the past three decades have been marked by the diminution of the state in the face of neoliberalism. They argue instead that we are witnessing a new phase of state formation which revolves around hybrid rule that is a more expansive form of state formation that works through privatization and seeks pacification and depoliticization as instrumental to enhancing state power. Contributors argue that the process of hybridization and hybrid rule point towards a convergence on a more authoritarian capitalist regime type possibly but not necessarily more closely aligned with the Beijing model one toward which even the United States with its penchant for surveillance and discipline appears to be moving. This volume will shed new light on evolving public private relations and the changing nature of power and political authority in the 21st century and will be of interest to students and scholars of IPE international relations and political theory. Uncommon Grounds

Anthony Downey, 2014-09-30 In this groundbreaking book a range of internationally renowned and emerging academics writers artists curators activists and filmmakers critically reflect on the ways in which visual culture has appropriated and developed new media across North Africa and the Middle East. Examining the opportunities presented by the real time generation of new relatively unregulated content online Uncommon Grounds evaluates the prominent role that new media has come to play in artistic practices and social movements in the Arab world today. Analysing alternative forms of creating broadcasting publishing distributing and consuming digital images this book also enquires into a broader global concern: does new media offer a democratisation of and a productive engagement with visual culture or merely capitalise upon the effect of immediacy at the expense of depth. Featuring full colour artists' inserts this is the first book to extensively explore the degree to which the grassroots popularity of Twitter and Facebook has been co-opted into mainstream media institutional and curatorial characterisations of revolution and whether artists should be wary of perpetuating the rhetoric and spectacle surrounding political events. In the process Uncommon Grounds reveals how contemporary art practices actively negotiate present day notions of community based activism artistic agency and political engagement. International Arbitration:

When East Meets West Neil Kaplan, Michael Pryles, Chiann Bao, 2020-10-09 As Asia China in particular gains economic momentum and increasingly attracts global attention disputes between Asian and Western parties will inevitably increase. This book the first to address issues arising from these types of disputes in depth collects incisive articles by both well known Asian arbitrators and non Asian practitioners with extensive experience dealing with arbitrations involving Asian parties all under the aegis of Michael Moser a Western trained lawyer who had the foresight to build a China focused dispute resolution practice at a time when it was not fashionable to do so. The articles reflect Moser's exemplary career as an independent arbitrator who has navigated between Asian and Western legal cultures seamlessly for decades. The upshot is an authoritative investigation of the differences and similarities of international arbitration between two contrasting cultures both from a legal and social perspective as well as a consideration of how each culture has influenced international arbitration practice overall. Issues covered include the following: interim measures in support of arbitration the hybrid arbitration mediation mode of dispute resolution what China's investment treaties have to offer Moser's Triple A approach to mediation witness conferencing influence of of rang or exercise of altruism Chinese courts approach to international arbitration evolution of investment protection between China and Europe disclosure versus state secrecy laws in China and the standard for disclosure in rules of evidence Given the increasing prevalence of arbitrations seated in Asia and the number of new players engaged in arbitration in Asia this book is certain to attract a wide range of arbitration practitioners especially those engaged in arbitrations involving Asian parties As a comparative study of Asian and Western arbitration theory and practice it is peerless Scholars of arbitration worldwide are sure to learn from the insights detailed here of practitioners with consummate experience in arbitrations involving cross cultural parties This is an excellent and wide ranging publication that rightly pays tribute to Michael's career as a multi faceted doyen of international arbitration he has had his base in Asia but at all times he has held a global and even minded view Many of us and the overall institution of international arbitration owe so very much to him Matthew Gearing QC former Chair of HKIAC This wide ranging and insightful volume pays tribute to the distinguished career of Michael Moser a true Renaissance figure who has traversed both East and West and helped so many others bridge the two Gary Born WilmerHale

White-Collar Crime Michael L. Benson, Sally S. Simpson, 2017-12-22 White Collar Crime An Opportunity Perspective analyzes white collar crime within a coherent theoretical framework Using the opportunity perspective which assumes that all crimes depend on offenders recognizing an opportunity to commit an offense the authors uncover the processes and situational conditions that facilitate white collar crimes In addition they offer potential solutions to this persistent and widespread social problem without being reductive in their treatment of the difficulties of control With this third edition Benson and Simpson have added substantive online teaching materials and expanded their coverage with up to date case studies and discussions of recent investigations into white collar crime and control These timely updates reaffirm this accessible and rigorous book as a core resource for courses on white collar crime
