8.DC: The Modern Era- Introduction

After completing the Module 8 Pre-Test, please open the Pre-Test and look over the questions you missed. It is a good idea to write down all of the questions you missed so that you're sure to add that information to your notes.

8.D1: Roots of the Cold War

-How did the map of Europe change after WWII?

After WWII, the Eastern European countries including Russia, previously forced under German, became a collective region, East Europe. Western European countries previously had been free, democratic and self-governed nations.

-What is a Cold War?

As a Cold War, the two nations are not fighting directly, however, they spend money on military and technology. They also often support other nations that fight for to get against common, opposed with the other side.

Why were the United States and Soviet Union so different?

US Gover- ment	United States	Soviet Gov- ernment
Structure of Gov	Legislative (Congress)	Executive (Soviet Union)
	After World War II, the US focused on their economic system of capitalism, believing that it would free themselves from the other communist countries and that the communist countries would eventually become part of the free world.	After World War II, the Soviet Union focused on their system of communism and that would always end up making advantage of the poor. They were determined to keep the Soviet Union strong.
