Ethnographies of Uncertainty in Africa E. Cooper,D. Pratten,2014-11-03 This collection explores the productive potential of uncertainty for people living in Africa as well as for scholars of Africa Eight ethnographic case studies from across the continent examine how uncertainty is used to negotiate insecurity create and conduct relationships and act as a source for imagining the future

Mining and Development in Sierra Leone Robert Jan Pijpers,2024-10-30 Mining and Development in Sierra Leone examines how different actors in Sierra Leone use the effects of large scale mining to navigate and transform the challenging conditions of life The book offers an in depth analysis of the processes of development and change that mark resource extraction environments globally Across the world resource extraction is assigned an important role in development agendas Yet a key question is how development opportunities are given shape and accessed and how extraction s negative impacts are dealt with in actual politics and practices Set in the Northern Province of Sierra Leone during a global mining boom this book shows how mining cum development s multifaceted effects materialize By taking the micro politics of large scale mining as its principal focus the book analyzes a range of the most perplexing phenomena of life in Sierra Leone and scrutinizes the intricate and contentious processes of change unfolding in mining environments Mining and Development in Sierra Leone goes beyond promise or problem dichotomies offers key insights into the struggle for progress that characterizes the mining development nexus and provides innovative understandings of the resourceful ways in which different actors negotiate change and navigate uncertainty This book will be of interest to students and scholars working on resource extraction large scale investments globalization and development as well as to development practitioners mining professionals and policymakers

Anthropology, Theatre, and Development Alex Flynn,Jonas Tinius,2015-04-21 The contributors explore diverse contexts of performance to discuss peoples own reflections on political subjectivities governance and development The volume refocuses anthropological engagement with ethics aesthetics and politics to examine the transformative potential of political performance both for individuals and wider collectives

Jesus for Zanzibar: Narratives of Pentecostal (Non-)Belonging, Islam, and Nation Hans Olsson,2019-07-29 In Jesus for Zanzibar Narratives of Pentecostal Non Belonging Islam and Nation Hans Olsson offers an ethnographic account of the lived experience and socio political significance of newly arriving Pentecostal Christians in the Muslim majority setting of Zanzibar This work analyzes how a disputed political partnership between Zanzibar and Mainland Tanzania intersects with the construction of religious identities Undertaken at a time of political tensions the case study of Zanzibar s largest Pentecostal church the City Christian Center outlines religious belonging as relationally filtered in between experiences of social insecurity altered minority majority positions and spiritual powers Hans Olsson shows that Pentecostal Christianity as a signifier of un wanted social change exemplifies contested processes of becoming in Zanzibar that capitalizes on and creates meaning out of religious difference and ambient political tensions

Living on a Time Bomb Svenja Schöneich,2022-10-14

Providing a holistic understanding of extensive oil extraction in rural Mexico this book focuses on a campesino community where oil extraction is deeply inscribed into the daily lives of the community members The book shows how oil shapes the space where it is extracted in every aspect and produces multiple uncertainties The community members express these uncertainties using the metaphor of the time bomb The book shows how they find ways to live off the time bomb by using mechanisms of short term coping and long term adaptation and thus developing the capability to determine their lives despite the ever changing challenges Delta Life Franz Krause, Mark Harris, 2021-06-11 Proposing a series of innovative steps towards better understanding human lives at the interstices of water and land this volume includes eight ethnographies from deltas around the world The book presents delta life with intimate descriptions of the predicaments imaginations and activities of delta inhabitants Conceptually the collection develops delta life as a metaphor for approaching continual and intersecting sociocultural economic and material transformations more widely The book revolves around questions of hydrosociality volatility rhythms and scale It thereby yields insights into people's lives that conventional hydrological approaches to deltas cannot provide Caring on the Frontline during COVID-19 Cecilia Vindrola-Padros, Ginger A. Johnson, 2022-02-24 This book examines the experiences of global healthcare workers during the COVID 19 pandemic It shines a light on the experiences of healthcare workers during the pandemic exploring their lived experiences of delivering care without losing sight of the emotional and symbolic nature of their work Incorporating cutting edge research from global experts in medical anthropology medical sociology medicine psychology and nursing it uniquely demonstrates the value of rapid qualitative research during infectious epidemics Drawing on data collected during the COVID 19 pandemic the book explores global healthcare policies and healthcare workers experiences across 20 countries Migration, Temporality, and Capitalism Pauline Gardiner Barber, Winnie Lem, 2018-05-08 Bringing together a range of illustrative case studies coupled with fresh theoretical insights this volume is one of the first to address the complexities and contradictions in the relationship between migration time and capitalism While temporal reckoning has long fascinated anthropologists few studies have sought to confront how capitalism fetishizes time in the production of global inequalities historically and in the contemporary world As it explores how the agendas of capitalism condition migration in Europe North America and Oceania this collection also examines temporality as a feature of migrants experiences to ultimately provide a theoretically robust and ethnographically informed investigation of migration and temporality within a framework defined by the political economy of capitalism Beyond the Wage William Monteith, Dora-Olivia Vicol, Philippa Williams, 2021-06-22 Recent developments in the organization of work and production have facilitated the decline of wage employment in many regions of the world However the idea of the wage continues to dominate the political imaginations of governments researchers and activists based on the historical experiences of industrial workers in the global North This edited collection revitalises debates on the future of work by challenging the idea of wage employment as the global norm Taking theoretical inspiration from the global

South the authors compare lived experiences of ordinary work across taken for granted conceptual and geographical boundaries from Cambodian brick kilns to Catalanian cooperatives Their contributions open up new possibilities for how work identity and security might be woven together differently This volume is an invaluable resource for academics students and readers interested in alternative and emerging forms of work around the world Dealing with Elusive Futures Noemi Steuer,Michelle Engeler,Elísio Macamo,2017-11-15 The time to come as well as the exploration thereof remains elusive for social actors and social scientists alike The contributors accept the challenge to depict young men and women s future creating activities in urban contexts of sub Saharan Africa Very consciously they study young graduates having obtained a university degree and provide a vivid picture of their strategies to socially grow older by doing adulthood in contexts of great uncertainty The examples include Burkina Faso Guinea Ethiopia Mali and Tanzania visually enriched through pictures taken by young Malian photographers Youth Studies and Generations Vitor Sérgio Ferreira,2020-03-25 There is currently much discourse about generations in the public sphere A sequence of letters conflates generations and age cohorts born in the last few decades generation X Y or Z as well as multiple categories are used to describe today s young people as a generation that is distinct from its predecessors Despite the popularity of generational labels in media politics or even academia the use of generation as a conceptual tool in youth studies has been controversial This Special Issue allows readers to better understand the key issues regarding the use of generation as a theoretical concept and or as a social category in the field of youth studies shedding light on the controversies trends and cautions that go through it Young People's Daily Mobilities in Sub-Saharan Africa Gina Porter,Kate Hampshire,Albert Abane,Alister Munthali,Elsbeth Robson,Mac Mashiri,2016-11-26 This book explores the daily mobilities and immobilities of children and young people in sub Saharan Africa The authors draw on findings from rural and urban field research extending over many years culminating in a 24 site study across three African countries Ghana Malawi and South Africa Wider reflections on gender relationality the politics of mobility and field methodology frame the study By bringing together diverse strands of a complex daily mobilities picture from journeys for education work play leisure and health to associated experiences of different transport modes road safety and the virtual mobility now afforded by mobile phones the book helps fill a knowledge gap with crucial significance for development policy and practice Decentring Development T. Jakimow,2016-04-29 The ways we understand processes of agrarian change are pressing issues for policy makers and development practitioners Interpreting changes in two agrarian societies in India and Indonesia the author reveals how transformations to self are critical factors shaping change as well as under recognized consequences of development initiatives Transnational Labour Migration, Remittances and the Changing Family in Asia L. Hoang,B. Yeoh,2015-05-13 The contributors investigate the inter relationships between migrant remittances and the family in Asia They argue that in the context of Asian transnational labour migration where remittances tend to become a primary currency of care the making or breaking of the family unit is mainly contingent on how individuals handle remittance processes      Global Urbanism Michele Lancione, Colin McFarlane, 2021-06-21 Global Urbanism is an experimental examination of how urban scholars and activists make sense of and act upon the foundational relationship between the global and the urban What does it mean to say that we live in a global urban moment and what are its implications Refusing all encompassing answers the book grounds this question exploring the plurality of understandings definitions and ways of researching global urbanism through the lenses of varied contributors from different parts of the world The contributors explore what global urbanism means to them in their context from the ground and the struggles upon which they are working and living The book argues for an incremental fragile and in the making emancipatory urban thinking The contributions provide the resources to help make sense of what global urbanism is in its varieties what is at stake in it how to research it and what needs to change for more progressive urban futures It provides a heterodox set of approaches and theorisations to probe and provoke rather than aiming to draw a line under a complex changing and profoundly contested set of global urban processes Global Urbanism is primarily intended for scholars and graduate students in geography sociology planning anthropology and the field of urban studies for whom it will provide an invaluable and up to date guide to current thinking across the range of disciplines and practices which converge in the study of urbanism Chapter 36 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9780429259593>      Ethnographies of Waiting Manpreet K.

Janeja, Andreas Bandak, 2020-05-27 We all wait in traffic jams passport offices school meal queues for better weather an end to fighting peace Time spent waiting produces hope boredom anxiety doubt or uncertainty Ethnographies of Waiting explores the social phenomenon of waiting and its centrality in human society Using waiting as a central analytical category the book investigates how waiting is negotiated in myriad ways Examining the politics and poetics of waiting Ethnographies of Waiting offers fresh perspectives on waiting as the uncertain interplay between doubting and hoping and asks When is time worth the wait Waiting thus conceived is intrinsic to the ethnographic method at the heart of the anthropological enterprise Featuring detailed ethnographies from Japan Georgia England Ghana Norway Russia and the United States a Foreword by Craig Jeffrey and an Afterword by Ghassan Hage this is a vital contribution to the field of anthropology of time and essential reading for students and scholars in anthropology sociology and philosophy      Religiosity on University Campuses in Africa

Abdoulaye Sounaye, Frédérick Madore, 2023 This volume examines religiosity on university campuses in Sub Saharan Africa Focusing on both individuals and organized groups the contributions open a window onto how religion becomes a factor affects social interactions is experienced and mobilized by various actors It brings together case studies from various disciplinary backgrounds anthropology sociology history religious studies literature and theoretical orientations to illustrate the significance of religiosity in recent developments on university campuses It pays a particular attention to religion informed activism and contributes a fresh analysis of processes that are shaping both the experience of being student and the university campus as a moral space Last but not least it sheds light onto the ways in which the campus becomes a site of a reformulation of both religiosity and sociality      Disability and Aid Maria-Theres Schuler,2023-11-07 The open access publication of this book has been published with the support of the Swiss National Science Foundation Winner of the Public Anthropologist Award 2024 Public Anthropologist Award 2024 At a time when rights are increasingly placed on the humanitarian agenda this book provides a unique ethnographic account of the dynamics of aid to disabled people in a Ugandan refugee camp By unraveling the complexities of social material and institutional interdependencies the author invites us to rethink conventional notions of dependence and vulnerability Exploring issues of personhood as they relate to the exchange of material goods and care the book offers a thought provoking perspective on the seemingly promising shift towards a rights based approach A compelling read for anyone seeking to reshape the humanitarian agenda      Edges of Global Transformation Harald Aspen,Håkon Fyhn,Anne Kathrine Larsen,2018-08-15 Through nine ethnographic case studies Edges of Global Transformation explores situations where global transformations associated with neoliberalism meet local realities The edge of transformation is characterized by uncertainty as old patterns are consumed and new formed The nine case studies from Africa Europe and the Middle East shed light on how uncertainty plays an inevitable and essential role in the grey zone between macro transformations and local responses Despite the tremendous difference in precariousness between these cases each contributor explores ways in which transformations are conceived and acted upon within the space of possibility that is opened and apprehended locally The role of uncertainty as an active force is explored throughout the book While in some cases uncertainty has a clear restricting effect other cases illustrate its potential as a productive force As a contribution to understanding the dynamic of the local realities of global change the book will be valuable reading for anyone interested in globalization and the neoliberal world order      Coastal Sierra Leone Jennifer Diggins,2018-06-28 A rich ethnographic account of young West African fisherfolk navigating a precarious social and economic environment shaped by ecological crisis war and secrecy
