Humanae Vitae, 50 Years Later Theresa Notare, 2019-06-28 In the life of the Catholic Church the papal encyclical Humanae vitae represents a deepening of understanding regarding the nature of married love and the transmission of life Despite fifty years 1968 2018 since its promulgation many Catholics have yet to discover the treasure of these rich teachings This volume therefore seeks to elucidate the encyclical's reaffirmation of the divine plan It does this in a unique way by providing essays from experts of various disciplines that include history theology science medicine law and governmental policy The occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of Humanae vitae offers a teaching moment In this compendium experts representing a variety of disciplines including history culture theology medicine law and psychology present their reflections upon God's divine plan as described in Humanae vitae The authors first presented this work in an abbreviated form at a symposium held at The Catholic University of America April 4 6 2018 Here their presentations are substantively developed and hopefully will encourage further scholarly work Ultimately their purpose is to help the reader arrive at a more positive understanding of the teachings found in Humanae vitae Although designed for the educated reader the essays presume that when the teachings of Humanae vitae are embraced by men and women they can contribute to the healing of the wounds of a world broken by sin but redeemed by Christ

Religion and Crime: Theory, Research, and Practice Kent R. Kerley, 2018-11-15 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Religion and Crime Theory Research and Practice that was published in Religions The Frontiers of Public Law Jason NE Varuhas, Shona Wilson Stark, 2020-01-09 This major collection contains selected papers from the third Public Law Conference an international conference hosted by the University of Melbourne in July 2018 The collection includes contributions by leading academics and senior judges from across the common law world including Australia Canada New Zealand the United Kingdom and the United States The collection explores the frontiers of public law examining cutting edge issues at the intersection of public law and other fields The collection addresses four principal frontiers public law and international law public law and indigenous peoples public law and other domestic fields specifically criminal law and private law and public law and public administration In common with the two books from the previous Public Law Conferences this collection offers authoritative insights into the most important issues emerging in public law and is essential reading for those working in the field Development Naivety and Emergent Insecurities in a Monopolised World Munyaradzi Mawere, 2018-09-17 It is common knowledge that development without security is like a runaway horse Yet development in Africa has been plagued by insecurities since the extractive periods of slave trade and colonialism In spite of political independence and the euphoria of sovereignty as states Africa has failed to address insecurity which continues to loom large and to threaten aspirations towards truly inclusive and sustainable development A consequence has been Africas development naivety vis vis the monopolisation of development by the predatory elite actors of the global North and their local facilitators To salvage the continent from such predation and the insecurities engendered requires novel and innovative imagination and praxis This book draws from both the haunted landscapes and bitter memories of past exploitations and from the feeding of the insatiable North with African resources and humanity It brings together essays by a concerned generation of scholars driven by the urgent need for radical decolonisation of African development and its legacies of insecurities It is handy to students and practitioners in economics policy studies political science development studies global and African studies Good to Go: What the Athlete in All of Us Can Learn from the Strange Science of Recovery Christie Aschwanden, 2019-02-05 A New York Times Sports and Fitness Bestseller The definitive tour through a bewildering jungle of claims that compose a multibillion dollar recovery industry David Epstein best selling author of The Sports Gene Acclaimed science journalist Christie Aschwanden takes readers on an entertaining and enlightening tour through the latest science on sports and fitness recovery She investigates claims about sports drinks chocolate milk and recovery beer examines the latest recovery trends and even tests some for herself including cryotherapy foam rolling and Tom Brady endorsed infrared pajamas Good to Go seeks an answer to the question Do any of these things actually help the body recover and achieve peak performance Fifty Years of the Law Commissions Matthew Dyson, James Lee, Shona Wilson Stark, 2016-11-03 This book brings together past and present law commissioners judges practitioners academics and law reformers to analyse the past present and future of the Law Commissions in the United Kingdom and beyond Its internationally recognised authors bring a wealth of experience and

insight into how and why law reform does and should take place covering statutory and non statutory reform from national and international perspectives The chapters of the book developed from papers given at a conference to mark the fiftieth anniversary of the Law Commissions Act 1965 Academic Libraries and Collaborative Research Services Carrie Forbes, 2022-08-16 Higher education institutions in the United States and across the globe are realizing the importance of enabling internal and external collaborative work e g interdisciplinary research and community partnerships In recent years researchers have documented the benefits of organizational collaboration for research including greater efficiency effectiveness and enhanced research reputation In addition accreditors foundations business and government agencies have been espousing the value of collaboration for knowledge creation and research and improved organizational functioning As a result of both the external pressures and the known benefits many forms of internal and external research collaborations have begun to emerge in higher education At the heart of this change academic libraries who have long been models for collaborative work are increasingly participating in the research process by providing a widening range of research services beyond traditional reference services Innovative library services in areas such as bibliometric analysis research data management and data repositories are evolving in response to changes in education funding and policies These funding and policy changes have also coincided with technological developments to create opportunities for academic librarians to find new roles within their institutions and the research community There is a growing body of literature examining these changing academic library roles but few volumes have concentrated on how the nature of collaborative work in libraries is helping to reshape institutional research practices Academic Libraries and Collaborative Research Services fills that void by providing academic librarians and administrators with case studies and guidance on how academic libraries are establishing their place in this new collaborative research arena in the areas of emerging liaison roles research data services open access and scholarly publishing and professional development programming The book will also be useful to higher education administrators and institutional research officers looking for information on how to partner with libraries to increase the effectiveness of collaborative research The Oxford Handbook of Taboo Words and Language Keith Allan, 2019 This volume brings together experts from a wide range of disciplines to define and describe taboo words and language and to investigate the reasons and beliefs behind them It examines topics such as impoliteness swearing censorship taboo in deaf communities translation of tabooed words and the use of taboo in banter and comedy Knowledge and Practice in Business and Organisations Kevin Orr, Sandra Nutley, Shona Russell, Rod Bain, Bonnie Hacking, Clare Moran, 2016-03-22 Knowledge and Practice in Business and Organisations contributes to scholarly understanding of knowledge and practice mapping the conceptual terrain providing a critical review of debates in the field and setting out key theoretical perspectives Knowledge and practice are explored in a range of organisational and policy settings through six context specific discussions The collection helps shape the field identify areas for future research inquiry and suggest implications for practitioners The range of sites of inquiry represented in the book e.g craft working accounting public sector organisations creative industries health care and so on make the book distinctive enabling the reader to connect debates and ideas from across a range of sectors and disciplines The book charts different currents of debate which have hitherto tended to remain unconnected In one accessible volume this book provides an excellent introduction to a set of concepts that have animated scholarly conversations across a range of disciplines and provides cases and examples of practices which come from beyond any one particular sector Aimed at researchers and academics in the field this book is valuable source helping define and progress the scholarly debate

Media Analysis and Public Health Lesley Henderson, Shona Hilton, Judith Green, 2020-06-29 This volume showcases new approaches to studying public health in traditional and emerging media suggesting that we need more analyses that focus on the production of media and on power dynamics as well as studies of audience reception of media messages The collection asks a variety of questions about the role of media in analysing public health Contributors ask who is influential in producing the stories we see in the press and on social media Who benefits and who is damaged by media debates on health topics They investigate the role of big business in seeking to shape public opinion and consumption in print and online media how issues such as hand washing come to be framed over time by newspapers how conflicts over immunisations get covered how health promotion messages do their work and the positive role of online media in helping foster drug safety Together they reach the conclusion that since mass media is a crucial element of civic society more in depth understanding of how it works and what impacts it has on public health is essential Given the crucial role of the media in shaping health debates pushing certain issues up the policy agenda defining problems for audiences and presenting potential solutions this book's analysis will be of interest to all those studying how the media shape policy as well as public health researchers with an interest in mass communication This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Public Health

Wash and Pray: African Theological Discourse on COVID-19 Harvey Kwiyani, Joseph Ola, Isaiah Ola Abolarin, Benjamin Isola Akano, Justice A. Arthur, Victoria Oyenike Ayano, Paul Ayokunle, Kwaku Boamah, Akarama Dan Jr, Edmore Dube, Eric Manu, Françoise Niyonsaba, Godfred Nsiah, Moses

Iliya Ogidis, Gabriel Ademola Oyeniyi, Ruth M. Oyeniyi, In the wake of the global COVID 19 pandemic Africa faced a unique set of challenges that sparked a profound spiritual response among its people Wash and Pray African Theological Discourse on COVID 19 delves into the heart of this response exploring the intersections of faith culture history and the pandemic that gripped the world from 2019 to 2022 The book demonstrates that for many Africans the pandemic was not just a medical crisis but also a spiritual battle As such the book invites the reader to witness the historicising of the pandemic in Africa through this landmark resource for current and future generations ensuring that the narratives of African Christianity in the face of COVID 19 and other pandemics are not lost The chapter contributions offer diverse perspectives from Ghana Nigeria Rwanda Zimbabwe and the UK each contextualising the African Christian response to the pandemic In essence this monograph paints a rich tapestry of African theological discourse during a global crisis ultimately affirming that faith and science when harmonised can lead to a resilient and thriving community Thinking in the World Jill Bennett, Mary Zournazi, 2019-12-26 Engaging with contemporary issues responsibly and creatively can become a very abstract activity We can sometimes find ourselves talking in terms of theories and philosophies which bear very little resemblance to how life is actually lived and experienced In Thinking in the World Jill Bennett and Mary Zournazi curate writings and conversations with some of the most influential thinkers in the world and ask them not just why we should engage with the world but also how we might do this Rather than simply thinking about the world the authors examine the ways in which we think in and with the world Whether it s how to be environmentally responsible how to think in film or how to dance with a non human the need to engage meaningfully in a lived way is at the forefront of this collection Thinking in the World showcases some of the most compelling arguments for a philosophy in action Including wholly original never before released material from Michel Serres Alphonso Lingis and Mieke Bal the different chapters in this book constitute dialogues and approachable essays as well as impassioned arguments for a particular way of approaching thinking in the world Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2016-10-04 In Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska presents a unique insight into the contemporary arts scene in Zimbabwe an area that has received very limited coverage in research and the media The book combines theory with literature film politics and culture and takes a psychosocial and psychoanalytic perspective to achieve a truly interdisciplinary analysis Piotrowska focuses in particular on the Harare International Festival of the Arts HIFA as well as the cinema featuring the work of Rumbi Katedza and Joe Njagu Her personal experience of time spent in Harare working in collaborative relationships with Zimbabwean artists and filmmakers informs the book throughout It features examples of their creative work on the ground and examines the impact it has had on the community and the local media Piotrowska uses her experiences to analyse concepts of trauma and post colonialism in Zimbabwe and interrogates her position as a stranger there questioning patriarchal notions of belonging and authority Black and White also presents a different perspective on convergences in the work of Doris Lessing and iconic Zimbabwean writer Dambudzo Marechera and how it might be relevant to contemporary race relations Black and White will be intriguing reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychotherapeutically engaged scholars film makers academics and students of post colonial studies film studies cultural studies psychosocial studies and applied philosophy Defiant Bodies Nikoli A. Attai,2023-07-14 In the Anglophone Caribbean international queer human rights activists strategically located within and outside of the region have dominated interventions seeking to address issues affecting people across the region a trend that is premised on an idea that the Caribbean is extremely homophobic and transphobic resulting in violence and death for people who defy dominant sexual and gender boundaries Human rights activists continue to utilize international financial and political resources to influence these interventions and the region's engagement on issues of homophobia transphobia discrimination and the HIV AIDS epidemic This focus however elides the deeply complex nature of queerness across different spaces and places and fails to fully account for the nuances of queer sexual and gender politics and community making across the Caribbean Defiant Bodies Making Queer Community in the Anglophone Caribbean problematizes the neocolonial and homoimperial nature of queer human rights activism in in four Anglophone Caribbean nations Barbados Guyana Jamaica and Trinidad and Tobago and thinks critically about the limits of human rights as a tool for seeking queer liberation It also offers critical insight into the ways that queer people negotiate resist and disrupt homophobia transphobia and discrimination by mobilizing on the ground and creating transgressive communities within the region The Digital Departed Timothy Recuber,2023-09-12 A sociologist examines the ways we die online and the digital texts we leave behind including blogs of the terminally ill suicide notes post mortem messages and hashtags about police brutality The book argues that the Internet has reenchanting our notions of selfhood but in ways that blind us to the inequalities underpinning our digital lives People Are Animals Too Shona Kowtecky,2024-06-17 Discover a fresh perspective by stepping into another's paws Chase what you want Advocate for your needs Set boundaries and goals Learn to let go Take care of yourself This can be good advice but what if you don't know what you want Or need What boundaries are worth setting for you Or how to decide what to let go of and what to hold on to What if focusing on yourself seems uncomfortable selfish unnecessary or a bit too fluffy As a veterinarian Dr Shona Kowtecky has spent almost 20 years learning about paying attention to advocating for and taking care of thousands of animals while simultaneously watching thousands of people struggle to do the same for themselves Whether or not you are a pet parent or animal lover self awareness is a key starting point for optimal health and a good quality of life yet it's often overlooked oversimplified or too ambiguous to be practical People Are Animals Too provides a structured and creative approach to encourage self examination compassion and curiosity through insightful questions and humorous anecdotes centered around the question What if we cared for ourselves the way we care for the animals we love Or better yet what if we simply remembered that people are animals too Planet Canada John Stackhouse,2020-10-06 A leading thinker on Canada's place in the world contends that our country's greatest untapped resource may be the three million Canadians who don't live here Entrepreneurs educators humanitarians an entire province s worth of Canadian citizens live outside Canada Some will return others won t But what they all share is the ability and often the desire to export Canadian values to a world sorely in need of them And to act as ambassadors for Canada in industries and societies where diplomatic efforts find little traction Surely a country with people as diverse as Canada s ought to plug itself into every corner of the globe We don t and sometimes not even when our expats are eager to help Failing to put this desire to work contends bestselling author and longtime foreign correspondent John Stackhouse is a grave error for a small country whose voice is getting lost behind developing nations of rapidly increasing influence The soft power we once boasted is getting softer but we have an unparalleled resource if we choose to use it To ensure Canada s place in the world Stackhouse argues in Planet Canada we need this exceptional province of expats and their special claim on the twenty first century African Values, Ethics, and Technology Beatrice Dedaa Okyere-Manu, 2021-04-30 This book charts technological developments from an African ethical perspective It explores the idea that while certain technologies have benefited Africans the fact that these technologies were designed and produced in and for a different setting leads to conflicts with African ethical values Written in a simple and engaging style the authors apply an African ethical lens to themes such as The Fourth Industrial Revolution the moral status of technology technology and sexual relations and bioethics and technology
