The Hartford Seminary Record, 1893

Of Scribes and Sages: Later versions and traditions Craig A. Evans, 2004-11-30

Of Scribes and Sages focuses primarily on early interpretation of Scripture including the emergence of Scripture as Scripture in its various versions and contexts It examines recent research into the relationship of the Old Testament to the New and how sacred Scripture was interpreted during New Testament times It also provides stimulating examples to students scholars and clergy in how the task of interpretation is to be done

Cold Tyranny and the Demonic North of Early Modern England Anne Cotterill, 2025-10-01 The seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries were among the worst years of the Little Ice Age This volume attends to English texts from this period to trace associations between wintry physical landscapes and an icy inner landscape of human cruelty and tyranny whose rigors promote the ultimate chill of rigor mortis Sailors seeking a polar route to the East brought terrifying reports of northern icescapes long popularly linked with the devil Simultaneously concerns about increasingly cold winters at home in Britain overlapped with increased scrutiny of kingship and the church and fear of tyranny from both Such fears were reflected in ongoing struggles between king and Parliament during the period leading to revolution and war The binding power of ice and the power of northern winters to deface kill and bury life suggested the Fall s human parallel to winter cold hearted humans as tyrannical winters who deal in death

The Greatest Mirror Andrei A. Orlov, 2017-09-19 A wide ranging analysis of heavenly twin imagery in early Jewish extrabiblical texts The idea of a heavenly double an angelic twin of an earthbound human can be found in Christian Manichaeism Islamic and Kabbalistic traditions Scholars have long traced the lineage of these ideas to Greco Roman and Iranian sources In The Greatest Mirror Andrei A Orlov shows that heavenly twin imagery drew in large part from early Jewish writings The Jewish pseudepigrapha books from the Second Temple period that were attributed to biblical figures but excluded from the Hebrew Bible contain accounts of heavenly twins in the form of spirits images faces children mirrors and angels of the Presence Orlov provides a comprehensive analysis of these traditions in their full historical and interpretive complexity He focuses on heavenly alter egos of Enoch Moses Jacob Joseph and Aseneth in often neglected books including Animal Apocalypse Book of the Watchers 2 Enoch Ladder of Jacob and Joseph and Aseneth some of which are preserved solely in the Slavonic language This book is the first complete effort to show how some pseudepigraphical works develop several unique traditions about heavenly counterparts It is particularly important for many scholars who do not have control of the Slavonic originals of the Ladder of Jacob and 2 Enoch Orlov also draws on a broad range of unfamiliar sources including Manichaean and Mandaean materials which were often neglected by experts who previously investigated the heavenly counterpart imagery Alexander Kulik coauthor of Biblical Pseudepigrapha in Slavonic Tradition

Of Scribes and Sages, Vol 2 Craig A. Evans, 2004-09-01

Of Scribes and Sages focuses primarily on early interpretation of Scripture including the emergence of Scripture as Scripture in its various versions and contexts It examines recent research into the relationship of the Old Testament to the New and how sacred Scripture was interpreted during New Testament times It also provides stimulating examples to students scholars and clergy in how the task of interpretation is to be done The Hartford Seminary Record Waldo Selden Pratt, Arthur Lincoln Gillett, 1893 From Apocalypticism to Merkabah Mysticism Andrei A. Orlov, 2007 This volume represents the first attempt to study Slavonic pseudepigrapha collectively as a unique group of texts that share common theophanic and mediatorial imagery crucial for the development of early Jewish mysticism A biblical dictionary James Austin Bastow, 1876 True North Mark Liederbach, Seth Bible, 2012-11-01 Because the Bible describes the second person of the Trinity as the key agent in creation redemption and the restoration of all things it is imperative that Christians seeking conformity to the image of Christ root their understanding of and motivation for creation care in a theology and ethic that seeks to maximize the worship of Christ throughout all creation Discussions related to creation care and environmental ethics have become both politically charged and highly controversial Unfortunately while a growing number of Christian books address various aspects of creation care that either support or deny the reality of global warming or perhaps advocate various policies and practices there is very little work available seeking to focus on clarify and establish the biblical and theological foundations upon which Christians ought to care for God's world Even more specifically there seems to be almost a complete dearth of accessible works in theology or ethics that offers a Christology of creation care Thus the purpose of True North is to explore the person and work of Christ in creation redemption and the restoration of all things so as to establish the idea that caring for God's creation depends not upon prognostications for or against a global warming crisis Rather the motivation for Christians to care for creation flows from the created purposes established in the very fabric of the universe faithful discipleship in Christ and the inherent goal to return to God all the glory he is due from every corner and aspect of creation Cyclopaedia of Biblical, Theological, and Ecclesiastical Literature: A, B John McClintock, 1867
