

Management Operations

Module 1 - The Management Story

The diagram above is a simplified representation of the organizational structure of a company. It shows the hierarchy of the organization, from the top level down to the bottom level. The top level is the Chief Executive Officer, who is responsible for the overall management of the company. Below the CEO are the President and Vice President, who are responsible for the day-to-day operations of the company. The President oversees the Marketing, Sales, and Finance departments, while the Vice President oversees the Operations and Human Resources departments. Each of these departments has its own set of sub-departments, which are shown in the diagram below the main departments.

- (a) Marketing's primary function is to create and maintain a strong relationship between the company and its customers. This is done through a variety of means, including advertising, public relations, and sales management. The Marketing department is responsible for all of these activities, and it works closely with the other departments to ensure that the company's message is consistent and effective.
- (b) Sales' primary function is to sell the company's products and services to its customers. This is done through a variety of means, including direct sales, indirect sales, and sales management. The Sales department is responsible for all of these activities, and it works closely with the other departments to ensure that the company's products and services are sold in a profitable and efficient manner.
- (c) Finance's primary function is to manage the company's financial resources. This is done through a variety of means, including accounting, treasury, and financial management. The Finance department is responsible for all of these activities, and it works closely with the other departments to ensure that the company's financial resources are managed in a responsible and effective manner.
- (d) Operations' primary function is to produce and deliver the company's products and services to its customers. This is done through a variety of means, including production, logistics, and operations management. The Operations department is responsible for all of these activities, and it works closely with the other departments to ensure that the company's products and services are produced and delivered in a timely and efficient manner.
- (e) Human Resources' primary function is to manage the company's human resources. This is done through a variety of means, including recruitment, training, and human resources management. The Human Resources department is responsible for all of these activities, and it works closely with the other departments to ensure that the company's human resources are managed in a responsible and effective manner.
