Kuznick, 2019-09-10 The debate over scientists' social responsibility is a topic of great controversy today Peter J. Kuznick here traces the origin of that debate to the 1930s and places it in a context that forces a reevaluation of the relationship between science and politics in twentieth century America Kuznick reveals how an influential segment of the American scientific community during the Depression era underwent a profound transformation in its social values and political beliefs replacing a once pervasive conservatism and antipathy to political involvement with a new ethic of social reform The Life of Florence Nightingale Sir Edward Tyas Cook, 1914

McAndrews, 2014-05-15 Roman Catholics constitute the most populous religious denomination in the United States comprising one in four Americans With the election of John F Kennedy as president in 1960 they attained a political prominence to match their rapidly ascending socioeconomic and cultural profile From Vietnam to Iraq the civil rights movement to federal funding for faith based initiatives and from birth control to abortion Catholics have won at least as often as they have lost What They Wished For by Lawrence J McAndrews traces the role of American Catholics in presidential policies and politics from 1960 until 2004 Though divided by race class gender and party Catholics have influenced issues of war and peace social justice and life and death among modern presidents in a profound way starting with the election of President Kennedy and expanding their influence through the intervening years with subsequent presidents McAndrews shows that American Catholics led by their bishops and in some cases their pope have been remarkably successful in shaping the political dialogue and at helping to effect policy outcomes inside and outside of Washington Indeed although they opened this era by helping to elect one of their own Catholic voters have gained so much influence and have become so secure in their socioeconomic status and so confident in their political standing that they closed the era by rejecting one of their own voting for George W Bush over John Kerry in 2004 The Bookseller, 1913 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1993-04 The Sale Catalogues of British Government Publications, 1836-1921 Great Britain. Subcommittee on Separation of Powers,1982 Prologue ,1992 Beyond Cutting Edge? Paul C. Heidebrecht,2014-03-10 A quick scan of any newsstand is enough to confirm the widespread preoccupation with technological change As a myriad of articles and advertisements demonstrate not only are we preoccupied with technology but we are bombarded with numerous reminders that the cutting edge is in constant motion Most often the underlying assumption of Christians is that we have no choice but to find ways to cope with the latest and greatest Indeed it is often assumed that the church has no choice but to find ways to cope with its new technological context This book does not make the same assumptions Building on the work of Mennonite theologian John Howard Yoder it argues that the practices of the church make it possible for Christians to conscientiously engage technology This happens when we recognize that marks of the church such as patience vulnerability and servanthood can put technological ideals such as speed control and efficiency in their proper place In the course of grappling with three examples of morally formative technologies automobiles genetically modified food and the Internet this book goes beyond Yoder s thought by emphasizing that the church also plays a crucial role in our moral formation Land of Tears Robert Harms,2019-12-03 A prizewinning historian s epic account of the scramble to control equatorial Africa In just three decades at the end of the nineteenth century the heart of Africa was utterly transformed Virtually closed to outsiders for centuries by the early 1900s the rainforest of the Congo River basin was one of the most brutally exploited places on earth In Land of Tears historian Robert Harms reconstructs the chaotic process by which this happened Beginning in the 1870s traders explorers and empire builders from Arabia Europe and America moved rapidly into the region where they pioneered a deadly trade in ivory and rubber for Western markets and in enslaved labor for the Indian Ocean rim Imperial conquest followed close behind Ranging from remote African villages to European diplomatic meetings to Connecticut piano key factories Land of Tears reveals how equatorial Africa became fully fatefully and tragically enmeshed within our global world Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham,John Sterling,Frederick Denison Maurice,Henry Stebbing,Charles Wentworth Dilke,Thomas Kibble Hervey,William Hepworth Dixon,Norman Maccoll,Vernon Horace Rendall,John Middleton Murry,1859
