Thomson, 2025-03-20 This is the OCR endorsed edition covering the Latin AS and A Level Group 1 prescription for examinations in 2026 28 of Nepos Life of Hannibal 1 13 Baebio Tamphilo and the A Level Group 2 prescription for examinations in 2027-28 of Apuleius Metamorphoses VI 7-21 and Tacitus Annals XIV 29-37 and 59 et posito metu 65 giving full Latin text commentary and vocabulary with a detailed introduction that also covers the prescribed material to be read in English for A Level. Nepos bibliography offers an interesting character sketch of Hannibal, Rome's great enemy. Written in clear, unadorned Latin, Nepos focuses on Hannibal's great intelligence and his undying hatred for the Romans. The character sketch is fast-paced and enlivened by a series of memorable anecdotes. In contrast, Tacitus's account of the notorious emperor Nero is scathing in its criticism and jagged in its style. Via sentences which are often surprising in their structure, Tacitus explores the darker side of Nero's personal whims. This extract contains unforgettable descriptions of Nero's love of performing on stage and the shifting personal alliances in Rome, including the murder of his young wife Octavia. Tacitus also takes us to Roman Britain and the surging rebellion led by Boudicca in protest against Rome's greed and their abuse of power. Apuleius' tale of Cupid and Psyche is one of the richest and most enduring fables of antiquity, combining elements of fairytale, Platonic allegory and literary play in stylistically lavish Latin prose. The story tells the tale of the surpassingly beautiful mortal Psyche, with whom Cupid, Venus' son and the god of love, falls hopelessly in love, though concealing his identity. Her sisters, jealousy and her own inordinate curiosity lead her to try to discover who her lover is, in the process severely wounding him. This selection of text follows the trials of Psyche, set as punishment by Venus. Supporting resources are available on the Companion Website: <https://bloomsbury.pub>. OCR editions 2026-2028. Starting to Teach Latin Steven Hunt, 2016-02-11. This handbook for teachers provides both practical, up-to-date guidance and a theoretical overview on a number of key topics in Latin teaching. Using a wealth of interviews, observations and pupil transcripts, Steven Hunt's title utilizes case study evidence of excellent practice in teaching and learning from a wide variety of institutions, from outreach programmes, community schools and academies in the UK to New York Charter Schools, KIP schools and schools in Eastern Seaboard states in the USA. Offering practical advice on topics such as essay writing, teaching controversial topics including women, slavery, ethnicity and social hierarchy, making use of primary sources and using ICT to advance language skills, the book also engages with broader questions of approach and theory. These include a survey of the three main approaches to Latin teaching: grammar, translation, communicative and reading approaches; explanation of cognitive and social approaches to learning and analysis of the differences between intrinsic and extrinsic motivation. Moreover, traditional arguments about the value and purpose of learning Latin at school level are re-examined in the light of current educational thinking and government policy-making. This book is invaluable for trainees, newly qualified teachers and more experienced practitioners looking for practical ideas and strategies to motivate and engage learners of Latin. A companion website www.startingtoteachlatin.org is under construction and will contain a range of resources and information for teachers. OCR Anthology for Classical Greek GCSE 2027-2028 Christopher Burnand, Andy Mylne, 2025-03-20.
