June History Paper Alevel 2014zimsec:

Teaching African History in Schools, 2020-11-04 Emerging from the pioneering work of the African Association for History Education AHE Afrika Teaching African History in Schools offers an original Africa centred contribution to international history education research Edited by AHE Afrika s founders and directors the volume thus addresses a notable gap in this field by showcasing otherwise marginalised scholarship from and about Africa Teaching African History in Schools constitutes a unique collection of nine empirical studies interrogating curriculum and textbook contents and teachers and learners voices and experiences as they relate to teaching and learning African history across the continent and beyond Case studies include South Africa Kenya Rwanda Zimbabwe Malawi Cameroon and Tanzania as well as the UK and Canada Contributors are Denise Bantoro Carol Bertram Jean Leonard Buhigiro Annie Fatsereni Chiponda Raymond Nkwenti Fru Marshall Tamuka Maposa Abdul Mohamud Sabrina Moisan Reville Nussey Nancy Rushohora Johan Wassermann and Robin Whitburn New Millennium Woes and Livelihood Struggles in Africa Peter Thomas, Ngonidzashe Marongwe, 2021-05-19 One of the oldest survival pursuits undertaken by the weak and the downtrodden people across the world has been begging Going back to the ancient Christian biblical times up to the present epoch as well as across varying spatial settings in situations of trouble and tribulations parts of various communities have resorted to beggary to either overcome immediate adversities or longer term calamities Drawing on insights from two polar theoretical lenses of Social Constructionism and Social Deconstructionism and guided by a pithy study of the begging across the African continent especially by Zimbabweans this book troubles the various contours related to the subject of begging Inter alia the book considers the concept of begging the causes of the prevalence of begging across the world and particularly among Zimbabweans the challenges and benefits associated with the pursuit of alms the impact of begging in foreign lands as well as some of the strategies that beggars employ to maximize their collections and or profits What can be discerned from the book is that for many begging is one of the last resort undertakings with low pickings However from a utilitarian perspective begging has helped to sustain the impoverished livelihoods of Zimbabweans both inside and outside the borders of the country since the advent of a debilitating crisis experienced from the turn of the new millennium On the whole this book seeks to provoke further researches on an important socio economic area that affects many African communities but has so far been scantily researched The book is handy for students and practitioners in economic history African studies economics risk and disaster management social anthropology political science and development studies Paramilitary Groups and the State under Globalization Jasmin Hristov, Jeb Sprague, Aaron Tauss, 2021-12-30 This book examines the phenomenon of paramilitarism across Latin America and the Caribbean Eastern Europe Africa and Asia offering a nuanced perspective while identifying key patterns in the way paramilitary violence is implicated in processes of capital accumulation state building and the reproduction of social power Paramilitary violence a key modality of coercion in the era of globalization has been pursued by states and dominant classes in the Global South to reproduce or extend their power over subaltern groups Paramilitary groups are responsible for atrocities including extrajudicial executions disappearances torture rape and forced displacement The book integrates empirically rich investigations into an emergent theory of political violence capturing the relationship between parastatal armed actors capital and the state The analysis sheds light on globally relevant phenomena such as the end of the Cold War the shifting role of US hegemony and evolving nature of the nation state The book is suitable for academics graduate and upper year undergraduate students and policy makers in development human rights and violence prevention Given its interdisciplinary subject it appeals to scholars from a wide range of disciplines including political science sociology political anthropology development peace and conflict security and terrorism international relations and global studies

Integral Green Zimbabwe Elizabeth Mamukwa, Ronnie Lessem, Alexander Schieffer, 2016-05-23 Integral Green Zimbabwe An African Phoenix Rising by Ronnie Lessem Alexander Schieffer and Liz Mamukwa is the first book in the Integral Green Society and Economy series a series which has three overarching aims The first aim is to link together two major movements of our time one philosophical the other practical The philosophical movement is towards what many today are calling an integral age while the practical is the green movement duly aligned with that of sustainable development The second is to blend together elements of nature and community culture and spirituality science and technology politics and economics thus serving to bring about an integral green vision albeit with a focus on business and economics As such the authors transcend the limitations to sustainable development and environmental economics which are overly ecological if not also technological in orientation and exclude social and cultural elements Thirdly this particular volume focuses specifically on Zimbabwe as well as Southern Africa drawing on the particular issues and capacities that this country and region represents The emphasis on Zimbabwe and Southern Africa transpired not only because two of the editors Lessem and Mamukwa are Zimbabwean in origin but because Zimbabwe is today like a phoenix rising from the ashes and has the opportunity to recreate itself anew

The Rhodesian Air Force in Zimbabwe's War of Liberation, 1966-1980 Darlington Mutanda, 2016-11-10 This book evaluates the development of the Rhodesian Air Force during the Second Chimurenga or Bush War 1966-1980 Airpower in irregular conflict is effective at the tactical level because guerrilla warfare is not a purely military conflict The Rhodesian Air Force was deployed in a war winning versus a supporting role as a result of the shortage of manpower to deal with insurgency and almost all units of the Rhodesian Security Forces depended on its tactical effectiveness Technical challenges faced by the Air Force combined with the rate of guerrilla infiltration and the misuse of airpower to bomb guerrilla bases in neighboring countries largely negated the success of airpower

The Bible and Violence in Africa Johannes Hunter, Joachim Kügler, 2016-06-07

Go Back to Where You Came From Sasha Polakow-Suransky, 2017-10-16 From Europe

to the United States and beyond opportunistic politicians have exploited economic crisis terrorist attacks and an influx of refugees to bring hateful and reactionary views from the margins of political discourse into the corridors of power This climate has already helped propel Donald Trump to the White House pushed Britain out of the European Union and put Marine Le Pen within striking distance of the French presidency Sasha Polakow Suransky's on the ground reportage and interviews with the rising stars of the new right tell the story of how we got here tracing the global rise of anti immigration politics and the ruthlessly effective rebranding of Europe's new far right as defenders of Western liberal values Go Back to Where You Came From is an indispensable account of why xenophobia went mainstream in countries known historically as defenders of human rights and models of tolerance

Religion and Development in Africa Ezra Chitando, Masiwa Ragies Gunda, Lovemore Togarasei, 2020-06-09 What is development Who defines that one community country is developed while another community country is under developed What is the relationship between religion and development Does religion contribute to development or underdevelopment in Africa These and related questions elicit quite charged reactions in African studies development studies political science and related fields Africa's own history including the memory of marginalisation slavery and exploitation by global powers ensures that virtually every discussion on development is characterised by a lot of emotions and conflicting views In this volume scholars from various African countries and many different religions and denominations contribute to this debate

Infrastructures for Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Mediel Hove, Geoff Harris, 2019-06-14 Cultures of violence are characteristic of many countries in sub Saharan Africa and attempts to move towards cultures of peace have often proved difficult and ineffectual And yet the wide variations in levels of violence within and between countries show that it is not inevitable rather it is the result of choices made at individual community and societal levels This book examines the potential of peace infrastructures as vehicles to strengthen and spread progress towards cultures of peace Peace infrastructures vary hugely in sophistication and level The examples examined in this book range from tiny structures which help resolve conflicts between individuals and within community organisations peace committees which serve local communities peace education and peace club programmes in schools mediation mechanisms to prevent election violence and to ministries of peace to coordinate government and non government efforts in peacemaking and peacebuilding The overall finding is that the development of peace infrastructures at all levels has great potential to build cultures of peace 1 It is the only book available which documents the experience and potential of nonviolence in post independence sub Saharan Africa 2 It makes a persuasive case for the development of various peace infrastructures in order to make peace sustainable 3 It explains how strategic planning can be utilised both to bring about change and to institutionalise it

When Political Transitions Work Fanie du Toit, 2018-07-27 The peaceful end of apartheid in South Africa was a monumental event in late twentieth century history A racist regime built upon a foundation of colonialist exploitation South Africa had become by that point a tinderbox suffused with day to day violence and political extremism on all sides Yet two decades later it was a stable democracy with a growing economy How did such a deeply divided conflicted society manage this remarkable transition In When Political Transitions Work Fanie du Toit who has been a participant and close observer in post conflict developments throughout Africa for decades offers a new theory for why South Africa's reconciliation worked and why its lessons remain relevant for other nations emerging from civil conflicts He uses reconciliation as a framework for political transition and seeks to answer three key questions how do the reconciliation processes begin how can political transitions result in inclusive and fair institutional change and to what extent does reconciliation change the way a society functions Looking at South Africa one of reconciliation's most celebrated cases du Toit shows that the key ingredient to successful reconciliations is acknowledging the centrality of relationships He further develops his own theoretical approach to reconciliation as interdependence the idea that reconciliation is the result of an integrated process of courageous leadership fair and inclusive institutions and social change built toward a mutual goal of prosperity As du Toit conveys the motivation for reconciliation is the long term well being of one's own community as well as that of enemy groups Without ensuring the conditions in which one's enemy can flourish one's own community is unlikely to prosper sustainably

Access to Power Ijlal Naqvi, 2022-09-16 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International license It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Pakistan would desperately like to produce enough electricity but it usually doesn't Despite prioritization by successive governments targeted reforms shaped by international development actors and featuring prominently in Chinese Belt and Road investments the Pakistani power sector continues to stifle economic and social life across the country Why In Access to Power Ijlal Naqvi explores state capacity in Pakistan by following the material infrastructure of electricity across the provinces and down into cities and homes Naqvi argues that the national level challenges of crippling budgetary constraints and power shortages directly result from conscious strategic decisions that are integral to Pakistan's infrastructural state As he shows electricity governance in Pakistan reinforces unequal relations of power between provinces and the federal center contributes to the marginalization of subordinate groups in the city and cements the patronage based relationships between Pakistani citizens and the state that have been so detrimental to development progress Looking through the lens of the electrical power sector Access to Power reveals how Pakistan actually works and to whose benefit

Design Materials and Making for Social Change Rebecca Earley, Rosie Hornbuckle, 2023-06-01 Design Materials and Making for Social Change spans the two interconnected worlds of the material and the social at different scales and in different contexts and explores the value of the knowledge skills and methods that emerge when design researchers work directly with materials and hold making central to their practice Through the social entanglements of addressing material impacts the contributors to this edited volume examine homelessness diaspora migration the erosion of craft skills and communities dignity in work and family life the impacts of colonialism climate crisis education mental health and the shifting complexities in collaborating with and across diverse disciplines and stakeholders This book celebrates the role of materials and making in design research by demonstrating the diverse and complex interplay between disciplines and the cultures it enables when in search of alternative futures Design Materials and Making for Social Change will be of interest to scholars in materials design textile design product design fashion design maker culture systemic design social design design for sustainability and circular design

People Forced to Flee United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees,2022-02-16 People in danger have received protection in communities beyond their own from the earliest times of recorded history The causes war conflict violence persecution natural disasters and climate change are as familiar to readers of the news as to students of the past It is 70 years since nations in the wake of World War II drew up the landmark 1951 Convention relating to the Status of Refugees People Forced to Flee marks this milestone It is the latest in a long line of publications stretching back to 1993 that were previously entitled The State of the World s Refugees The book traces the historic path that led to the 1951 Convention showing how history was made by taking the centuries old ideals of safety and solutions for refugees to global practice It maps its progress during which international protection has reached a much broader group of people than initially envisaged It examines international responses to forced displacement within borders as well as beyond them and the protection principles that apply to both It reviews where they have been used with consistency and success and where they have not At times the strength and resolve of the international community seems strong yet solutions and meaningful solidarity are often elusive Taking stock today at this important anniversary is all the more crucial as the world faces increasing forced displacement Most is experienced in low and middle income countries and persists for generations People forced to flee face barriers to improving their lives contributing to the communities in which they live and realizing solutions Everywhere an effective response depends on the commitment to international cooperation set down in the 1951 Convention a vision often compromised by efforts to minimize responsibilities There is growing recognition that doing better is a global imperative Humanitarian and development action has the potential to be transformational especially when grounded in the local context People Forced to Flee examines how and where increased development investments in education health and economic inclusion are helping to improve socioeconomic opportunities both for forcibly displaced persons and their hosts In 2018 the international community reached a Global Compact on Refugees for more equitable and sustainable responses It is receiving deeper support People Forced to Flee looks at whether that is enough for what could and should help define the next 70 years

Reconceptualising education support services in South Africa Johnnie Hay, Macalane J. Malindi, Thabo Makhahlele, 2022-02-10 Inclusive education has been phased into South Africa since 2001 but relies heavily upon adequate support services to support learners and teachers experiencing barriers to learning and development This book focuses on the different levels of support provided in South African education from School based Support Teams to District based Support Teams through to special and full service schools and how these could be reconceptualised to provide improved support to learners and teachers Current research indicates that inclusive education is being implemented in varied and fragmented forms across the country and the point of departure of this work is that education support services need to be improved and reconceptualised to ensure better support for inclusive education
