

O God, how could a cloth with stars and stripes hung from a pole mean so much to us? But You know just how much the Red, White, and Blue is cherished by those who know the cost of our Nation's freedom.

For when it proudly waves, there rises in each of us a grateful appreciation for the freedoms we enjoy.

And when it drapes the coffin of a Soldier, Sailor, Airman, Marine or Coastguard, we know that flag is honoring a life lived in service to others.

O God, may this flag always fly for the cause of freedom for all people and may its colors never run from the enemy, never fade from what is right and true. Amen.

When driving south along the Delaware Atlantic Coast between Rehoboth and Bethany several concrete towers weathered by the ocean can be seen on the beach They are symbols of a nation at war built to safeguard the Atlantic Coast from a German sea invasion during World War II When the towers were built there were soldiers stationed along the coast and even a German POW camp McKenna is a young woman living with her family in Ocean View Delaware during World War II Her lifeand the lives of the people she lovesis turned upside down by the arrival of a young man named Kurt Kurt grew up in Germany With the rise of Hitler his father moved quickly up the military ranks so Kurt was eventually expected to do the same He begrudgingly became a German spy Undercover in America Kurts loyalties wander especially when he meets McKenna Fighting the darkness of war they find light in each other but how can Kurt love her while living a lie Its time to make a choice will he forsake the woman he loves or the country he serves The horrors of war are wrought with difficult decisions as Kurt and McKenna struggle through tragedy patriotism and the power of self discovery      Congressional Record United States. Congress,1983 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873      Flag Burning Michael Welch (Ph. D.), Responses to flag burning as a particular form of street protest tend to polarize into two camps one holding the view that action of this sort is constitutionally protected protest the other that it is subversive and criminal activity In this well researched and richly documented volume Welch examines the collision of these ideologies and shows the relevance of sociological concepts to a deeper understanding of such forms of protest In exploring social control of political protest in the United States this volume embarks on an in depth examination of flag desecration and efforts to criminalize that particular form of dissent It seeks to examine the sociological process facilitating the criminalization of protest by attending to moral enterprises civil religion authoritarian aesthetics and the ironic nature of social control Flag burning is a potent symbolic gesture conveying sharp criticism of the state Many American believe that flag desecration emerged initially during the Vietnam War era but the history of this caustic form of protest can be traced to the period leading up to the Civil War The act of torching Old Glory differs qualitatively from other forms of defiance With this distinction in mind attempts to penalize and deter flag desecration transcend the utilitarian function of regulating public protest Despite popular claims that American society is built on genuine consensus the flag burning controversy brings to light the contentious nature of U S democracy and its ambivalence toward free expression The First Amendment of the U S Constitution is often viewed as one of the more unpopular additions to the Bill of Rights One constitutional commentator underscores this point by noting that the First Amendment gives citizens the right to tell people what they do not want to hear Flag Burning is a well written informative volume suitable for courses in deviance social problems social movements mass communication criminology and political science as well as in sociology of law and legal studies Congressional Record Index ,1955 Includes history of bills and resolutions Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine ,1910 Bold Beliefs in Camouflage Linda Carol Harms Case,2013 Welcome to Bold Beliefs in Camouflage It is an extraordinary collection of personal and public prayers military prayers and quotations Scripture verses and stories hymns and testimonies that track the soul through keywords These keywords embrace core values that are promoted from each branch of the military And each of the 50 chapters is titled with a keyword that is relevant to the military such as battle courage enemy integrity and wounded Subtitles of each chapter are symbolic of traditional military practice Radio Transmission Battle Command Spiritual Intelligence An Appeal to Heaven At Ease and Battle Hymns Uniquely each Radio Transmission ends with the sacred oath and shortest military prayer So help me God Three biblical studies based on themes of victory spiritual warfare and standing firm are also included for further enrichment Reader friendly for any member of the Armed Forces it is especially helpful to Christian chaplains looking for a library of resources contained in one volume Any chapter choice would be an excellent guide for a military chapel service Both active duty and retired military personnel have found this resource to be devotional engaging and useful Patriotic civilians and military family members have also enjoyed reading this volume The Jewish Veteran ,1940 Shadows on the Wall Edward Bertrand Finck,1922 Federal Register ,2004 Americanism Manual ...
