Extreme Humour How To Make Anyone Laugh:

Laughing at Yourself Frank E. Burdett, 2014-03-17 Frank E Burdett is a survivor from seriousness This is no laughing matter and only needs a simple explanation Frank decided to divorce himself from all seriousness in an effort to gain control of his sense of humour Once he attained his sense of humour he realised that the amount of absurdity and nonsense that abounds in society can only be diagnosed in the gentlest of terms as over seriousness of epidemic proportions Frank has researched and evaluated the importance of nurturing your sense of humour in order to balance the well being of people everywhere especially against the high degrees of stress both emotional and work associated challenges that attack everyone today He came to the conclusion that people of all persuasions have completely lost the knack of being able to step aside and have a good and free laugh at themselves Therefore the time has come for you to learn to laugh at yourself and live longer Frank knows the effects of harrowing trauma being attacked mauled and carried away by a man eating tiger and curing himself of spreading melanoma cancer of the neck shoulder both lungs liver and bowel cancer He had been diagnosed by orthodox medicine as stage IV and given six months to live He tuned to find an alternative cure He has now been four years free of cancer Frank devised a technique whereby even you can benefit and learn to laugh at yourself You have nothing to lose except your overpowering seriousness Frank spent three years delving into the properties of laughing at yourself and he soon realised that there is more to laughing than showing a set of teeth Laughing at yourself allows you the complete freedom to see stress and serious ness in their proper light as a threat to your long lasting happiness This is your opportunity to take a real look at yourself by using Franks technique to step on the path towards learning the Art of Happiness You either want to be free from the pangs of stress and seriousness or you do not Your choice Semantic Mechanisms of Humor V. Raskin, 2012-12-06 GOAL This is the funniest book I have ever written and the ambiguity here is deliberate Much of this book is about deliberate ambiguity described as unambiguously as possible so the previous sentence is probably the first last and only deliberately ambiguous sentence in the book Deliberate ambiguity will be shown to underlie much if not all of verbal humor Some of its forms are simple enough to be perceived as deliberately ambiguous on the surface in others the ambiguity results from a deep semantic analysis Deep semantic analysis is the core of this approach to humor The book is the first ever application of modern linguistic theory to the study of humor and it puts forward a formal semantic theory of verbal humor The goal of the theory is to formulate the necessary and sufficient conditions in purely semantic terms for a text to be funny In other words if a formal semantic analysis of a text yields a certain set of semantic properties which the text possesses then the text is recognized as a joke As any modern linguistic theory this semantic theory of humor attempts to match a natural intuitive ability which the native speaker has in this particular case the ability to perceive a text as funny i e to distinguish a joke from a non joke Teen World Joanna Budden, 2009-03-23 Specifically designed for teenagers this photocopyable resource contains 17 teen focussed topics divided into three levels elementary intermediate and upper intermediate with step
