Effective Multi-Unit Leadership Chris Edger, 2016-04-29 There is a growing recognition of the increasing importance of local leadership practice within multi unit service contexts given the threat to costly land based retail infrastructures from smart technologies Multi site organizations are economically significant but currently under researched and poorly understood In Effective Multi Unit Leadership Chris Edger looks at that key managerial cohort in the retail hospitality and service sectors operating between the centre and unit the Multi Unit Leader MUL This district area or regional manager is tasked with maximising revenue and profit from a complex and ambiguous positional space being sandwiched between the centre and unit facing the MUL paradox how do they motivate unit managers and team members to provide great service whilst simultaneously fulfilling the Centre's compliance agenda Based on extensive case study research across a range of multi unit service organisations Edger advances an Integrated Model of MUL that elucidates how key activities sales led service systems and standards 3Ss are driven through behavioural practices commitment control and change 3Cs underpinned by MUL personal characteristics expertise emotional intelligence and energy 3Es Central to this model is the notion of portfolio optimisation through social exchange POSE where MULs apply local leadership leveraging their portfolios through the deft application of exchange based currencies Replete with case studies Effective Multi Unit Leadership will appeal to high potential unit managers existing multi unit leaders who want to improve their performance levels and retail service directors wishing to train and coach their direct reports as well as business educators and those with an academic interest in organisational studies

Enjoying the Tune of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within Hotel Standard Operating Procedures Manual

In a global taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate conversation, the melodic beauty and mental symphony created by the published term usually disappear into the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent sound and interruptions that permeate our lives.
