|----------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Introduction(Organization) | The introduction 'hooks' the audience, contains a good topic sentence, and states the supporting details of the essay.                                                       | The introduction clearly states the main topic and previews the structure of the essay, but is not particularly inviting to the reader.  | The introduction states the main topic, but does not adequately preview the structure of the essay nor is it particularly inviting to the reader. | There is no clear introduction of the main topic or the structure of the essay.                           |
| Body(Organization)         | Details from introduction are presented in a logical order and each topic is equally supported with supportive evidence.                                                     | Details are placed in a logical order. However, each topic has differing amounts of support; some topics have more evidence than others. | Some details are not in a logical or expected order, and this distracts the reader.                                                               | Many details are not in a logical or expected order. There is little sense that the writing is organized. |
| Conclusion(Organization)   | The conclusion is strong and sums up the main idea and the details of the essay. This leaves the reader with a feeling that they understand what the writer is 'getting at'. | The conclusion is recognizable and sums up almost all of the essay's details.                                                            | The conclusion is recognizable but does not sum up several topics.                                                                                | There is no conclusion, the paper just ends.                                                              |
| Conventions                     | Writer makes no mistakes in grammar, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization.                                                                                              | Writer makes 1-2 errors in grammar, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization.                                                           | Writer makes 3-4 errors in grammar, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization.                                                                    | Writer exceeds 4 errors in grammar, spelling, punctuation, and capitalization.                            |
| Voice                           | The writer maintains a formal tone throughout the essay.                                                                                                                     | The writer maintains a formal tone most of the time.                                                                                     | The writer's tone is inconsistent throughout the essay.                                                                                           | The writer's tone is casual throughout the essay.                                                         |
