Harvesting Memories Linda Lee Cermak Kocan, 2025-02-07 Harvesting Memories abounds with intimate and heartfelt recollections from a lone survivor of a family and by extension a way of life that has virtually disappeared from the American landscape The life she vividly portrays as a child growing up in rural Ohio as the youngest member of a farm family in the 1950s and 1960s one generation away from two sets of grandparents who immigrated from Czechoslovakia taught her invaluable life lessons among its triumphs and setbacks Coal mining and farming coexisted as unlikely bedfellows in that part of the country but the author s father who dropped out of school to work in the mines ultimately came to live a hardscrabble but fulfilling life as a farmer dedicated to his undying belief that the land will feed you Edward Cermak s realized dream of providing for his family by living off the land came with a death sentence of Black Lung Disease from his years of breathing in coal dust He and wife Anna were married at the onset of the Great Depression a most challenging time and it is fair to say that they shared a prodigious workload and occasional hardship over several decades of farming and never regretted their journey together The greater the difficulties the harder they worked and the more they learned to adapt As for daughter Linda the baby and unexpected addition to the family joining a much older sister and brother her two decades on the farm were so special that she as sole survivor had to put it all into the words that comprise this book as she embarked into her seventies There are many stories from the exultant to the tragic told in these pages Linda takes you back in time through her memories and ultimately sharing the many truths that came to serve her well as a wife mother and grandmother Perhaps most fascinating is a way of life so reliant on and respectful of family and neighbors captured in this memoir You might even find yourself as did the author in her youth enjoying the antics of a pet groundhog or dealing with the meanest gobbler ever to walk the face of the earth It is a compilation of stories and maxims that can only be shared by a dwindling number of those among us who have experienced this rapidly disappearing way of life All proceeds from the sale of this book will be donated equally to the Dillonvale High School Alumni Association and to the community of East Palestine Ohio who suffered the tragic train derailment in 2023 in memory of Linda s Dad and Mom Ed and Anna Cermak About the author Linda Lee Cermak Kocan the youngest of three children is the second daughter and only surviving child of the late Edward and Anna Cermak of

Dillonvale Ohio At 71 years of age Linda decided to take pencil to paper and record her experiences and lessons learned growing up on her small 150 acre family farm in Ohio s Jefferson County in the 1950s and 1960s Just jot down a few interesting stories in a notebook to tell her children and grandchildren about their rootsand pass on some important life values she had learned during those years A vociferous reader Linda is not a formally trained writer but this memoir reveals a natural talent for writing about what is most important in life via an approach that is inviting gentle and authentically warm and loving She asks that you place your hand in hers as she takes you on a virtual journey back in time to her farm and a childhood replete with memories told in an unpretentious style that can be humorous charming and at times assertive and life affirming She promises that Harvesting Memories will inspire and inform you in ways you might find surprising Linda currently lives in the verdant countryside outside of Towanda Pennsylvania with Mark her husband of 52 plus years They live on a 22 acre piece of land which they share with deer various wild critters and their 17 year old cat Sydney

Memories of a Brooklyn Boy Sol Schwartz,2018-03-09 This is the story of Sol Schwartz the youngest of three children born to Sam and Rose Schwartz Romanian immigrants who migrated to America in the early part of the twentieth century Sol born in 1925 relates about his stressful life growing up in Brooklyn as part of a somewhat fractured family He relates his struggles with education jobs and business ventures and his battles with cancer throughout most of his life that was constantly attacking members of his extended family as well as himself Being widowed twice forced Sol to cope with the problems of raising three children in a home environment with different mother images Sols business responsibilities necessitated his being away from home frequently on foreign trips complicating matters that at times were so stressful he considered suicide Then a third relationship found its way into his life and gave him cause to want to go on living

The Child Catcher Andrew Bridge,2024-09-24 The Child Catcher is the true story of the fight to rescue the children confined to a violent and secretive institution in the rural South Andrew Bridge s bestselling memoir Hope s Boy told the story of his survival after he was taken from his mother who struggled with schizophrenia and was left to foster care Bridge was first confined at one of our country s most notorious children s institutions MacLaren Hall Now in The Child Catcher he chronicles his role in the longest running most bitterly fought mental health lawsuit in American history After graduating from Harvard Law School Bridge joined the small team of civil rights lawyers representing the children of the Eufaula Adolescent Center a violent and secretive institution in the rural South against the State of Alabama Eufaula was a place Alabama had refused to surrender Parents were lured into sending their children there unable to get them back Thousands of children went through Eufaula just as thousands went through the institution that Bridge survived as a boy The fight for justice led him through squatters camps in backwoods and into the lives of families caught in a permanent underclass He sat with children as they struggled to explain what had gone wrong in their lives In this David and Goliath battle The Child Catcher is the story of Bridge s personal redemption and the hope that justice for children is possible

The Mayor's Daughter T. C. Christman, 2011 A Mayors Daughter shines a spotlight on history of ordinary people from the greatest generation The memories of Therese Christman generates a dynamic story which is birthed in the great depression and then accelerates to the greatest overflow of prosperity the world has ever known A daughters memories a father of fame and a renowned internationally known priest combine to bring a trilogy of a true story of a Michigan city of a culture and of a society that was fashioned by grace to greatness through hard work resilience of spirit sacrifice of self and above all a vision with leadership Up from a small Midwestern community came these two men who by divine intervention found themselves in the broader stretch of community fame social prominence and a cultural revolution This story becomes compelling because it captures the amazing transformation of a community by one man s leadership And the ultimate salvation of a society by another man s influence through eloquent radio broadcasting This translates to special people with greatness of vision motivated by love and that inner call that brings a profound change to the societies in which great men and women live Henceforth the book the Mayors Daughter Finally this book through the memories of a daughter rehearses history in the City of Royal Oak Michigan that now includes one of the top medical centers in the world and all because of one man s vision and leadership Moreover the freedom of the American culture in part is derived from a Catholic priest who dared to speak out against the evils of communism and the social depression that it causes The memories of a daughter form a trilogy to reveal history in some of its greatest triumphs This book is a must read Ending Abuse Sharon

Speaks, 2016-05-16 Letter to the World Sharon Speaks told family friends and church community the childhood sexual abuse of a Catholic priest and her brothers Now she is telling the world She journaled the healing betrayal loss the empowerment the devastation and the finding of her voice as it was safe This partial autobiography is a gift of tools and ideas for supporting a survivor Writing comes and then poems and songs as she moves from wanting someone to understand to understanding We gain a different perspective of why violence abuse or assault happens and whether criminal and civil court proceedings help or hinder Remembering the abuse as an adult and having it confirmed by offenders isnt often out there for public discussion Sharon sees the book assisting families communities government law makers as well as historians It has a ten year 1992-2002 perspective of societys ways of dealing with sexual abuse Whether it be educational curriculum for advisors in law gender studies medicine counseling social sciences church and church leaders family relationships justice offenders rehabilitation

domestic violence cultural studies residential school survivors current affairs media reporters in sports and recreation schools and universities seniors or teenagers this is relevant Society no longer sweeps abuse under the rug when its daily front page news The book relates to those on a spiritual journey as well as adult survivors of child sexual abuse It speaks to those seeking self help or inspiration to support a family members healing Its here for parents of someone raped or assaulted or for anyone who has ever felt alone a loss or betrayal it is for anyone who felt different expendable who wants to be understood who feels battered and bruised used and abused Sharon sees this as a letter to the world assisting us communities and church leaders to create new ways of being there for children This is a book where healing happens joy replaces despair and there is hope for our world a reason to go on The Day Isn't Over William Bisbing, 2021-08-03 This is the story of a man and a woman who have made their respective plans to enter into their golden years after going through all of life's challenges raising their families wanting only to enjoy their retirement years with each other filling those remaining years of their lives with travel adventure and grandchildren along with making memories only to discover their plans lost upon losing both loves of their lives A surprise event in their lives opens the door to their wildest dreams thus providing the book's title The Day Isn't Over However finding each other living happily ever after proves to be harder the second time around and has become more difficult than the first but they remain steadfast in their love for each other regardless of the newfound obstacles in their way making the love they had discovered for each other's golden years shine brighter

Logan, 2011-04 Are love and faith enough After meeting at a young age Shane and Amanda fall deeply in love Their lives seem perfect as they progress through high school and Shane is grateful to God for the enormous blessings he s been given But high school doesn t last forever and Shane realizes the rest of his life will never be the same He has to make difficult decisions ones that pull him away from the friends he loves dearly his precious parents and Amanda But he and Amanda are certain that they re supposed to use the athletic talents they ve always possessed for God s glory so they decide to wait on forever until they have achieved their goals Shane is sure everything will work out It s God s plan isn t it Will the flame of love that blazes within these Burning Hearts be extinguished in pursuing the abilities that God has blessed them with or will their sense of duty to God be subordinate to their love Letters from

Alaska Richard Bartoo,Norma Bartoo,2013-08-08 Letters from Alaska Someone has commented that the Bartoo family is made of people who are highly literate adventurous and in love with the outdoors and animals From the articles in this collection I think any reader will agree with that In their 30 to 40 years of living in Alaska my mom and dad wrote many things to describe what their life was like Some were letters written to family and friends some were trapping logs some were just personal accounts of activities on hunting trips and other travels often written strictly for their own enjoyment My mother and dad were over 50 when they moved to Alaska and started a new life there From my mothers letters over the years she tells all about their life in Alaska in the 20th century She makes the stories of their experiences come alive hunting for moose goats or caribou then fishing for salmon and halibut and how they lost the Salmon Derby and their fur trapping of mink martin etc The perennial question folks ask Whats it like to live in Alaska Mom answers from her viewpoint both in showing details of daily routines of growing flowers while weeding and feeding mosquitoes as well as how to prepare for spending weeks or months at a time in the bush on their annual trapping trip The Peace I Know Udochukwu Vincent

Ogbuji,2013-02 There is an ancient proverb that instructs Physician heal thyself It helps to keep this saying in mind as we seek to bring peace to others That is because our collective peace of mind makes for a beautiful life family and society and no one gives what he or she has not As a priest my endeavor to bring inner healing and peace to many comes with challenges among which includes maintaining my own personal tranquility Urged by my friends and wish to make a difference I decided to write this book after my car accident and resulting paralysis I hope that reading this book will inspire you to continue searching for peace and what makes life worth living Son of Sister Maria Michael Parlee,2011-07-11 As an older foster child Andrew longed for the day when hed be adopted by a real family because they loved him and wanted him to be part of their family unit Until that day dawned like many other foster kids he lived with the stigma that he was kept by his foster parents to generate income for them Of late bad had gone to worse for 13 year old Andrew He was being sexually abused by Blanche his new single foster mom Blanche had been abandoned by her husband and despised men Although she used Andrew for her own depraved needs she treated him poorly To add to his pain news of this sexual relationship leaked out to his peers at school and he was now enduring verbal torment at recesses and noon hour Andrew couldnt bear the pain any longer when the only friend who'd stuck up for him at school turned against him. He felt totally alone so unloved. Dear God, I have nothing left to live for. He sobbed one night when his foster mom left for a party. Please forgive me for what I have to do but I'm hurting so much. Andrew headed to his foster mother's shed to get the rope. With the rope coiled up under his coat, he headed to the big black poplar tree in the Kinsman Park. Twelve feet off the ground was a large branch at right angles to the trunk. Andrew quickly fashioned a hangman's noose and shinnied up the tree. Bracing himself with his legs, he slipped the noose over his head and tied the other end of the rope to the branch. Grasping the branch, he let himself down. As he hung there by his fingertips, his short life passed before him.

Called Out But Safe Al Clark, Dan Schlossberg, 2014-05-01. If an umpire could steal the show in a Major League game, Al Clark might well have been the one to do it. Tough but fair in his thirty years as a professional umpire, he took on some of baseball's great umpire baiters such as Earl Weaver, Billy Martin, and Dick Williams while ejecting any number of the game's elite once tearing a hamstring in the process. He was the first Jewish umpire in American League history and probably the first to eject his own father from the officials' dressing room. But whatever Clark was doing officiating at Nolan Ryan's three hundredth win, Cal Ripken's record breaker, or the earthquake World Series of 1989 or braving a labor dispute, an anti-Semitic tirade by a Cy Young Award winner, or a legal imbroglio, it makes for a good story. Called Out but Safe is Clark's outspoken and often hilarious account of his life in baseball from umpire school through the highlights to the inglorious end of his stellar career. Not just a source of baseball history and lore, Clark's book also affords a rare look at what life is like for someone who works for the Major League's other team.

My Mother's Kitchen Peter Gethers, 2017-04-04. My Mother's Kitchen is a funny, moving memoir about a son's discovery that his mother has a genius for understanding the intimate connections between cooking, people, and love. Peter Gethers wants to give his aging mother a very personal and perhaps final gift: a spectacular feast featuring all her favorite dishes. The problem is, although he was raised to love food and wine, he doesn't really know how to cook. So he embarks upon an often hilarious and always touching culinary journey that will ultimately allow him to bring his mother's friends and loved ones to the table one last time. The daughter of a restaurateur, the restaurant was New York's legendary Ratner's. Judy Gethers discovered a passion for cooking in her 50s. In time, she became a mentor and friend to several of the most famous chefs in America, including Wolfgang Puck, Nancy Silverton, and Jonathan Waxman. She also wrote many cookbooks and taught cooking alongside Julia Child. In her 80s, she was robbed of her ability to cook by a debilitating stroke. But illness has brought her closer than ever to her son. Peter regularly visits her so they can share meals and he can ask questions about her colorful past while learning her kitchen secrets. Gradually, his ambition becomes manifest: he decides to learn how to cook his mother the meal of her dreams and thereby tell the story of her life to all those who have loved her. With his trademark wit and knowing eye, Peter Gethers has written an unforgettable memoir about how food and family can do much more than feed us; they can nourish our souls.

No Longer on Pedestals Carol A. Kuhnert, 2015-01-08. Carol Kuhnert always trusted priests completely.

As a child growing up in a strict Catholic family clergy stood on pedestals next to God in her eyes When her brother Norman expressed a desire to become a priest and entered the seminary after eighth grade Carol had no idea that one day her daughter would reveal a shocking secret Norman was a serial pedophile Stunned and angered by what she learned Carol not only reveals how she confronted her brother and the Catholic Church but also reflects on the events that led up to that moment providing a poignant glimpse into her faith her belief that priests were infallible and her trust in the church its leaders and their assurance to her that they were handling everything But as time passed and Carol struggled to understand why molesters were being left in active ministry and victims were being ignored she details how she embarked on a purposeful crusade to prompt the church to take action and bring justice and hope to its sexual abuse victims No Longer on Pedestals shares the powerful and inspirational true story of one woman s journey to the truth and her subsequent heartfelt mission to reach out to abuse survivors after she learns her brother is a pedophile priest And Then There Was Light Christine Taylor,2017-02-20 Author Christine Taylor was a young girl who grew up in what she initially thought was an ideal family in the suburbs of Philadelphia Upon relocating to the city her idealistic world began to crumble with the development of and the need for special reading classes She overcame that disability only to emerge from a dysfunctional family Life got more traumatic after being physically abused by her father and emotionally and mentally mistreated by her loving family Added to the mix was the sexual abuse she endured and the need to be a perfectionist As life unraveled Taylor developed unrelenting mental illness Although she received many psychoactive medications ECT treatments and years of counseling God blessed her with a spiritual healing at the age of sixty three Since then she has been in the light and is now working on her masters degree in counseling and therapy to give back to those who are dealing with mental illness In And Then There Was Light Taylor shares her lifelong journey through mental illness beginning with a happy childhood that grew dark She narrates how she found healing through unconventional methods The Awakening of a Surgeon David H Janda,2012-06-01 Sports related injuries have become a public health epidemic Twelve million student athletes will suffer a sports related injury this year Nearly two million injuries will be in recreational softball games and baseball games The majority of these injuries are preventable The Awakening of a Surgeon outlines 20 strategies that can be implemented in every community to drastically reduce the possibility of injury and death
