Campbell, 2000-03-20 In The Religion of the Heart Campbell provides a critical but sympathetic analysis of the European and British pietistic movements of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Campbell shows that a definitive form of religious life emerged during the period of inter Christian warfare in the seventeenth century that was characterized by personal affection for God Campbell explores these religious movements parallel to the rise of Enlightenment thought and examines their importance in relation to our understanding of modern religious movements

The Heart: The Key to Everything in the Christian Life Tim Rowe, 2016-03-10 We need to recover a truth that has been all but lost in modern day Christianity It has been buried for too long and it is too valuable to be forgotten This life changing truth is that the heart is the key to everything in the Christian life The heart is the wellspring of all our actions emotions motives and character Everything we are everything we say and everything we do flows directly from the heart In The Heart The Key to Everything in the Christian Life believers will discover how the heart is central to spiritual growth and how it will help us better reflect the image of Christ in a fallen world The heart is the key to our service and obedience to the Father The heart is the key to the purity and depth of our worship praise and love of God It is time the Christian church once again teaches a proper understanding of the heart so that we can fully embrace and manifest the life of Christ within us

Advent of the Heart Alfred Delp, 2010-06-07 Fr Alfred Delp S J was a heroic German Jesuit priest who was imprisoned and martyred by the Nazis in a Nazi death camp in 1945 At the time of his arrest he was the Rector of St Georg Church in Munich and had a reputation for being a gripping dynamic preacher and one who was an outspoken critic of the Nazi regime He was an important figure in the Resistance movement against Nazism Accused of conspiring against the Nazi government he was arrested in 1944 tortured imprisoned and executed on Feb 2 1945 While in prison Fr Delp was able to write a few meditations found in this book which also includes his powerful reflections from prison during the Advent season about the profound spiritual meaning and lessons of Advent as well as his sermons he gave on the season of Advent at his parish in Munich These meditations were smuggled out of Berlin and read by friends and parishioners of St Georg in Munich His approach to Advent the season that prepares us for Christmas is what Fr Delp called an Advent of the heart More than just preparing us for Christmas it is a spiritual program a way of life He proclaimed that our personal social and historical circumstances even suffering offer us entry into the true Advent our personal journey toward a meeting and dialogue with God Indeed his own life and great sufferings illustrated the true Advent he preached and wrote about From his very prison cell he presented a timeless spiritual message and in an extreme situation his deep faith gave him the courage to draw closer to God and to witness to the truth even at the cost of his own life These meditations will challenge and inspire all Christians to embark upon that same spiritual journey toward union with God a journey that will transform our lives As one of the last witnesses who knew Fr Alfred Delp personally I am very pleased this book will make him better known in America The more one reads his writings the more one clearly recognizes the prophetic message for our times Like his contemporary Dietrich Bonhoeffer Delp ranks among the great prophets who endured the horror of Nazism and handed down a powerful message for our times Karl Kreuser S J from the Foreword

Diseases of the Heart Theodor von Jürgensen, 1908 Heart to Heart Peter John McGregor, 2016-05-13 In Behold the Pierced One Joseph Ratzinger recounts how the composition of a 1981 paper on the Sacred Heart of Jesus had led him to consider Christology more from the aspect of its spiritual appropriation than he had done previously Upon realizing that this same year was the 1300th anniversary of the Third Council of Constantinople he decided to study the pronouncements of this Council and came to believe that the achievement of a spiritual Christology had also been the Council's ultimate goal Ratzinger's conclusion in attempting to define a spiritual Christology was that the whole of Christology our speaking of Christ is nothing other than the interpretation of his prayer the entire person of Jesus is contained in his prayer The spiritual Christology subsequently developed by Ratzinger is one of communio Indeed it is one of theosis Through a personal and ecclesial participation in the prayer of Jesus exercised in purity of heart and consummated in the eucharistic celebration one comes into communion with Jesus Christ and all the members of his Body so that eventually one can say truly It is no longer I who live but Christ who lives in me Gal 2:20 *Agreement of science and faith upon the sacred heart of Jesus, tr. by E. depression anxiety and many others Based on Proverbs 23 7 NKJV For as he thinks in his heart so is he Andrews text works from the position that if we can change the way that we think we can change the way that we behave For As I Think in My Heart enables readers to examine the lies and half truths they tell themselves repeatedly lies which as one argues contribute to mental distress and a wide range of issues in their lives In this text Andrews seeks to wash those lies with biblical truth by combining biblical counseling with cognitive behavioral therapy in an effort to better understand our human condition and give readers tools to face these challenges
