Bryden, 2013-01-01 A Justifiable Obsession traces the evolution of Ontario's relationship with the federal government in the years following the Second World War Through extensive archival research in both national and provincial sources P E Bryden demonstrates that the province's successive Conservative governments played a crucial role in framing the national agenda although this central relationship has received little attention compared to those that have been more volatile As such Bryden's study sheds light on an important but largely ignored chapter in Canadian political history Bryden focuses on the politicians and strategists who guided the province through the negotiation of intergovernmental economic social and constitutional issues including tax policies the design of the new social welfare net and efforts to patriate the constitution Written in a lucid engaging style that captures the spirit of the politics of postwar Canada A Justifiable Obsession is a significant contribution to our understanding of Ontario's politics and political culture

A Purple Summer Steven Sater, 2023-12-21 In February 1999 Steven Sater conceived the radical notion of creating a rock musical from Frank Wedekind's notorious Symbolist drama Frhlings Erwachen and he enlisted his friend and writing partner Duncan Sheik in the enterprise That night Sater came home and began writing the first lyric of Spring Awakening Mama Who Bore Me a lyric which still stands verbatim just as he first wrote it Ten years later in the wake of the enormous international success of this groundbreaking multiaward winning show its original director Michael Mayer urged Sater to write notes explicating its famously evocative poetic lyrics In rich detail Sater's notes address the literary sources and allusions of each lyric He also writes feelingly of what prompted the songs over the course of the show's eight years of development In so doing Sater expands on his partnership with Sheik and his experiences with original cast members Lea
