in the past forty years The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry Fran Brearton, Alan Gillis, 2012-10-25 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry consists of 40 essays by leading scholars and new researchers in the field Beginning with W B Yeats the figure who towers over the century s poetry it includes chapters on the major poets to have emerged in Ireland Beckett and Nature Charles Clements, Eleanor Green, James Martell, 2025-07-10 New analyses over the last 100 years on the insightful ways in which Beckett's work actively engages with contested notions of Nature and the natural developing a radical version of modernism's main guestions and insights Beckett and Nature takes its cue from contemporary developments in Beckett scholarship focused on ecocriticism posthumanism and the Anthropocene going beyond them into a questioning of the very concepts of Nature and the natural It examines one of the most unthought ontological dimensions of literature and life that symbolic space deemed natural or part of Nature appears necessary and undeniable and therefore impossible to be deconstructed In doing so the authors show that in fact this space takes on many shapes recognizing three natural dimensions criticized by Beckett bodies worlds and literatures Featuring a wide range of both Beckett s work and Beckett scholars including Jean Michel Rabat and Stanley E Gontarski Beckett and Nature offers contextualized readings of the understandings of nature and the natural throughout his decade spanning uvre The volume shows that part of the radicality of Beckett's writing is that through a variety of evolving techniques and strategies it questions what appears in our cultures as the most unquestionable and opens up possibilities for thinking not only what is human literature and philosophy but also gender identity and any attempt at definitions of ourselves or the world at large The Cambridge Companion to Contemporary Irish Poetry Matthew Campbell, 2003-08-28 In the last fifty years Irish poets have produced some of the most exciting poetry in contemporary literature writing about love and sexuality violence and history country and city This book provides a unique introduction to major figures such as Seamus Heaney but also introduces the reader to significant precursors like Louis MacNeice or Patrick Kavanagh and vital contemporaries and successors among others Thomas Kinsella Paul Muldoon and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill Readers will find discussions of Irish poetry from the traditional to the modernist written in Irish as well as English from both North and South This Companion the only book of its kind on the market provides cultural and historical background to contemporary Irish poetry in the contexts of modern Ireland but also in the broad currents of modern world literature It includes a chronology and guide to further reading and will prove invaluable to students and teachers alike Coleridge's Ancient Mariner J. C. C. Mays, 2016-10-27 This is the first book length study to read the Ancient Mariner as poetry in Coleridge's own particular sense of the word Coleridge's complicated relationship with the Mariner as an experimental poem lies in its origin as a joint project with Wordsworth J C C Mays traces the changes in the several versions published in Coleridge's lifetime and shows how Wordsworth's troubled reaction to the poem influenced its subsequent interpretation This is also the first book to situate the Mariner in the context of the entirety of Coleridge's prose and verse now available in the Bollingen Collected edition and Notebooks that is not only in relation to other poems like The Ballad of the Dark Ladi and Alice du Cl s but also to ideas in his literary criticism especially Biographia Literaria philosophy and theology Using a combination of close reading and broad historical considerations reception theory and book history Mays surveys the poem's continuing life in illustrated editions and educational textbooks its passage through the vicissitudes of New Criticism and critical theory and in a final chapter its surprising affinities with some experimental poems of the present time

The English Baroque in Early Modern Literature Robert Hudson Vincent, 2025 While the baroque remains a foundational concept for other European literary and aesthetic traditions scholars have largely elided the word from British literary history Instead of baroque most critics prefer to use terms like metaphysical Stuart and Laudian words that emphasise England's primacy rather than its connections with the world In response to these Anglocentric approaches The English Baroque in Early Modern Literature demonstrates how the baroque can deepen our understanding of the multilingual cross confessional and interdisciplinary features of early modern English literature It connects the works of Margaret Cavendish John Donne John Milton and William Shakespeare among other English authors to the style of excess that spread across Europe and the colonial world during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries In doing so Robert Hudson Vincent offers a compelling new vision of the baroque as an aesthetic logic for thinking about and living with excess in the early modern world Representations of Loss in Irish Literature Deirdre Flynn, Eugene O'Brien, 2018-07-30 This is the first book on Irish literature to focus on the theme of loss and how it is represented in Irish writing It focuses on how literature is ideally suited to expressions and understanding of the nature of loss given its ability to access and express emotions sensations feelings and the visceral and haptic areas of experience Dealing with feelings and with sensations poems novels and drama can allow for cathartic expressions of these emotions as well as for a fuller understanding of what is involved in loss across all situations The main notion of loss being dealt with is that of death but feelings of loss in the wake of immigration and of the loss of certainties that defined notions of identity are also analysed This volume will be of interest to scholars students and researchers in Irish Studies loss memory trauma death and cultural studies The Cambridge Companion to Irish Modernism Joseph N. Cleary, 2014-08-11 This volume takes an interdisciplinary approach to Irish modernism offering readers an accessible overview of key writers and artists Essays on James Clarence Mangan S. increasingly recognized as one of the most important Irish writers of the nineteenth century It features contributions by acclaimed contemporary writers including Paul Muldoon and Ciaran Carson Revisioning Beckett S. E. Gontarski, 2018-05-31 Revisioning Beckett reassesses Beckett's career and literary output particularly his engagement with what might be called decadent modernism Gontarski approaches Beckett from multiple viewpoints from his running afoul of the Irish Censorship of Publications Acts in the 1930s through the 1950s his preoccupations to find literature in the pornography or beneath the pornography his battles with the Lord Chamberlain in the mid 1950s over London stagings of his first two plays and his close professional and personal associations with publishers who celebrated the work of the demimonde Much of that term encompasses an opening to the fullness of human experience denied in previous centuries and much of that has been sexual or decadent As Gontarski shows the aesthetics that emerges from such early career encounters and associations continues to inform Beckett's work and develops into experimental modes that upend literary models and middle class values an aesthetics that furthermore has inspired any number of visual artists to re vision Beckett Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Peter Robinson, 2013-09-26 The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry offers thirty eight chapters of ground breaking research that form a collaborative guide to the many groupings and movements the locations and styles as well as concerns aesthetic political cultural and ethical that have helped shape contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland The book's introduction offers an anthropological participant observer approach to its variously conflicted subjects while exploring the limits and openness of the contemporary as a shifting and never wholly knowable category. The five ensuing sections explore a history of the period s poetic movements its engagement with form technique and the other arts its association with particular locations and places its connection with and difference from poetry in other parts of the world and its circling around such ethical issues as whether poetry can perform actions in the world can atone redress or repair and how its significance is inseparable from acts of evaluation in both poets and readers Though the book is not structured to feature chapters on authors thought to be canonical on the principle that contemporary writers are by definition not yet canonical the volume contains commentary on many prominent poets as well as finding space for its contributors enthusiasms for numerous less familiar figures It has been organized to be read from cover to cover as an ever deepening exploration of a complex field to be read in one or more of its five thematically structured sections or indeed to be read by picking out single chapters or discussions of poets that particularly interest its individual readers Contemporary Poetry Nerys Williams, 2011-04-06 Discussing the work of more than 60 poets from the US UK Ireland Australia New Zealand and the Caribbean Nerys Williams guides students through the key ideas and movements in the study of poetry today Modernism and Ireland Patricia Coughlan,1995 An incisively argued collection of essays which sets out to look afresh at the landscape of Irish poetry in the 1930s The New Irish Studies Paige Reynolds, 2020-09-24 The New Irish Studies demonstrates how diverse critical approaches enable a richer understanding of contemporary Irish writing and culture The early decades of the twenty first century in Ireland and Northern Ireland have seen an astonishing rate of change one that reflects the common understanding of the contemporary as a moment of acceleration and flux This collection tracks how Irish writers have represented the peace and reconciliation process in Northern Ireland the consequences of the Celtic Tiger economic boom in the Republic the waning influence of Catholicism the increased authority of diverse voices and an altered relationship with Europe The essays acknowledge the distinctiveness of contemporary Irish literature reflecting a sense that the local can shed light on the global even as they reach beyond the limited tropes that have long identified Irish literature. The collection suggests routes forward for Irish Studies and unsettles presumptions about what constitutes an Irish classic HIEAS ,2002 Art and Science in Word and Image, 2019-03-27 Art and Science in Word and Image investigates the theme of riddles of form exploring how discovery and innovation have functioned inter dependently between art literature and the sciences Using the impact of evolutionary biologist D Arcy Thompson s On Growth and Form on Modernist practices as springboard into the theme contributors consider engagements with mysteries of natural form in painting photography fiction etc as well as theories about cosmic forces and other fields of knowledge and enquiry Hence the collection also deals with topics including cultural inscriptions of gardens and landscapes deconstructions of received history through word and image artworks and texts experiments in poetic materiality graphic re mediations of classic fiction and textual transactions with animation and photography Contributors are Dina Aleshina M rcia Arbex Donna T Canada Smith Calum Colvin Francis Edeline Philippe Enrico tienne F vrier Madeline B Gangnes Eric T Haskell Christina Ionescu Tim Isherwood Matthew Jarron Philippe Kaenel Judy Kendall Catherine Lanone Kristen Nassif Solange Ribeiro de Oliveira Eric Robertson Frances Robertson Cathy Roche Liger David Skilton Melanie Stengele Barry Sullivan Alice Tarbuck Frederik Van Dam
