La Bible Bibliotheque De La Pleiade French Edition:

Twentieth-Century French Poetry Hugues Azérad, Peter Collier, 2010-05-20 Modern French poetry is unique in the boldness and creativity of its experiments in form and genre from classical verse to vers libre from calligrammes to prose poems and po sie sonore This anthology includes 32 poems by French and francophone poets each followed by an accessibly written detailed commentary The different approaches adopted in the close readings by specialists in their field reflect the major trends in current literary criticism and theory A foreword by one of France s foremost poets Yves Bonnefoy a general introduction and an afterword provide a helpful theoretical framework for the study of modern poetry An extensive bibliography concise biographies of the poets and a glossary of literary terms are included Students of French and of comparative literature will gain a deeper understanding of the development of French verse and of the artistic movements especially in the visual arts which have shaped twentieth century French poetry Art of the Everyday Ruth Bernard Yeazell, 2008 Realist novels are celebrated for their detailed attention to ordinary life But two hundred years before the rise of literary realism Dutch painters had already made an art of the everyday pictures that served as a compelling model for the novelists who followed By the mid 1800s seventeenth century Dutch painting figured virtually everywhere in the British and French fiction we esteem today as the vanguard of realism Why were such writers drawn to this art of two centuries before What does this tell us about the nature of realism In this beautifully illustrated and elegantly written book Ruth Yeazell explores the nineteenth century s fascination with Dutch painting as well as its doubts about an art that had long challenged traditional values After showing how persistent tensions between high theory and low genre shaped criticism of novels and pictures alike Art of the Everyday turns to four major novelists Honor de Balzac George Eliot Thomas Hardy and Marcel Proust who strongly identified their work with Dutch painting For all these writers Dutch art provided a model for training themselves to look closely at the particulars of middle class life Yet even as nineteenth century novelists strove to create illusions of the real by modeling their narratives on Dutch pictures Yeazell argues they chafed at the model A concluding chapter on Proust explains why the nineteenth century associated such realism with the past and shows how the rediscovery of Vermeer helped resolve the longstanding conflict between humble details and the aspirations of high art Dei gesta per Francos Michel Balard, Benjamin Z. Kedar, 2017-03-02 Professor Jean Richard is the doyen of crusade historians Although also well known as one of the most distinguished historians of Burgundy he has through publications which have been appearing for over half a century established himself as the greatest living scholar working on crusading and the Latin East His book on twelfth century Tripoli published in 1945 is still the standard work on the county In the 1950s he and Joshua Prawer provided a revolutionary approach towards the constitution and institutions of the kingdom of Jerusalem He went on to pave the way for an entirely new understanding of the kingdom of Cyprus In the 1960s he was one of a few historians who were sign posting a more empathetic view of the ideology of crusading and the motivation of crusaders and he developed his ideas further in recent monographs on Saint Louis and on the crusades in general His work on Catholic missions to Asia and the role of the papacy in those enterprises is generally regarded as setting standards which few can approach To celebrate his eightieth birthday thirty nine colleagues have contributed articles in fields which themselves illustrate Professor Richard's breadth of interest the crusades the military orders and the Latin settlements on the Levantine mainland and the island of Cyprus

Qumranica Minora I Florentino García Martínez, 2007-05-31 Qumranica Minora I Qumran Origins and Apocalypticism brings together the author's much discussed articles on the so called Groningen Hypothesis an hypothesis about the origins of the Qumran Community in relation to the parent Essene movement and Palestinian apocalyptic movements as well as a selection of his most important essays on Early Jewish and Qumran apocalypticism The third part of the book consists of surveys of the history of research on the Dead Sea Scrolls The volume includes English translations of essays that were originally written in Spanish and French

Exegesis Francois Bovon, Gregoire Rouiller, 1978-01-01 Pittsburgh Theological Monograph Series General Editor Dikran Y Hadidian

Chrétien Continued Matilda Tomaryn Bruckner, 2009-01-15 Matilda Tomaryn Bruckner provides the first book length examination of all four verse continuations that follow Chr tien's unfinished Grail story a powerful site of rewriting from the late twelfth through the fifteenth centuries By focusing on the dialogue between Chr tien and the verse continuators this study demonstrates how the patterns and puzzles inscribed in the first author's romance continue to guide his successors whose additions and reinventions throw new light back on the problems medieval readers and writers found in the mother text questions about society and the individual love gender relations and family ties chivalry violence and religion issues of collective authorship and doubled heroes interpretation rewriting and canon formation However far the continuations appear to wander from the master text the manuscript tradition supports an implicit claim of oneness extending across the multiplicity of discordant voices combined in a dozen different manuscript compilations the varying ensembles in which most medieval readers encountered Chr tien's Conte Indeed considered as a group the continuators show remarkable fidelity in integrating his romance's key elements as they respond sympathetically to the dynamic incongruities and paradoxical structure of their model its desire for and deferral of ending its non Aristotelian logic of and both in which contiguity forces interpretation and further narrative elaboration Unlike their prose competitors the verse continuators remain faithful to the dialectical movement inscribed across the interlace of two heroes intertwined stories the contradictory yet complementary spirit that propels Chr tien's decentered Conte du Graal

The Dead Sea Scrolls in Scholarly Perspective: A History of Research Devorah Dimant, Ingo Kottsieper, 2012-01-20 This book contains an exhaustive survey of past and present Qumran research outlining its particular development in various circumstances and national contexts For the first time perspectives and information not recorded in any other publication are highlighted

One Word but Many Tongues Matthew J. Motyka, 2016-11-28 This book recounts the author's spiritual transformation resulting from his encounter with new languages and cultures This encounter allowed the author to transcend the boundaries imposed on him by the circumstances of his birth born and raised behind the Iron Curtain during the Cold War The fresh outlook on the world that emerged for him is the kind of radical shift that lies at the heart of all intense spiritual experiences regardless of faith affiliation His journey moves beyond the self to explore the domain of otherness in language literature and the arts Ultimately the author arrives at a spiritual place in which disparate culture bound realms blend an expanse of acceptance harmony and peace The Power of Imagination Xavier

Pavie,2025-07-11 This book provides an overview of imagination and its role for survival in a complex high intensity environment More than this this book aims ambitiously to inspire imagination It establishes that imagination is neither abstract nor frivolous but a technique a skill and a discipline that one must embrace to facilitate the transformation of both society and oneself Whether facing contemporary challenges like climate change social and political crises or grappling with the complexities posed by artificial intelligence machine learning or transhumanism imagination seems to be what is lacking in order both to endure and to build Often reduced to the realm of artists imagination is a unique value added by humankind one that can envision a way of creating new worlds In this book the imagination becomes a spiritual exercise aimed at rethinking our ways of life in order to establish both a new construction of oneself and society Researchers and general readers alike will find much in this call to imagine how other worlds might be possible Roman Antiquities in

Renaissance France, 1515-65 Richard Cooper,2016-04-08 Making use of new and original material based on firsthand sources this book interrogates the vogue for collecting discussing depicting and putting to political and cultural use Roman antiquities in the French Renaissance It surveys a range of activity from the labours of collectors and patrons to royal entries considers attacks on the craze for the antique and sets literary instances among a much wider spectrum of artistic endeavour While Renaissance collecting and antiquarianism have certainly been the object of critical scrutiny this study brings disparate fields into a single focus and it examines not only areas of antiquarian expertise and interest such as statues coins and books but also important individual historical figures The opening chapters deal with the role played in Rome by French ambassadors who sent back antiques to collectors at court who in the person of Jean Du Bellay undertook excavations and assembled a major personal collection which was housed in a new villa in the ruined Baths of Diocletian The volume includes a valuable appendix which presents in transcription catalogues of the collections of Cardinal Jean du Bellay Love, Desire and Transcendence in French Literature Paul Gifford,2016-12-05 European literature and theory of the twentieth century have been intensely preoccupied with questions of Desire whereas love has increasingly represented a fractured and strange if not actually suspect proposal this is a prime symptom of an age of deep cultural mutation and uncertainty Paul Gifford s book allows this considerable contemporary phenomenon to be observed steadily and whole with strategic understanding of its origins nature and meaning Gifford paints a clear and coherent picture of the evolution of erotic ideas and their imaginary and formal expressions in modern French writing He first retraces the formative matrix of French tradition by engaging with five classic sources Plato's Symposium the Song of Songs the myth of Genesis the tension between Greek Eros and Christian Agape and the repercussions of Nietzsche's declaration of the death of God Modern variations on these perennial problematics are then pursued in ten chapters devoted to Proust Valéry Claudel Breton Bataille Duras Barthes Irigaray Emmanuel Kristeva Literary and theoretical perspectives are perfectly blended in his study of these attempts at deciphering Eros The book will appeal not only to students of French literature but to all those interested in the cultural upheavals of the twentieth century

The Canon and Beyond Tobias Nicklas ,2024-10-28 How did the canon of the New Testament come into being To what extent can we also speak of a history of the already existing canon What functions were and are assigned to it in different historical contexts What is the relationship between canonical writings and extra canonical writings What is the relationship between Christian apocrypha and the texts of the Bible from the Old and New Testaments The number of questions surrounding the canon of New Testament writings and the lasting significance of apocryphal writings and traditions in relation to the canon is almost inexhaustible This volume brings together contributions by Tobias Nicklas on these topics from the past twenty years A particular focus is on the reassessment of Christian apocrypha and their relationship to image and rite and on understanding of canon as a dynamic entity Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library. Research Libraries,1979

The Notion of Heresy in Greek Literature in the Second and Third Centuries Alain Le Boulluec,2022-07-21 Inspired by analogies between the construction of heresy and the representation of madness described by Michael Foucault in Histoire de la folie l'âge classique Madness and Civilization The Notion of Heresy in Greek Literature in the Second and Third Centuries demonstrates how the concept of heresy emerges in the work of Justin Martyr It shows that this invention created a concept capable of dominating every current suspected of endangering ecclesial harmony and transformed the tradition of Greek historiography of philosophical schools by combining it with the apocalyptic theme of diabolical conspiracy Le Boulluec examines how this model is refined by Irenaeus then modified by Clement of Alexandria and Origen First published in 1985 as dh r sie dans la litt rature grecque IIe IIIe s cles this newly translated work includes a substantial new introduction surveying literature in the previous decades In line with Walter Bauer's pioneering book which overturned the confessional model making heresy a later falsification of orthodoxy it shows that the notion of heresy was invented in the second century and then refined in order to remove all legitimacy from diversity and pluralism in the fields of doctrine and practice Le Boulluec studies rhetorical practices and polemical assimilations to highlight key debates on the relationship between philosophy Christianity and Judaism and to examine the conflict of interpretations that drive the exegesis of the Bible in constructing an orthodoxy La restauration de la création Michele Cutino,Isabel Iribarren,Françoise Vinel,2017-12-05 La restauration de la création se propose d examiner le statut des animaux dans la pensée chrétienne ancienne et médiévale selon une perspective eschatologique centrée sur la question du salut des animaux dans le projet divin L ouvrage est organisé en trois parties les sources bibliques notamment la promesse du renouvellement de la création dans Rm 8 21 les laborations doctrinales dans la période patristique puis au Moyen âge enfin des réflexions contemporaines propos du statut des animaux dans nos sociétés Souvent absente du débat social propos des animaux la perspective historique chrétienne proposée dans ce volume se veut une contribution originale la réflexion actuelle sur le statut juridique et éthique des animaux La restauration de la création aims to examine the status of animals in ancient and medieval Christian thought following an eschatological perspective that is focusing on the question of the salvation of animals according to the divine plan The volume is articulated in three parts Biblical sources in particular the promise of the renewal of creation according to Rm 8 21 Patristic and medieval doctrinal elaborations on the question finally contemporary considerations regarding the status of animals in our societies Often absent from the current social debate on the subject the historical Christian perspective which this volume proposes is intended as an original contribution to today's ongoing reflexion on the legal and ethical status of animals

Proust's Imaginary Museum Gabrielle Townsend, 2008 This study of Marcel Proust's creative imagination examines an aspect of the novel that has hitherto been largely overlooked the author's dependence on secondary visual sources Gabrielle Townsend argues that reproductions play a key role in the work's complex multi-layered structure Reading Baudelaire's Le Spleen de Paris and the Nineteenth-Century Prose Poem Seth Whidden, 2022 A study of Charles Baudelaire's Le Spleen de Paris 1859 that explores how the practice of reading prose poems might be different from reading poetry in verse It illustrates how Baudelaire wrote texts that he considered poems and how this form shows aspects of his poetic modernity

The History of the Church Guy Bedouelle, 2003-04-10 Bedouelle offers an overview of the history of the church from a theological perspective and addresses the issues and problems of the subject Adapting Nineteenth-Century France Kate Griffiths, Andrew Watts, 2015-05-15 Adapting Nineteenth Century France uses the output of six canonical novelists and their recreations in a variety of media to push for a re-conceptualisation of our approach to the study of adaptation The works of Balzac Hugo Flaubert Zola Maupassant and Verne reveal themselves not as originals to be defended from adapting hands but fashioned from the adapted voices of a host of earlier artists moments and media The text analyses re-workings of key nineteenth century texts across time and media in order to underline the way in which such re-workings cast new light on many of their source texts and reveal the probing analysis nineteenth century novelists undertake in relation to notions of originality and authorial borrowing Moreover Adapting Nineteenth Century France traces their subsequent recreations in a comparable range of genres encompassing key modern media of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries radio silent film fiction musical theatre sound film and television French Romantic Travel Writing Christopher W. Thompson, 2012 A pioneering overview of the travel books produced by fourteen French Romantic writers including Chateaubriand Stendhal Hugo Nerval Sand Rimé Dumas and Tristan whose journeys ranged from Peru to Russia and from North America to North Africa and the Near East
