Religiosity in East and West

Sarah Demmrich, Ulrich Riegel, 2020-11-06 The book discusses the theoretical and methodological challenges of an interculturally valid sociology of religion and provides insights into the autochthonous socio religious research in Muslim societies and Asian countries In this way it links discourses that have so far taken place primarily independently of one another The book goes back to a conference in Münster that questioned the Western foundation of empirical religiosity research which reaches its limits in the non American and non European context but also with regard to orthodox forms of faith in the Western context Thinking Through Resistance Nicola Bulled, 2017-03-03 Thinking Through Resistance examines a diverse range of case studies of opposition to biomedical public health policies from resistance to HPV vaccinations in Texas to disputes over HIV prevention research in Malawi to assess the root causes of opposition It is argued that far from being based on ignorance resistance instead serves as a form of advocacy calling for improvements in basic health care delivery alongside expanded access to infrastructure and basic social services With contributions from medical anthropologists sociologists and public health experts the book makes important reading for researchers students and practitioners in the fields of public health medical anthropology and public policy Making Multicultural Families in Europe Isabella Crespi, Stefania Giada Meda, Laura Merla, 2018-03-13 This edited collection explores family relations in two types of migrant families in Europe mixed families and transnational families Based on in depth qualitative fieldwork and large surveys the contributors analyse gender and intergenerational relations from a variety of standpoints and migratory flows In their examination of family life in a migratory context the authors develop theoretical approaches from the social sciences that go beyond migration studies such as intersectionality the solidarity paradigm care circulation reflexive modernization and gender convergence theory Making Multicultural Families in Europe will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including migration and transnationalism studies family studies intergenerational studies gender studies cultural studies development studies globalization studies ethnic studies gerontology studies social network analysis and social work The Studia Philonica Annual XXXI, 2019 David T. Runia, Gregory E. Sterling, 2019-11-20 Studies on Philo and Hellenistic Judaism from experts in the field The Studia Philonica Annual is a scholarly journal devoted to the study of Hellenistic Judaism particularly the writings and thought of the Hellenistic Jewish writer Philo of Alexandria This volume includes articles on allegory Platonic interpretations of the law rhetoric and Philo's thoughts on reincarnation Features Articles on aspects of Hellenistic Judaism written by scholars from around the world Comprehensive bibliography and book reviews Women Empowerment and the Feminist Agenda in Africa Musingafi, Maxwell Constantine Chando, Hungwe, Chipso, 2023-10-24 This book argues that African women's lived experiences are often spoken about authoritatively by people who are not included within this demographic relegating these women to the role of spectators in their own stories The dominant narratives of African womanhood legitimized by intellectual discourse are neither written by African women nor Africans in general This book seeks to place feminism in Africa into its historical context by revisiting the experiences practices vision and theories of feminism and gender in Africa It is intended to serve as a comprehensive introduction to the field and provide a starting point for further and more advanced study of the nexus of feminism gender and development in Africa Women Empowerment and the Feminist Agenda in Africa is designed to initiate post graduate research and studies in the social sciences for directed and critical inquiry into the nature of feminist and gender politics and power relations in Africa It is written for researchers academics and advanced tertiary studies although professional gender and feminist organizations especially those in Africa or focusing on Africa will also find a wealth of information The book is recommended for university libraries post graduate students and staff the non governmental community in Africa women movement organizations in Africa independent researchers and academics and the African community at large

(Re)Possessing Beauty: Politics, Poetics, Change Sallie McNamara,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 Ideas of beauty permeate our lives in ways of which we are often unaware yet they are indicators of identity transgression sartorial codes and otherness While contemporary society sees the dominance of Western hegemonic ideals of beauty when comparing these to ideals in different cultures at different historical periods attention is drawn to the instability of beauty The work in this volume considers the ways individuals question respond to articulate reflect challenge modify or accept beauty within their lives to show it can be powerful destructive and transformative They show that beauty is not always what it appears and can challenge common sense preconceptions as to what is beautiful The range of topics provide an important contribution to ongoing discussions and are testament to both the diversity and complexity of debate the concept engenders across different disciplines

Evolution Science and Ethics in the Third Millennium Robert Cliquet,Dragana Avramov,2018-01-10 The book aims to revitalise the interdisciplinary debate about evolutionary ethics and substantiate the idea that evolution science can provide a rational and robust framework for understanding morality It also traces pathways for knowledge based choices to be made about directions for future long term biological evolution and cultural development in view of adaptation to the expected probable and possible future and the ecological sustainability of our planetary environment The authors discuss ethical challenges associated with the major biosocial sources of human variation individual variation inter personal variation inter group variation and inter generational variation This book approaches the long term challenges of the human species in a holistic way Researchers will find an extensive discussion of the key theoretical scientific aspects of the relationship between evolution and morality Policy makers will find information that can help them better understand from where we are coming and inspire them to make choices and take actions in a longer term perspective The general public will find food for thoughts
