and cultural history The Embattled Self draws on the testimony of French combatants to explore how combatants came to terms with the war In order to do so they used a variety of narrative tools at hand rites of passage mastery a character of the soldier as a consenting citizen of the Republic None of the resulting versions of the story provided a completely consistent narrative and all raised more questions about the truth of experience than they answered Eventually a story revolving around tragedy and the soldier as victim came to dominate even to silence other types of accounts In thematic chapters Leonard V Smith explains why the novel structured by a specific notion of trauma prevailed by the 1930s Smith canvasses the vast literature of nonfictional and fictional testimony from French soldiers to understand how and why the embattled self changed over time In the process he undermines the conventional understanding of the war as tragedy and its soldiers as victims a view that has dominated both scholarly and popular opinion since the interwar period The book is important reading not only for traditional historians of warfare but also for scholars in a variety of fields who think critically about trauma and the use of personal testimony in literary and historical studies The Unspeakable Amy L. Hubbell, Névine El Nossery, 2013-10-03 The Unspeakable Representations of Trauma in Francophone Literature and Art is situated at the crossroads of language culture and genre it contends that suffering transcends time space and cultural specificity Even when extreme trauma is silenced it often still emerges in surprising and painful ways This volume draws together examples from throughout the Francophone world including countries such as Algeria Morocco Lebanon Rwanda Cameroon Congo Côte d'Ivoire Haiti New Caledonia Quebec and France and across genres such as autobiography poetry theater film fiction and visual art to provide a cohesive analysis of the representation of trauma In addition to the survivors expression of trauma the witnesses and receivers are also taken into account By gathering studies that explore diverse bodily and psychological traumas through tropes such as repetition silence and working through it tackles ethical responsibility and interrogates how expressive forms evoke a terrible reality through the use of imagination The aim of this volume is not to question if suffering is representable but rather to examine to what extent art surpasses its own limitations and goes straight to its essence The Unspeakable hopes to provide models for the cultural translation of trauma because when represented and released from silence and isolation trauma can give way to the arduous process of healing Cosmic Connections Charles Taylor,2024-05-21 Charles Taylor delves into the poetry of the Romantics and their heirs a foundation of his distinctive philosophy of language Taylor holds that Romantic poetry responded to disenchantment with old cosmic orders depleted artists groped to articulate new meanings by bringing connections to life rather than merely reasoning abstractly about life

Comparative Literature includes contributions that focus on the interplay between concepts of nation national languages and individual as well as collective identities Because all literary communication happens within different kinds of power structures linguistic economic political it often results in fascinating forms of hybridity In the first of four thematic chapters the papers investigate some of the ways in which discourses can establish modes of thinking or how discourses are in turn controlled by active linguistic interventions whether in the context of the patriarchy war colonialism or political factions The second thematic block is predominantly concerned with hybridity as an aspect of modern cultural identity and the cultural and linguistic dimensions of domestic life and in society at large Closely related a third series of papers focuses on writers and texts analysed from the vantage points of exile and exophony as well as theoretical contributions to issues of terminology and what it means to talk about transcultural phenomena Finally a group of papers sheds light on more overtly violent power structures mechanisms of exclusion Totalitarianism torture and censorship but also resistance to these forms of oppression In addition to these chapters the volume also collects a number of thematically related group sections from the ICLA congress preserving their original context

Kristina Mendicino, 2020-01-01 Walter Benjamin claimed that the notion of novelty took on unprecedented importance with the growth of high capitalism in the nineteenth century In this book Kristina Mendicino analyzes a selection of canonical texts that reflect profound concern with novelty and its apparent contrary the eternal return of the same including Nietzsche's Thus Spoke Zarathustra Baudelaire's lyric and prose poetry and Marx and Engels's Communist Manifesto She also addresses Eternity by the Stars by Louis Auguste Blanqui who is less well known and often underestimated in considerations of his significance for revolutionary political theory Mendicino argues that the notion of a novum cannot be understood without attentiveness to the language of announcement not least of all because the new has always been associated with a particular mode of linguistic performance Through close readings of emphatically annunciatory texts she demonstrates how the extreme possibilities of expression that they present through specific citational and rhetorical praxes render the language of announcement overdetermined and anachronistic in ways that exceed any systematic account of historical time and experience This excess in and through language is precisely what opens hitherto unheard of alternatives for conceiving of historical temporality and political possibility
