Employment Guarantee Programme and Dynamics of Rural Transformation in India Madhusudan Bhattarai,P.K. Viswanathan,Rudra N. Mishra,Cynthia Bantilan,2018-06-08 This book offers an assessment of the performance impact and welfare implications of the world s largest employment guarantee programme the Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act MGNREGA Launched by the Indian government the programme covers entire rural area of the country The book presents various micro level analyses of the programme and its heterogeneous impacts at different scales almost a decade after its implementation While there are some doubts over the future of the scheme as well as its magnitude nature and content the central government appears committed to it as a convergence scheme of various other welfare and rural development programmes being implemented at both national and state level The book discusses the outcomes of the programme and offers critical insights into the lessons learnt not only in the context of India but also for similar schemes in countries in South and South East Asia as well as in Africa and Latin America Adopting inter disciplinary perspectives in analysing these issues this unique book uses a judicious mix of methods integrating quantitative and qualitative tools and will be an invaluable resource for analysts NGOs policymakers and academics alike Crpf , Bank Clerks' Examination ,

The Right to Development Centre for Development and Human Rights,2004-05-25 The Right to Development RTD a concept that emerged in the 1970s is one of the most debated and contentious issues in international relations RTD builds on the rights based approach to development seeking to integrate the norms and principles of human rights with policies and plans to promote development Despite its importance for the world s poor and dispossessed a great deal of definitional confusion still surrounds the concept This primer introduces the concept of RTD as well as discusses its practical application in the Indian setting It is divided accordingly into two sections the first of which traces the origins and the evolution of the idea of RTD This section identifies the defining parameters and content of RTD and focuses especially on the three rights the rights to food education and health that have been identified as a good starting point for the implementation of RTD The last chapter in this section underscores the importance of women s rights in order to emphasise the need to focus on safeguarding and promoting the human rights of vulnerable groups Part II covers substantially the Indian situation relating to RTD The first chapter in this section provides an overview of the legal and institutional mechanism in India for the protection of human rights in general and women s rights in particular The next chapter examines the implementation of the rights to food health and education The last chapter in this section details the functioning of Public Interest Litigation PIL which has emerged in recent years as an important mechanism for securing social justice and the challenges and limitations of this mechanism A STUDY ON ADMINISTRATION AND WORKING OF MGNREGS IT'S IMPACT ON COUNTRYSIDE OF

KURNOOL DISTRICT OF ANDHRA PRADESH Dr. V. Venkata Narasaiah, Globalization and Health Ronald Labonté, Ted Schrecker, Corinne Packer, Vivien Runnels, 2009-05-07 Contemporary globalization has had tremendous impact on health equity across the globe However no volume has systematically analyzed the relationship between globalization and global trends in health outcomes This book consolidates and updates the findings of a global research project undertaken by the Globalisation Knowledge Network GKN of the World Health Organization s Commission on Social Determinants of Health Chapters examine such questions as How has trade liberalisation affected the social determinants of health How has globalization affected food security nutrition and equitable access to water and sanitation How well do present global governance structures take account of the health equity effects associated with the social determinants of health This landmark volume will be a necessary addition for researchers and scholars studying the field of globalization health and social policy and public health across the social sciences Rural Development Strategies in Developing Countries K. Singh, 2001 Public Works as a Safety Net Kalanidhi Subbarao, Carlo del Ninno, Colin Andrews, Claudia Rodríguez-Alas, 2012-12-11 A review of the conceptual underpinnings and operational elements of public works programs around the world drawing from a rich evidence base and analyzing previously unassimilated data to fill a gap in knowledge related to public works programs now so popular For Protection and Promotion Margaret Grosh, Carlo Del Ninno, Emil Tesliuc, Azedine Ouerghi, 2008-08-25 Safety nets are noncontributory transfer programs targeted to the poor or vulnerable They play important roles in social policy Safety nets redistribute income thereby immediately reducing poverty and inequality they enable households to invest in the human capital of their children and in the livelihoods of their earners they help households manage risk both ex ante and ex post and they allow governments to implement macroeconomic or sectoral reforms that support efficiency and growth To be effective safety nets must not only be well intended but also well designed and well implemented A good safety net system and its programs are tailored to country circumstances adequate in their coverage and generosity equitable cost effective incentive compatible and sustainable Good safety nets are also dynamic and change over time as the economy changes or as management problems are solved and new standards are set Drawing on a wealth of research policy and operational documents from both academia and the World Bank s work in over 100 countries For Protection and Promotion provides pragmatic and informed guidance on how to design and implement safety nets including useful information on how to define eligibility and select beneficiaries set and pay benefits and monitor and evaluate programs and systems The book synthesizes the literature to date and enriches it with new examples on various program options cash transfers conditional and unconditional in kind transfers price subsidies fee waivers and public works It concludes with a comprehensive diagnostic for fitting safety net systems and programs to specific circumstances Reducing Rural Poverty in Asia Nurul Islam, 2024-11-01 Fight rural poverty through the creation of significant policy mechanisms microenterprises and employment programs The majority of the world s poor live in Asia and most of these live in rural areas These areas are also infamous for the food insecurity and malnutrition associated with poverty Making even a modest dent in rural Asian poverty has the potential to realize large gains in global human development Reducing Rural Poverty in Asia provides evidence based guidelines for policymakers in developing countries for researchers focusing on development problems and for the international development assistance community in the continuing search for ways to effectively reduce poverty in the developing world Detailed examinations are clearly presented on the efforts for poverty alleviation through microenterprise development and rural public employment programs that focus on public works and household small scale industries Asia based case studies of various microenterprises and rural public employment projects reveal important policy mechanisms and the effectiveness of each poverty reduction measure Tables figures and relevant glossaries make unfamiliar terms and difficult information easy to understand Part I of Reducing Rural Poverty in Asia presents a framework for the analysis of rural microenterprises with a focus on microfinance highlights the main findings of country specific case studies suggests guidelines for an appropriate strategy for the provision of microfinance to reach the poor alleviate poverty and create financial stability analyzes the issues relating to public wage employment schemes and the principal findings of the case studies draws policy conclusions for the formulation of effective public employment schemes Part II of Reducing Rural Poverty in Asia presents case studies conducted in India Bangladesh and the Philippines along with revealing conclusions These studies include the SIDBI Foundation for Micro Credit in India including the continuing problem of the exclusion of the poorest the Maharashtra Rural Credit Project in India and concerns about the sustainability of the financial infrastructure the Small Enterprises Development Project in Bangladesh and the high rate of return on capital from financed enterprises the successes of the Grameen Uddog Agrani Bank Micro Enterprise Development Unit MEDU and Kishoreganj Community Based Projects in Bangladesh the income stabilizing role of the Employment Guarantee Scheme in Maharashtra India guidelines for the Public Works Employment policy and implementation in the Philippines Reducing Rural Poverty in Asia is a concise overview of the crucial research undertaken at the request of the International Fund for Agricultural Development IFAD and makes this a vital resource for researchers educators students policymakers and development experts working towards the goal of poverty reduction
