The Rwandan Genocide on Film

Matthew Edwards, 2018-07-11 The Rwandan genocide was one of the most shameful events of the 20th century. Many Westerners' understanding of it is based upon the Oscar-winning film Hotel Rwanda and the critically acclaimed Shooting Dogs. Yet how accurately do these films depict events in Rwanda in 1994? Drawing on new scholarship, this collection of essays explores a variety of feature films and documentaries about the genocide to understand its expression in both Western and Rwandan cinema. Interviews with filmmakers are featured, including journalist Steve Bradshaw, BBC's Panorama director Nick Hughes, 100 Days director Lee Isaac Chung, Munyurangabo and Rwandan filmmakers Eric Kabera and Kivu Ruhorahoza.

Teaching for Peace and Social Justice in Myanmar Mary Shepard Wong, 2022-06-02 Bringing together scholars and educators based in Myanmar, the USA, the UK, Denmark, and Thailand, this book presents new perspectives and research on the struggle for social justice and peace in Myanmar at this critical juncture. It shows how actors from diverse backgrounds and regions of Myanmar are drawing from their identities, evoking their agency, and using critical pedagogy to advance social justice and peace. The chapters provide the compelling life stories of the authors, specific examples of what they are doing, and insights of how their work might be applied to other contexts. The topics discussed include addressing structural violence, peace curriculum development, identity-based conflict teaching, the history of the country, promoting inclusion, civic education, critical pedagogy, teacher agency, and agendas of research funding for peacebuilding. The foreword and afterword, written by well-known scholars of Myanmar, address the relevance and importance of the book vis-à-vis the current social and political crisis following the February 2021 military coup.

Where Is God in a Messed-Up World? Roger Carswell, 2009 If God exists and really is a God of love, then why doesn't he stop the suffering and problems in our world? Roger Carswell is realistic enough to admit that there are things God reveals to us and things he doesn't reveal. He argues that the starting point is to find out who God is and figure out if he can be trusted, even if we don't have all the answers. God has not only been faithful to me; he has been overwhelmingly kind, incredibly merciful, consistently good, and unbelievably patient, says Roger. The author's own experience of suffering with depression and other real-life stories that are included make this a compassionate look at one of the toughest questions about the Christian faith. Moreover, our questioning need not be a barrier to entrusting ourselves to God.

The Art of Human Rights Romola Adeola, Michael Gyan Nyarko, Adebayo Okeowo, Frans Viljoen, 2020-03-24 This book highlights the use of art in human rights, specifically within Africa. It advances an innovative pattern of thinking that explores the intersection between art and human rights law. In recent years, art has become an important tool for engagement on several human rights issues. In view of its potency and yet potential to be a danger when misused, this book seeks to articulate the use of arts in the human rights discourse in its different forms. Chapters cover how music, photography, literature, photojournalism, soap opera, commemorations, sculpting, and theatre can be used as an expression of human rights. This book demonstrates how arts have become a formidable expression of thoughts and a means of articulating reality in a form that simplifies truth and congregates resolve to advance change.
