Momfluenced Sara Petersen, 2023-04-25 How momfluencer culture impacts women psychologically as consumers as performers of their stories and as mothers On Instagram the private work of mothering is turned into a public performance generating billions of dollars The message is simple we're all just a couple of clicks away from a better more beautiful experience of motherhood Linen clad momfluencers hawking essential oils parenting manuals baby slings and sponsored content for Away suitcases make us want to forget that the reality of mothering in America is an isolating exhausting almost wholly unsupported endeavor In a culture which denies mothers basic human rights it feels good to click purchase now on whatever a momfluencer might be selling It feels good to hope Momfluencers are just like us except they aren't They are mothers yes They are also marketing strategists content creators lighting experts advertising executives and artists They are businesswomen The most successful momfluencers offer content that differs very little from what we used to find in glossy women's magazines like Glamour and Real Simple only they're churning it out daily and that content is their lives We flock to momfluencers to learn about fashion wellness parenting politics and to find Brooklyn designed crib sheets printed with radishes Chances are if you're a mother reading this and maybe even if you're not you are an arm's length away from something you've purchased because a momfluencer made it look good Drawing on her own fraught relationship to momfluencer culture Sara Petersen incorporates pop culture analysis and interviews with prominent momfluencers and experts psychologists academics technologists to explore the glorification of the ideal mama online with both humor and empathy At home on a bookshelf with Lyz Lenz's Belabored and Jia Tolentino's Trick Mirror Momfluenced argues that momfluencers don't simply sell mothers on the benefits of bamboo diapers they sell us the dream of motherhood itself a dream tangled up in whiteness capitalism and the heteronormative nuclear family Momfluenced considers what it means to define motherhood for ourselves when society is determined to define motherhood for us
